All-Or-Nothing Summit Accord Sought By West

No Piecemeal Settlements, NATO Told

ISTANBUL (AP)—The Western Big Three pledged to their NATO partners Tuesday they will seek an all-or-nothing understanding with the Soviet Union to end the global cold war at the summit.

No piecemeal settlements would really relax East-West tension, it was agreed.

Turkish tanks stood guard at the far end of the plaza from the new city hall where the 15 foreign ministers of the NATO council met and reached these conclusions.

But only one incident marred an otherwise quiet day. The city is under martial law as a result of student demonstrations demanding that Turkish Premier Adnan Menderes' government restore political freedoms.

Troops Move In

Fifty students assembled for an antigovernment parade near Taksim Square in the heart of the city but troops with bayonets levellled moved in and dispersed them before they could form ranks.

The army was taking no chances. Troops patrolled the streets in threes soon after the 8 p.m. curfew and heavy tanks rumbled to ancient Dolmabache Palace where the NATO ministers were at a banquet.

These were the highlights of the NATO Council session as related by senior authorites:

Secretary of State Christian A. Herter, British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd and French Foreign Minister Maurice Couve de Murville assured their allies any stopgap deal arranged by President Eisenhower and the summit chiefs on Berlin will leave Western rights intact. Otherwise, they promised, there will be no deal with Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev at the summit meeting in Paris.

Detente Up To Soviets

Herter, Lloyd and Couve de Murville stressed they will demand that the Soviets quit trying to upset governments such as those of West Germany, Greece and Iran—if a detente really is wanted. Detente is a French word widely used by diplomats to mean relaxation of tension.

As a sort of slogan the Allies resolved that the Soviets must be told any East-West detente must be indivisable.

Administration To Offer Medical Aid Subsidy Plan

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Eisenhower administration will recommend to Congress Wednesday that most persons over 65 be given a chance to buy hospital and nursing home insurance at a subsidized rate of $24 a year, informants said Tuesday.

The administration will propose that federal and state governments share the cost of the subsidy. Informed sources estimated it would cost the federal treasury about 600 million dollars a year.

The plan is the administration's answer to Democratic proposals to add hospital insurance to benefits available under the Social Security program and to finance it through higher payroll taxes on workers and their employers.

Ford Plan Insures Secrecy Of Choice

DETROIT (AP) — A program that provides Ford Motor Co. employes with an opportunity to contribute financially to the political party of their choice was outlined Tuesday by the company.

Henry Ford II, president, said the program was the first ever undertaken by a major industry which guarantees the secrecy of choice.

He said the purpose "is to exert an influence for good government by broadening the base of participation in politics."

Practice Alert Tests Civilian Defense Setup

WASHINGTON (AP)—The plan for keeping the people informed during an attack—and at the same time confusing the enemy—got a nationwide workout Tuesday. It was the start of Operation Alert 1960, a three-day civil defense exercise.

For 30 minutes, all television stations in the nation were blacked out and radio stations stopped their regular broadcasts. During that time the 5,000 radio stations in the civil defense, or Conelrad, emergency network broadcast instructions and talks by officials, including President Eisenhower.

Except for this public participation, it was in most cities primarily a training exercise for federal, state and local officials. Busy millions were unaware of what was going on unless they had TV or radio sets turned on or heard the moaning sirens signal a hypothetical attack.

However, New York City's streets were deserted for 15 minutes. Motor vehicles were parked and millions rushed to shelters. New York State law requires everyone to participate in civil defense tests.

In New York's City Hall Park 26 persons were arrested for refusing to take shelter. Police described most of them as "resisters" — conscientious objectors to war and nuclear tests. But civil defense officials termed the response in the city excellent.

Participation by federal workers in Washington was most extensive at the Pentagon and the State Department. Some other departments kept the workers at their desks during the 15 to 30 minute evacuation exercise.

At the Pentagon, the more than 26,000 employed were herded into hallway shelters and the two top floors were cleared of all except emergency personnel. A few "token" representatives were flown by helicopter to various emergency command posts in Maryland and Virginia.

The State Department reported that its 4,000 employes tucked away their secret papers in safes and got out of the buildings in eight minutes—four minutes faster than the record set last year.

Senate Boosts Space Program

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Senate approved a civilian space authorization bill Tuesday totaling 50 million dollars more than President Eisenhower sought after hearing a Democratic warning against placing "financial roadblocks on our path to the stars."

The roll call vote was 78 to 0 for passage of the bill.

The measure would fix a ceiling of 970 million dollars on outlays by the National Aeronautics & Space Administration (NASA) in the new fiscal year beginning July 1. Included was some 230 million dollars for the Saturn super rocket and $107,750,000 for manned space flight.

The House previously approved an authorization measure providing the exact 920 million dollars sought by Eisenhower. It subsequently cut 39 million dollars from the request, however, in approving a follow-up bill providing the actual cash.

Chessman's Body Cremated Without Rites

SAN RAFAEL, Calif. (AP) — The body of Caryl Chessman, one of the most articulate criminals ever executed, was cremated Tuesday without religious ceremony.

The convict-author's body became ashes soon after publication of a letter, written in his final hours, telling his views on the problem of juvenile delinquency.

The letter, started on his death row typewriter and finished in longhand shortly before he died Monday in San Quentin's gas chamber, was addressed to Mary Crawford, San Francisco News-Call Bulletin reporter.

Writing of his life as a "violent young psychopath" and his futile 12-year fight to escape execution, Chessman's letter asked:

"How could he have been changed from an angry, undisciplined young man, filled with mistrust of the world and even himself, into a useful citizen?

"In larger context, where and how are we failing those we call juvenile delinquents?"

There is no easy answer, Chessman wrote, but he declared: "I believe that so long as we seek a negative answer with punishment and the threat of punishmen, deluding ourselves with the witless fiction that punishment per se is either a correction or a cure, we will continue to see the problem get worse."

Chessman argued that externally applied repression only increases the pressures inside young humans—their conflicts, anxieties, wants, hopes and dreams.

Chessman's casket bore two red roses as it was driven to Tamalpais Cemetery for cremation. Only one person joined funeral home attendants and newsmen at the cemetery.

Gordon Roadanal, a San Francisco teacher, said he had come because "I didn't want him forgotten."

An avowed agnostic, Chessman directed there be no religious service. The ashes will go to Glendale, Calif., where his mother is buried.

'Mother Of Year' Salvaged Retarded Youngest Son

NEW YORK (AP) — A 72-year-old Californian, who salvaged her retarded youngest son without neglecting five other children, Tuesday was named American Mother of 1960. She is Emerald Arbogast of Los Angeles.

Her selection was announced by the American Mothers Committee Inc., which brought her here for a testimonial luncheon Friday.

Talking with reporters, the trim grandmother of 10 and great-grandmother of four said of child rearing: "Home environment is important, and freedom under supervision."

Mrs. Arbogast gave her husband, Glen, credit for much of her success as a mother. An electronics firm official, he once was named Man of the Year by the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce.

Mrs. Arbogast told a news conference she doesn't smoke but does indulge in a glass of sherry—once a year before Thanksgiving dinner. As for form-fitting slacks and sweaters on women, she said: "I just turn my head. I think they lose some feminine appeal when they dress that way."

When her youngest son was born 35 years ago, Mrs. Arbogast was told by doctors that he was a "mongoloid who would never be anything but a burden."

"I would not give up," she recalled, "and I used everything I could—I used the trial and error method."

Today, the son plays the piano, types, rides horseback, travels alone and is self-supporting.

Ike Appeals For Action On Program

President Urges Less Politicking And More Work

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower appealed to the Democratic-controlled Congress Tuesday to pass up politicking and get down to legislating for all America in these closing months of the election year session.

"Too great a preoccupation with events of an election year could seriously impede constructive effort," Eisenhower said in a special message.

"We should jointly resolve that the shortness of time and political rivalries will not be allowed to prevent us from serving the American people effectively."

"This speech—it's called a message but I call it a speech—seems to be the Republican platform," House Speaker Sam Rayburn (D-Tex) said.

One Major Accomplishment

Other Democrats accused Eisenhower of using a double standard in urging more foreign aid spending but a tighter curb on spending at home.

But Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois praised Eisenhower's message as "an earnest appeal for a cooperative effort."

Eisenhower credited Congress with one major accomplishment in four months of work so far—passage of a new civil rights bill. But even here, the President chided Congress for rejecting certain of his recommendations.

The President plugged hard — as he did in a nationally broadcast speech Monday night — for his four-billion-dollar foreign aid program which he called imperative to the nation's security.

Medical Aid Plan Promised

He asked anew for a farm bill to cope with the problem of mounting crop surpluses, particularly wheat.

While Eisenhower listed a whole group of proposals ranging from more federal judges to a "moderate" increase in the $1-an-hour minimum wage, the only really new one was in the field of health care for the elderly.

The President said Secretary of Welfare Arthur S. Flemming on Wednesday will unfold "a new program which will enable older people truly in need of help to meet the calamity of catastrophic illness."

Without going into detail, he indicated this politically significant plan will be built around private health insurance, with federal and state sharing of the costs.

Africa Escapes Public Censure

LONDON (AP)—The Commonwealth prime ministers conference Tuesday ruled out any public condemnation of South Africa for its racial segregation policy.

Instead, the leaders of this free association of nations that once made up the British Empire decided to discuss the problem informally at a series of private meetings with South Africa's foreign minister, Eric Louw.

This formula was worked out at the opening of the 10-day conference, behind locked doors, after Louw reminded his colleagues that South Africa claims the sole responsibility for its own domestic policy.

The decision to avoid putting South Africa in the position of a defendant in court represented a triumph for Prime Minister Harold Macmillan of Britain over angry leaders from dark-skinned nations in the Commonwealth, particularly Ghana, India and Ceylon.

He convinced visiting leaders that more good could be done in informal conversations either singly or in pairs with Louw, who is deputizing for Prime Minister Hendrik F. Verwoerd, wounded last month by a white, Brititish-born assailant.

Malenkov Shifted

MOSCOW (AP) — Former Premier Georgi Malenkov has been shifted from his job of running the Kamenogorsk hydroelectric plant on the Siberian-Kazhak border, usually reliable sources said Tuesday.

Malenkov was stuck in the remote hydroelectric post after he and several Communist leaders were deposed by Premier Nikita Khrushchev in 1957 for "antiparty activities."

Ike Covers Ears As Guns Roar

Army Nuclear Age Weapons Shown To Ike

FT. BENNING, Ga. (AP)—The Army Tuesday paraded before President Eisenhower an awesome arsenal of nuclear weapons for foot soldier support. They included the spectacular new Davey Crockett short-range atomic gun.

Davey Crockett dwarfs in firepower anything we have ever known in the immediate area of the battle line said Secretary of the Army Wilber M. Brucker.

Brucker and top Army officials were on hand to welcome the President as he arrived by jet airliner from Washington for an old soldier's look at how the infantry is being trained in this age of nuclear weapons.

For 90 minutes the Army rolled its latest rockets, other weapons and equipment before Eisenhower as he sat in a cushioned chair at the edge of the parade grounds at this huge infantry training center.

A demonstration of the firing of some of them—without nuclear warheads, of course—was arranged for the President in advance of his departure for Washington late in the afternoon.

Shortly before the demonstration Eisenhower lunched in a grove of trees on fried chicken, baked beans and potato salad. Secretary of Defense Thomas S. Gates, Brucker and a group of young officers and enlisted men also were at the President's table.

What the President witnessed during his one-day visit was "Project Man," the code name for the theme of the operation—modern Army needs. The emphasis was on the foot soldier's role in the nuclear age—and how America's munitions makers are meeting the infantryman's needs.

Gen. Lyman L. Lemnitzer, Army chief of staff, welcomed Eisenhower to Ft. Benning—home of the infantry—as "the nation's No.1 infantry soldier."

It was something of a homecoming for the President. He was stationed at Benning for a few months immediately after World War I, and for seven months in 1926-27.

Five Killed In Crash Of Brazilian Plane

SAN JUAN, P.R. (UPI) — A Brazilian aircraft en route to San Juan from Miami crashed and burned Tuesday on the runways of Ramey Air Force Base.

The air traffic control tower at San Juan said there were no survivors of the crash indicating the plane was being ferried to Brazil and was not in commercial service.

U.S. Air Force firemen and rescue teams at Ramey reached the crash scene minutes after the crash but were not able to rescue any of the men aboard. Their nationality was not immediately established.

Dietrich Returns To Berlin Stage, Scores Triumph

BERLIN (AP) —Marlene Dietrich returned to the Berlin stage Tuesday night after 31 years' absence and scored a triumph.

She took two encores and 11 curtain calls.

Mayor Willy Brandt stood up and led the applause when she concluded with a favorite local song: "I Still Have a Trunk in Berlin."

Billion Budget Rise Forecast

WASHINGTON (AP) — Another billion-dollar rise in federal spending—to a probable peacetime record of 81 billion dollars—was forecast Tuesday for 1962 by Budget Director Maurice H. Stans.

Stans warned against "compulsive spending" in a speech at the annual meeting of the U.S. Chamber of Commerce. He said the increase of "a billion dollars or more" from the budget now before Congress will result from built-in cost increases of programs already on the law books.

"There are few built-in decreases," Stans told the businessmen, "since government programs once begun are usually incapable of being turned off."

Stans challenged the idea that crash spending is the route to economic growth. And he rejected what he called the illusion that victory in the cold war can be bought by panicky infusions of money.

"Instead, it is a formula for rationalizing and inviting higher taxes, bigger debts, and fiscal exhaustion," he said.

Arab Boycott Spreads

CAIRO Egypt (AP) — The International Confederation of Arab Trade Unions announced Tuesday that workers in Libyan hotels, restaurants and tourist offices would not serve Americans. A spokesman said Libyans acted in solidarity with Arab workers to counter U.S. picketing of United Arab Republic vessels in New York.

Congressmen Complain Of 'Trash' On Television

WASHINGTON (AP) — Television took some new blows Tuesday from congressmen complaining about trash, poor taste in programming and overcommercialization.

The industry was defended by President Leonard H. Goldenson of the American Broadcasting Co., testifying in the windup of House payola hearings which began last November.

Rep. Peter F. Mack (D-Ill), declared: "I think something must be done to control the trash over our airways."

Goldenson objected. He said TV is just 10 years old but is now giving Americans some of the greatest shows they've evern seen.

Rep. John E. Moss (D-Calif) scoffed at the idea that television's faults are the faults of youth.

"How can it be so young and have so many bad habits?" Moss asked.

There's a commercial gimmick in almost everything on TV he, said, and "I think you have reached a point where this most important means of communication has been subverted."

Rep. William L. Springer (R-Ill) suggested TV programming needs an inquiry all its own.

Goldenson said stiff competition dictated the change.

Anyhow, he said the quality of programming is getting better all the time. For example, he said ABC plans to dramatize the histories written by Winston Churchill, and also has arranged for a series of science shows to be tied in with school classes.

Demonstrations Let Up In Seoul; Curfew Eased

SEOUL, South, Korea (AP) — Threats of further student demonstrations against the National Assembly appeared to fade so the South Korean caretaker government shoved the curfew in this capital city back to midnight.

The Assembly Tuesday formally accepted the resignation of Syngman Rhee as president as well as the resignations of six assemblymen accused of helping to rig the March 15 elections that returned him to power and then touched off nationwide student riots. The lawmakers are now working on changes in the government setup calling for new elections.

The regime of acting President Huh Chung also issued a policy statement pledging reforms in U.S. aid management, measures to increase democracy, and steps to improve relations with Japan, another important U. S. ally in Asia.

Student groups in Pusan and Taegu, the second and third largest cities in South Korea, have demonstrated by the thousands for three days calling for the Assembly to quit and order new elections right away. No clashes were reported.

In Seoul, leaders of the students' revolt voted Tuesday by a slim majority to urge the present Assembly to complete the work of cutting down the presidential powers and giving the Cabinet more responsibility.

One group of about 150 diehard students insisted on staging a demonstration. They squatted in front of the Assembly building demanding that the assemblymen resign on the ground they were elected in 1958 "through the use of violence, money and illegal tactics."

The army broke up their demonstration after 40 minutes by tossing tear gas bombs. This appeared to indicate that the new government will not tolerate any more student marches.

Humphrey Heads Morse In D.C. Race

Kennedy Forces Concede "Setback" In Hoosier State

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (UPI)—Sen. John F. Kennedy's Indiana campaign headquarters said Tuesday night that Vice President Richard M. Nixon had out-polled Kennedy in their Indiana presidential primary "popularity" contest.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (UPI) — Vice President Richard M. Nixon won his presidential popularity contest with Sen. John F. Kennedy Tuesday in Indiana's most populous area and held early leads Tuesday in more than two-thirds of the state's counties which had reported returns.

Returns from 1,216 of the state's 4,299 precincts gave Nixon 120,165. Returns from 1,175 precincts gave Kennedy 98,935.

Bellwether Marion County, which includes Indianapolis, gave Nixon a modest margin over Kennedy, but not nearly so great as the margin by which President Eisenhower out-polled Sen. Estes Kefauver in the 1956 primaries.

However, with only 80 per cent of the pricincts reporting, Nixon's Marion County total already had surpassed the complete vote given Eisenhower four years ago as the vice. president surged past the 50,000-vote mark.

Humphrey Ahead In D.C.

With nearly half the ballot boxes counted—50 of 136—Humphrey had 1,960 votes and Morse 1,315.

Adlai E. Stevenson, the 1952 and 1956 Democratic presidential nominee, also figured in the contest. Though his name was not carried on the ballot, a slate of delegates pledged to him was entered over his objections.

Although the votes for his delegates ran well behind those pledged to Humphrey, some individuals on the Stevenson slate ran ahead of some on the Morse slate.

No presidential candidate was listed on the Republican ticket, but all candidates for the party's national convention were pledged to Vice President Richard M. Nixon.

No write-ins were allowed on either ballot.

Ohio Count Slow

COLUMBUS, Ohio (UPI)—Scattered early returns from Ohio's primary Tuesday showed the organization slates pledged to Vice President Richard M. Nixon and Sen. John F. Kennedy for the presidential nominations taking an early lead.

Both Nixon and Kennedy were assured of Ohio's support. All Democrat delegates in a bitter intra-party struggle were pledged to him and 55 of the 56 Republican delegates who won without opposition were pledged to Nixon.

The count was expected to be unusually slow because of the record number of candidates for delegates and for county offices.

Carlton Leads In Flordia

MIAMI (UPI) —Early returns from Florida's Democratic primary for governor Tuesday night put Doyle E. Carlton Jr., a moderate on the racial issue, in the lead.

With 107 of the state's 1971 precincts reporting, Carlton had 12,086 votes to 10,028 for Farris Bryant, who was in second place.

These were the two candidates who spent the most in campaign funds.

Bette Davis Sues Merrill For Divorce

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Actress Bette Davis has sued actor Gary Merrill for divorce in Portland, Maine, the Herald-Express said Tuesday.

The action was filed last Thursday, the newspaper account said.

The couple married in Juarez, Mexico, July 29, 1950. They have three children, Barbara, 12, Margot, 8, and Michael, 7.

They have had several previous spats, but always have reconciled.

Japan's No. 1 Earner

TOKYO (AP)—Electric appliance tycoon Konosuke Matsushita reported a personal income of $713,508 in 1959, making him Japan's top earner for the third consecutive year. Second highest earner was Sadao Idemitsu, president of a petroleum company who reported $495,977.

Pressure On Him To Quit In W.Va., Humphrey Says

HUNTINGTON, W.Va. (UPI) — Sen. Hubert Humphrey of Minnesota said Tuesday "tremendous pressure" was being exerted to have him withdraw from the West Virginia presidential preference primary for the sake of party harmony.

He told a news conference here "certain people" urged him to pull out of the Democratic primary race in the Mountain State after he was defeated by Sen. John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts in Wisconsin.

Humphrey was asked if he was inferring Kennedy was behind the pressure.

"I stand on the statement I made," he replied but declining to elaborate.

Starting in the stretch drive with the primary a week away, Humphrey also spoke out on his campaign finances, asked for help from local businessmen and attacked the campaigning tactics of Franklin D. Roosevelt Jr., who has made many excursions into this state in Kennedy's behalf.

Kennedy, meanwhile, was scheduled to arrive in Bluefield, W.Va., Tuesday night by plane from Washington for an address at a rally in Welch.

Maryland Hit By One 'Bomb' In CD Exercise

BALTIMORE (AP) — Up to Tuesday evening, Maryland came out of a simulated bomb attack quite well.

Only one missile burst on the Free State, plotters at Civil Defense headquarters said. That one landed near Friendship International Airport, eight miles southwest of here.

A spokesman at CD said the missile supposedly had been fired from an enemy submarine in the Atlantic Ocean.

There was no immediate word on casualties. Such an attack with a nuclear weapon in event of war would probably claim thousands of casualties.

Sirens wailed over the state at 2 p. m. and a special radio program on two frequencies told of the purpose of the alert.

Among those who spoke on the transcribed program were Gov. Tawes of Maryland, President Eisenhower, Defense Secretary Thomas Gates and Gov. J. Almond Lindsay of Virginia.

Generally, housewives, office workers and school children only heard the sirens and didn't participate in take-cover exercises.

However, in Cumberland traffic stopped and pedestrians took cover. There was a fire, rescue and communication exercise Tuesday night in Allegany County, Civil Defense headquarters reported.

In some other counties traffic was stopped. CD officials in Harford County said they had some siren failures.

And at the $325,000 underground fortress where State CD Director Sherley Ewing headed operations, the 80 or so participants in the alert tried out a dehydrated supper. It included onion soup, orange juice, beef stew over biscuits, apricots and coffee.

One of those who tasted the emergency meal allowed that "It wasn't bad at all."

"SPACE MIRROR"—This is the 100-foot "inflatable satellite" NASA has scheduled for launching at Cape Canaveral Thursday as "Project Echo." It is made of metallized polyester film .0005 of an inch thick, about half the thickness of cigaret package cellophane. Such a satellite is carried aloft packed in a 28-inch sphere in the nose of a rocket. It inflates automatically when released.

Giant Balloon Satellite Shot Slated Tomorrow

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) —A balloon communications satellite, bright as a star and tall as a 10-story building, is scheduled for launching from this missile test center Thursday.

The satellite is designed to test the feasibility of using a system of satellites for fast, accurate global communications. The project, called Echo, could lead to worldwide radio, television and telephone networks.

If the 100-foot sphere orbits, widely separated ground stations will try to bounce radio signals and voice messages off its highly reflective aluminum surface.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration, which doesn't like to release the dates of space launchings, announced the Echo date two weeks ago to give volunteer project participants adequate time for preparation. These include government agencies, scientific groups and industries in many parts of the world.

Most ham radio operators do not have powerful enough equipment to carom signals off the big sphere but they will be able to tune in on signals sent by groups with adequate equipment.

The major experiment will be an attempt to exchange signals and messages between the Bell Telephone Holmdel, N.J., laboratories and the NASA jet propulsion tracking station at Goldstone, Calif.

Goldstone will transmit via the satellite on 2390 megacycles and receive on 960 megacycles. Holmdel will transmit on 960 and receive on 2390.

'Minuteman' Nearing Operational Stage

HILL AIR FORCE BASE, Utah (AP) — The commanding general of the Strategic Air Command said Tuesday the Minuteman missile is now moving into the operational stage to take its place as one of America's major defense weapons.

Gen. Thomas S. Power made this description of the solid-fuel, mobile missile as he arrived at this Air Force base in northern Utah to inspect facilities for a coming test of proposed railroad launching facilities.

The Air Force disclosed that the first mobility tests will be run out of Hill AFB about June 20. Later tests will be at Des Moines, Iowa.

Khrush Opens Trade Fair With Calm Address

MOSCOW (AP) — Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev sparked the opening of the Czechoslovak trade fair Tuesday with a calm, collected speech and confined fireworks to a demonstration of his rifle-shooting skill.

Although noting the 15th anniversary of the victory over Germany will be celebrated soon, Khrushchev made no new demands and repeated no old ones for the conclusion of a peace treaty and the departure of the Western Allies from West Berlin.

He emphasized the Soviet Union wants economic cooperation with the West but added, "If the capitalists place obstacles in the way of such cooperation, this would not break us."

"We are capable of advancing our economy without aid from the capitalist countries," Khrushchev added.

After hailing Czech economic achievements during 15 years of Communist rule, Khrushchev strolled through heavy rain around the exhibition, stopping at a shooting gallery where he set off bells with one shot and long drum rolls with another.

Bigotry? It's Easy To Find In W. Virginia

By ARTHUR EDSON

PINCH, W.Va. (AP)—If it's religious bigotry you're hunting, you won't have to search far.

You can leave Charleston, the state capital, drive along the pretty Elk River, and cross over to Pinch. It's a lovely place, and it's easy to fall into a conversation with a kindly retired industrial worker. Soon the talk drifts to the presidential primary race May 10 between Sens. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass) and Hubert H. Humphrey (D-Minn). And how did he expect to vote?

"Well, I'll tell you," he said, "It won't be for no Cannady, I say no man can pray another man into heaven."

It's easy to make too much of this. West Virginia has no patent on intolerance. To paraphrase Will Rogers, we're all prejudiced, only in different directons.

Willie Fisher pushes a beer across the counter and says: "I'm a Protestant myself. Usually go to church Sunday, but last week I didn't feel so good. I listened to the radio, and here was this preacher saying how no one should vote for Kennedy because he's a Catholic.

"Soon as he finished I called him up and told him I figger a man had a right to belong to any church he chooses. I thought he had damn little to do to stand in that pulpit and criticize Kennedy. He said, 'I don't have any more time to talk to you.'"

"But I went to the doctor in town today," Walton said, "and do you know what he told me? 'Lord have mercy on the American people if he gets in.'"

Or let's go to Kingwood, in the northeast corner of the state. Here James Messenger, a coal miner, explains that last year he made exactly $127 in the mines and even with odd jobs never made enough to pay income tax.

Yet the economic picture isn't clear-cut either. If West Virginia has its desolate areas, it also has some of the most prosperous scenes in the world.

It's this that makes West Virginia's primary so interesting—and confusing.

Castro's Choice As New Envoy Friendly To U.S.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Prime Minister Fidel Castro was reported Tuesday to have proposed Jose Miro Cardona, his former ambassador to Spain, as new Cuban ambassador to Washington.

No advice that Miro would be acceptable to the United States has yet been sent to Havana, but U.S. officials regard him as friendly to the United States and such word is expected to be sent in due course.

Sailor Killed, Four Injured In Car Crash

LANCASTER, Pa. (AP) — One sailor was killed and four others injured Thursday — two seriously —when a convertible in which they were riding veered off Route 72, ran into a tree and flipped over on its top.

Paris Counters Tunisia Charge

PARIS (UPI) — France announced Tuesday it has sent a protest note to the United Nations Security Council charging that Tunisian-based rebel forces had been making "more and more frequent" attacks across the border into Algeria.

The French protest, dated Monday, said there had been 128 such attacks on French forces in the first three months of this year—71 of them in March. It cited details of 13 of the what it called the most blatant intrusions along the Algerian-Tunisian frontier.

The French note flatly denied Tunisian claims that the French had committed violations of Tunisia's air space and territory in operations against Algerian moslem rebels.

Seven Forced To Abandon Two Md. Yachts Rescued

Five Others On Third Boat Reach Safety

By The Associated Press

Seven persons forced to abandon two Maryland yachts in distress were safe Tuesday and unharmed. Five others on a third reached port safely after feared to have been missing.

Two of the yachts were on their way from Fort Lauderdale, Fla., to Oxford, Md., when they ran into stormy weather and rough seas off the Carolinas Monday.

The two boats became separated off Charleston, S. C.

The Dutch Treat foundered in 30 feet waves. A tanker, the Esso Bethlehem, heard its radio distress signals and went to the rescue.

The other yacht, Killdeer, meanwhile, did not know of its traveling companion's troubles. It went into the Charleston Yacht Club.

Aboard were Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. McComas Jr., their 10-year-old son Henry, and Thomas year-old son Henry, and Thomas Roy Brookes, 43, all of Bel Air, and Manuel Feder, 41, of Hanover, Pa.

Two other yachtsmen, Carl Gray of Bishop Head, Md., and Rodney Gibson of Bridgeton, N.J., jumped off a burning cabin cruiser off Wingate on the Honga River Tuesday noon.

They were picked up by a Tidewater Fisheries Commission patrol boat. The 35-foot cabin cruiser Resunda, owned by Gray, burned to, the water line and sank.

Gray said there was an explosion in the engine followed by fire shortly after he had taken on gasoline at the Wingate wharf.

Capt. A. W. Smith, master of the tanker that rescued those aboard the Dutch Treat, said the seas were whipped by 30 knot winds at the time.

"Our lifeboat was severely damaged by the seas and was almost filled with water when it got back to the ship," he said. "It was too dangerous to try to bring the lifeboat aboard so we let it go."

He said the tanker will proceed to New York with the survivors.

McComas said he was sorry over the Coast Guard search for his boat, but said "we weren't worried. The Killdeer is a fine craft."

He said he didn't know of the search because "all we got was rock 'n roll" music on the radio, so turned it off.

15-Man Group Named To Draft Loan Firm Bill

ANNAPOLIS (AP)—Gov. Tawes Tuesday named a 15-man committee to draw up a new bill to regulate Maryland's savings and loan industry.

Richard W. Case, Baltimore attorney and frequent adviser to the governor, will serve as chairman.

The committee is the outgrowth of Tawes' veto of a bill passed by the 1960 Legislature to bring savings and loan institutions under tighter state control. The controversial measure was opposed by small loan interests as harmful to them and by some others as not broad enough.

Tawes said in vetoing the bill last month that he would name a committee to survey the whole problem and come up with new legislation for the 1961 session.

Among members named to the study committee were Del. Joseph Tydings (D-Harford), sponsor of the vetoed bill, and Del. Jerome Robinson (D-Balto 4th), head of a Legislative Council committee which had been looking into the problem. Robinson had criticized the Tydings bill as "hastily drawn" and not comprehensive enough.

Tydings had admitted that the measure was a "stopgap" aimed at bringing under regulation savings and loan companies which have set up shop in Maryland after leaving other states. But he said it was better than no regulation at all and was urgently needed.

Other members of the study committee include Leslie J.Clark, Cumberland attorney.

5 Hagerstown Youths Fined For Vandalism

WESTMINSTER, Md. (AP) — Five South Hagerstown boys, convicted of destroying property during a visit here Jan. 15 for a high school basketball game, were fined by Magistrate G. Norman Hunter Tuesday and put on probation for a year.

The youths were accused of smashing the windows of a school bus and a greenhouse, and exploding a homemade explosive device under the hood of a car.

The magistrate was told total damage amounted to about $1,000, including more than $400 damage to the car. Restitution was made before the hearing.

Hunter fined each youth $100 and costs on the property destruction charge and gave them probation without verdict on eight other counts. He also suspended their drivers' licenses for three months.

Under the probation, the boys will have an 11 p.m. curfew and will be required to make monthly reports to probation officials for one year.

The boys were identified as Harry J. Robol Jr., Aaron E. Light Jr., Paul W. Hess, Thomas C. Hunt and Robert C. Nixon. Robol is 18, the others 16 and 17.

Mental Hospital Escapee Captured

ANNAPOLIS (AP) — Willliam Sutherland, 26, who escaped from Crownsville State Hospital Monday night, was captured Tuesday in a roadside telephone booth.

His companion, Nathaniel Napper, 31, disregarded three shots fired at him by Anne Arundel police and eluded capture.

Lt. John T. Erbe and Cpl. John Flood spotted the two fugitives at Dorr's Corner on Route 3.

They had escaped from the mental hospital by overpowering an attendant and taking his keys.

Sutherland was committed last November after being charged with the strangulation murder of his girl friend. Napper was sent to the hospital a month later after a charge of armed robbery.

Third Cop Suspended After Crash

ANNAPOLIS (AP)—Patrolman Frederick Hyde, who was riding in a police car when it hit a pole and killed his companion, was suspended Tuesday for drinking on duty at the time.

He was the third policeman suspended by Chief Wilbur C. Wade in connection with the case. One of them, Patrolman James Skiles, chose to resign rather than face the charges.

Chapin and Skiles were in a separate police car. Hyde was with Patrolman Gerald Hnyla who died after their car hit a pole on Fort Smallwood road last Wednesday morning.

Chief Wade said Hyde told him the four policemen had been drinking beer before the accident.

Two Receive 18-Year Terms In Slaying Case

CAMBRIDGE (AP)—Two young men were sentenced Tuesday to 18 years in the Maryland penitentiary after pleading guilty to shooting and beating their stepfather to death.

Chief Judge W. Laird Henry Jr. pronounced the penalty on James Caldwell, 18, and Vernon Gilbert Murray, 20, in Dorchester County Circuit Court.

After they entered their plea to a general homicide charge, the judge heard testimony in the case to determine the degree of guilt. He convicted them of second-degree murder.

The Murrays were accused in the death last Feb. 10 of George Washington Lee, 48, Like the defendants, he was a Negro.

The court was told the stepfather had treated the youngsters brutally and had threatened them and their mother.

Woman To Woman

By PATRICIA McCORMACK

NEW YORK (UPI)—How long has it been since you and your husband reviewed your personal affairs?

The Personal Affairs Institute suggests that such a review be done once a year—preferably during May, the "personal affairs month."

The check-up should cover insurances of all kinds, wills and even the state of your health. The purpose: To give yourself time to think about the important facets of life.

The institute maintains that most families neglect such things quite often in the normal rush of day-to-day living.

A thorough "personal affairs" check-up is more than a do-it-yourself project, however. To be thorough about it, you should get together with your attorney, accountant, life insurance advisor, bank or trust officer and other qualified experts.

In the review of life insurance policies, plans and provisions, it is suggested that you consider adequacy, use of dividends, cash values, method of paying premiums, payment of proceeds and disability provisions.

On the matter of wills, the institute urges you to draw one up if you have none. If you have a will, bring it up to date. Do you want to change the executors? Have you considered the advantages of trusts?

The institute makes the point that a thorough annual physical checkup is a "must" for busy breadwinners and mothers. Even if you are feeling "tops," pick up the phone sometime during May and make an appointment with your doctor for a physical audit.

The Personal Affairs Institute, headed by Horace E. DeLisser, was started in Freeport, Long Island, in 1956. Twenty communities throughout the nation have caught the "personal affairs" fever, naming May as "personal affairs month."

"In a short time," De Lisser said, "the idea has spread to such states as Maine, New Jersey, Texas, Colorado and South Dakota, and to other communities in New York state."

Amish, State End School Controversy

HARRISBURG, Pa. (UPI) — State Atty. Gen. Anne X. Alpern Monday pronounced the end of the Honeybrook School controversy which involved the refusal of 13 Amish parents to let seventh and eighth grade children attend a Berks County High School.

Miss Alpern said an "amicable judgment" was reached when the Amish decided to send the 14 children to a neighboring school district next September. She was informed of the decision in a letter from Aaron E. Beiler, Gap, Lancaster County, chairman of the Amish Education Committee.

At an April 12 meeting between the Amish and state officials, Beiler said settlement of the dispute boiled down to choosing between sending the children to another district or setting up their own parochial school which had been proposed by the state. The sect was given until May 1 to make up its mind.

No school district was mentioned in Beiler's letter, but at last month's meeting he made specific references to Caernarvon Twp., Lancaster County. Through their decision, the Amish must pay tuition and transportation to the neighboring district. In his letter, Beiler said: "We would pay whatever charge was decided to be proper and fair."

Tawes Names Md. Agriculture Dept. Study Unit

ANNAPOLIS, Md. (AP) — Gov. Tawes Monday appointed a seven-man commission to look into the "propriety, necessity and advisability" of establishing a Department of Agriculture in Maryland.

J. Homer Remsberg, Middletown farmer and milk producer, will be chairman of the group.

The study was requested in a joint resolution passed by the 1960 General Assembly. The resolution was sponsored by the House Committee on Agriculture and Natural Resources.

The state's agricultural affairs are now administered by the University of Maryland Board of Regents, which doubles as the state Board of Agriculture.

If the group finds a separate Department of Agriculture is advisable in Maryland, it is to draft necessary legislation. A report is to be submitted to Gov. Tawes and the General Assembly's between-sessions Legislative Council by Nov. 1 this year.

All seven appointees have been actively associated with the field of agriculture.

Remsberg is president of the Maryland-Virginia Milk Producers Assn., president of the Maryland Purebred Cattle Assn., director of the Federal Land Bank of Baltimore, treasurer of the National Milk Producers Federation, and past president of the Holstein Friesian Assn. of American.

Serving with him will be:

Wilson A. Heaps of Street, past president of the Maryland Farm Bureau, bank president, director of the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Co., and active for many years in agricultural conservation work.

J. Walter Hastings of Cambridge, veterinarian.

John D. Worthington III of Bel Air, farmer, newspaper man, and graduate of the University of Maryland College of Agriculture.

Dudley Smith of Mitchelville, formerly associated with the U.S. Department of Agriculture and active in agricultural affairs in southern Maryland for many years.

Wall Street Views

By JACK LEFLER

NEW YORK (AP)—Pessimism about business has been overdone and the stock market should take on a better tone before long, one Wall Street analyst said Monday.

"Without attempting to pinpoint the immediate action of the list, it strikes us that the market is approaching an area from which a good recovery could be mounted," said Standard & Poor's Corp.

The firm pointed out that while business is not as good as some had expected, the economy has not deteriorated and weaker areas are tending to stabilize.

"Overall business indicators were at record levels in the first quarter and should resume a moderately rising trend in coming months," Standard & Poor's said.

"The essential strength of the economy is reflected in aggregate corporate earnings, which show some year-to-year gain for the March quarter in spite of a number of well-publicized declines for individual companies. We believe the overall profits will continue to run at or above the level for the balance of 1960."

County Health Employes Pass Sanitation Test

Two members of the Allegany County Health Department have been certified as registered sanitarians by the National Association of Sanitarians, effective April 15.

The men, Walter J. Patterson and William F. Williams 3rd, were notified by Walter W. Kemsey of Burbank, Calif., president of the national association, that they had passed an examination by the board of examiners, thus qualifying them as sanitarians in all of the 50 states.

Patterson and Williams are two of only five registered sanitarians in Maryland, the rest being located in the Baltimore area, and one of them being an Army officer stationed at Aberdeen Proving Grounds.

Patterson, who resides at Woodland, RD 1, Frostburg, has been a member of the sanitation staff of the county Health Department for six years. Prior to that, he had been employed in the Baltimore area by the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Licensed to test milk by the State Board of Agricultude, Patterson has completed a correspondence course in sanitary engineering. A former student at Midland High School, he also attended the University of Maryland as an engineering student and is a Dale Carnegie graduate.

A son of Mrs. Mary (Miller) Patterson, with whom he resides, and the late Walter T. Patterson, he is an Air Force veteran of World War II, having served overseas for three years with Air Transport Command.

Active in the Masonic Order, Patterson held membership in Georges Creek Valley Lodge 131, AF&AM; Knights Templar and Shrine Club. He also is a member of the American Legion and the Maryland-Delaware Sewage Association, an organization for sanitarians and sanitary engineers.

Patterson is married to the former Miss Mildred Cesnick and is chairman of the Official Board of Woodland Methodist Church.

Williams, a son of Dr. and Mrs. W. Fred Williams, this city, has been associated with the Health Department for two years.

A graduate of Frostburg State Teachers College, he previously had been a teacher in the Allegany County school system. Williams also is an Army veteran of World War 11 with overseas duty. He holds membership in the American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Married to the former Miss Bettie Connor of Frostburg, they reside at 106 LeFevre Road. They have a daughter.

Suicide Rate High

TOKYO (UPI)—Tokyo teenagers are attempting suicide at the rate of nearly two a day, according to the metropolitan police board.

The board said 182 teen-agers had tried to end their lives so far this year in the city and 72 of them were successful.

Local Hotel Worker Retires After 42 Years

Deneen Banks, 314 Magruder Street, retired Saturday as an employe of the Fort Cumberland Hotel where he had served as a bellboy for 42 years.

Banks, who is known to hundreds of local residents as well as the regular patrons of the Fort Cumberland, worked for five years at the Queen City Hotel before going to the Baltimore Street hostelry.

A quiet and reserved man, Banks said he enjoyed every minute of his work and had numerous thrills during his long career. His top thrill, Banks claims, was serving on the late President Warren G. Harding when he stayed overnight at the Fort Cumberland.

Also rating high on his list of noted experiences is the time he escorted the late General John J. Pershing to his room in the hotel. Banks recalls a guard of honor was lined up from the Baltimore Street entrance of the hotel to an elevator, which was kept at the main floor until the arrival of the general.

Besides President Harding and General Pershing, Banks has personal reminiscences about many notable personalities, including Harry K. Thaw, Clarence Darrow, John Charles Thomas and Paul Whiteman. Theatrical personalities always were favorites with Banks, and he recalls with pride having served David Warfield and DeWolf Hopper.

Reviewing his career as a bellboy, Banks says there have been many changes in the mode of life since he first answered the call of "Boy." A leisurely way of living has changed to a more alert way of life, Banks claims.

Nowadays, hotel patrons carry much more luggage than they formerly did, tipping has become much more generous, and both men and women are more "on the go."

Banks has no special plans for his retirement, other than "taking it easy." He has placed himself at the disposal of Fort Cumberland authorities and undoubtedly will be called on during rush periods.

Five Persons Slain

BAGHDAD, Iraq (UPI) — "Hired agents" killed five persons and wounded 50 others after May Day celebrations in Baghdad Sunday, military governor Ahmed Saleh Abdi announced Monday.

Abdi said the "agents" attacked the crowds with revolver fire and bricks. Most of them have been arrested and will be tried in court, he added.

The objective of the attack was "solely to impair security and split the ranks of the nation," the announcement said.

Lucky Discs To Be Dropped From Helicopter

Flying saucers are coming to the Tri-State area, but there's nothing to be afraid of. These particular Flying Saucers can mean money in the bank — if you're lucky.

Fifty thousand of the cardboard saucer-shaped discs have been printed and are now ready for distribution by air early next week as Cumberland's first Sports CARnival gets underway, according to H. D. Barber, chairman of the industrial tour and display committee.

Barber said the flying saucers are being distributed in conjunction with industrial displays that will be located in many store windows in the Cumberland business district all of next week.

Each flying saucer will be serially numbered and 50 will match numbers to be found adjacent to each window display. The finder of a Flying Saucer should save it to see if it matches any of the numbers in the industrial display windows. If it does, present it to a designated party at the display and a cash prize will be presented.

Arrangements to distribute the flying saucers have been made with Moran Coal Company, Westernport, which will fly over many communities in the Tri-State area in the company helicopter and toss out the discs.

They expect to cover a minimum of 20 cities and towns in Maryland, West Virginia and Pennsylvania on Tuesday, May 10.

County To Buy Insecticide Spray

The Ellerslie Fire Company will be furnished with insecticide by the county commissioners so that tent caterpillar infestations in the Ellerslie section can be sprayed.

Commissioner John J. Rowan said the proper sprays will be recommended by Joseph M. Steger, county farm agent, who is in charge of the program for the commissioners.

Rowan said only volunteer fire companies will be furnished the insecticide. The tent caterpillars made their appearance about a week or so ago. They are unsightly, but Steger said there is no great economic loss to the area.

Orchardists spray their trees early in the season and the average homeowner takes care of his own problem posed by the tent caterpillar. The infestation started out in full force last year and woodland areas, particularly wild cherry, apple and other fruit trees were affected.

Mental Health Drive To Be Held Next Monday

Final plans are being completed for the annual fund drive to be conducted next Monday by the Allegany County Chapter of the Maryland Association for Mental Health, Inc.

The campaign is being headed by Fred H. Anderson, local attorney, who is being assisted by Lowell Sowers, Frostburg; Mrs. Robert Davis, Mrs. Rudolph Steinberger, Mrs. Boyd Hunter, Mrs. Wade Root, Mrs. Virgil Raines, Mrs. Paul D. Long and Mrs. John W. Shifflett.

More than 600 women have volunteered their services to conduct the one-day campaign within the city limits of Cumberland.

The women will be assisted locally by members of the Tri-Hi-Y of Fort Hill High School, the Rainbow Girls, various homemakers clubs and the Firettes of the Baltimore Pike Volunteer Fire Company.

Anderson said between 8 and 10 homemaker clubs will assist with the drive throughout Allegany County.

The LaVale area will be covered by the LaVale Homemakers Club and members of the Auxiliary of the LaVale Volunteer Fire Company, while members of the Valley High School Tri-Hi-Y will work in the Lonaconing, Barton and Midland areas.

The appeal will be directed from an office in the Commercial Bank Building, under the direction of Mrs. Warren O. Norris. Persons wishing to volunteer their services or make contributions should telephone Mrs. Norris at PA 4-9020.

Two Request Immediate Trials

Hugh J. McMillan and Sarah C. Riggleman, both of this city, have filed petitions for an immediate trial in Circuit Court.

Donald W. Mason, assistant state's attorney, said the pair will be tried before Chief Judge Morgan C. Harris within the next several days on charges of forgery.

They were given preliminary hearings last week before Magistrate F. Allan Weatherholt on the charge and ordered held under $500 bond each for action of the next term of court.

Gives Continuance

CHICAGO (UPI)—Anthony J. (Tough Tony) Accardo, reputed successor of Al Capone as head of Chicago's crime syndicate, appeared before Federal Judge Julius J. Hoffman Tuesday on charges of evading income tax and was given until Friday to enter a plea.

Accardo's attorney, Eugene Bernstein, asked for the continuance to gain time to file motions attacking the indictment against the Mafia kingpin.

The 56 - year - old gambler, dressed in a collegiate - style suit, smiled as he entered the courtroom for the brief session. He sat in a corner as the judge agreed to continue the case.

Ann Landers . . .

Answers Your Problems

DEAR ANN LANDERS: Does the United States government care if people take home pens from the Post Office, ash trays from the court house waiting room and items of this type?

My husband claims that as taxpayers we pay for these things and in a way they belong to us. I say if we're entitled to them why do they have "Property of U S. Government" stamped all over them? Also, I pointed out that the pens he brings home still have the little chains on them.

We have three young children and I don't want them to pick up these habits if it's wrong.—WANTING TO KNOW

DEAR WANTING: Taxpayers pay for the statues in our parks but he wouldn't think of taking them home, would he?

Your husband is guilty of petty larceny and he must know it. Just ask if he filches these items in full view of the Post Office employes or the court house custodian.

Taxes would be lower for all of us if the government didn't have to spend millions replacing damaged and stolen property. Tell your husband to cut it out. He's setting a terrible example for his children.

DEAR ANN: Will you please print a problem that must be bothering others in the age group 45 to 60?

I'm 46, hold a responsible position and have worked for the past 15 years. My husband's salary, combined with mine enables us to live well. I get up at 6:30 a. m. every morning and return from the office at 5:30. I do all my own cooking, laundry and cleaning. The only chance I have for relaxing and doing extra things around the house is the weekend. NOW — the problem:

Our only daughter lives 90 miles away. She has two active, young children. Every weekend and holiday they drive up, no matter what the weather. They make plans with their young friends and I become a sitter, cook and maid. She thinks we are THRILLED to have them, and I hate to tell her otherwise.

Frequently she's told me how wonderful it is to "get away from the grind of housework and kids" every weekend. In the meantime my husband and I are ready to fall to pieces. Have we gotten selfish? I'd like to print my name in capital letters but I wouldn't dare. Just call me — EXHAUSTED

DEAR EXHAUSTED: Your daughter should realize that a woman who holds a full time job needs time for herself on her days off.

You aren't selfish — you're human. And she's terribly thoughtless and inconsiderate. As a homemaker, she must know that cooking and cleaning for six is more work than doing for two.

DEAR ANN: We're in dutch with our folks and need your help.

Last night my girl friend and I had a slumber party at my house. We invited 15 girls. We planned to have a taffy-pull, pop some corn, play records and stuff like that.

About 9:30 six fellows came over unexpectedly. A half hour later another carload drove up. We don't know how the word got out about the party. Everybody was sworn to secrecy.

We were all in our pajamas but we thought it was O.K. to let the fellows in. My folks came home about 11:30 and they were furious. Now I can't go to another slumber party for three months. Is this fair? What else could I do?—VICTIMS

DEAR VICTIMS: You could have told the boys "Sorry but this is a hen party. We aren't dressed. Goodbye."

(P.S. — Yes, this is fair.)

To learn how to keep your boy friend in line without losing him, send for ANN LANDERS' booklet, "Necking and Petting — And How Far To Go," enclosing with your request 20 cents in coin and a large, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

(Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.)

Secrets Of Charm

by John Robert Powers

Powder With Care

All of your cosmetics and especially your face powder must be carefully matched to your skin. The right color and texture of powder can do wonders for any woman.

The powder you use should be to your face what technicolor is to a movie — a beautifying, transparent film. It's the weight of the powder which determines its filmy qualities. A powder too light in weight will disappear quickly leaving no trace behind it. A heavy powder will form an opaque mask when it is applied that will crack with wearing. Neither is the effect you want!

To perform its full miracle, your powder should be of medium weight. It will hold to your face, yet allow the natural color and glow of your skin to come through exactly the way light diffuses through a gauzy curtain. Always apply it over the foundation that is best suited to your type of skin. Gently press it on lavishly; let it "set" a few moments; then brush off the excess with a few light downward strokes of clean absorbent cotton.

Weight and application are only part of the tale about the wonders powder can do for your face. It's the color you use that brings the story to a completely flattering conclusion. The color of your powder must pick up and intensify your own skin tones under any light in which you wear it.

The effect light has on your powder and therefore on your face is extremely important. You may have noticed that in the daylight, your powder heightens your natural color as it should, while at night, the same powder lessens or even deadens the effect. That's because sunlight is full of glowing red rays whereas artificial illumination casts a drab yellow light.

Since you certainly don't want a little thing like the night lights to spoil a big thing like your night-life appearance, change the color of the powder you use in the evening just as you change your dress. Choose an evening powder with an intensity of color that will counteract the yellowness of electric light and bestow on you the same natural, lovely glow that is yours in the daytime!

Man Not Guilty In Overweight Case At Keyser

Emmette Jones, 45-year-old trucker of Elk Garden, W. Va., yesterday was found not guilty in the appeal case of an overweight charge heard by a petit jury in Mineral County Circuit Court.

Jones had been convicted by Justice of the Peace John Somerville, who found him guilty of being 9,100 pounds overweight. His truck was hauling pulp wood to the Luke mill of the West Virginia Pulp and Paper Company at the time the violation was supposed to have occurred.

Trooper Noechel was arresting officer and the truck was weighed in Keyser on U. S. Route 220.

In the trial yesterday, Jones was represented by H. G. Shores and H. P. Shores, Keyser attorneys. Judge H. Gus Muntzing, of the 22d Judicial Circuit, heard the case presented for the state by Prosecuting Attorney Donald Hott.

Fire fighters from McCoole to Lonaconing joined in a run to the Luke mill of the West Virginia Pulp and Paper Company at 6:20 p. m.

James E. Lambertson, Barton, was in charge of the run in which units from McCoole, Keyser, Piedmont, Luke, Westernport, Barton, Lonaconing, Beryl and Bloomington moved according to a predetermined plan which put some units in motion and held others in reserve.

David E. Kirk, county fire coordinator, said the fire companies went to the simulated fire with lights flashing, but no sirens, and at the legal speed limits since it was only a practice run.

Companies from Midland to Clarysville made a run to the Mt. Savage Refractories properties at 6:29 p. m. Participating were companies from Midland, Shaft, Frostburg, Mt. Savage and Clarysville. David Powel, Frostburg, was coordinator for the area exercise.

Assistant Fire Chief Alvey Poole was coordinator for a run to the Kelly-Springfield Tire Company plant here at 6:12 p. m.

Quench Brush Fires

Joining in the dry run were Cumberland's four departments and units from Baltimore Pike, Bedford Road, Bowling Greene, Cresaptown, Corriganville, Ellerslie, Flintstone, District 16, Bowmans Addition and LaVale.

A total of 216 fire fighters took part in the alert. Many of them were detailed to stand by at their own stations to protect their own territory in case of emergency.

It was one of the liveliest "dry runs" on record as two fire alarms came in as companies were on the move.

Potomac Fire Company, Westernport, and Tri-Towns Company, Piedmont, were detailed by radio to quench a brush fire reported while they were on the way to the Luke mill, and Barton, Bloomington and Lonaconing companies were sent to put out a brush fire which broke out as they were on their way to the simulated fires.

Potomac Fire Company No. 2, of Westernport, detailed members to witness CD alerts at all schools of the community.

All-Star Quiz Team Named By Area YFC Rally

The new champions have remained in first place since the beginning of the tournaments, being defeated only once by Allegany. The highest scorers on the Salisbury team, Tom McChesney and Carol Beachy, are entitled to a position on the tri-state area all-star team, which will represent the local rally at the YFC conference next month in Ocean City, N. J., against more than 30 quiz teams throughout the Eastern States zone.

A third member of Salisbury's team, Marilyn Beachy, according to points scored, is entitled to a place with the All-Stars, but being in the seventh grade, does not meet the qualification for the Ocean City competition.

Other All-Stars are Robert Mertens, Fort Hill; Ethel and Nancy Stevanus, Meyersdale, and Rebecca Blubaugh, Allegany. Miss Blubaugh rated first with a perfect score.

May will be observed as high school month by the local rally. Attendance contests will be conducted between "in-town schools" and among "out-of-town schools." Students from the best represented schools who attend one or more Saturday night rallies will receive free tickets to the annual hot dog roast in June.

The program throughout the month will include music, dramatic films, contests, quizzes and visiting youth speakers.

How Convention System Started

The national convention method of nominating Presidential and Vice Presidential candidates was originated in the United States 130 years ago by a political group so minor and obscure that probably not one American in a hundred ever heard of it.

In September 1830 the decision to hold the first national political party convention was made at a meeting in Philadelphia of the Anti-Masonic Party. Ten states and one territory were represented. The first national convention was held in 1831 and William Wirt of Maryland and Amos Ellmaker of Pennsylvania were selected as the Presidential and Vice Presidential candidates respectively of the Anti-Masonics.

In May 1832, the Democrats held their first national convention in Baltimore and nominated Andrew Jackson for President.

Prior to the institution of the national convention system, party nominations for President and Vice President had been made by a caucus of the party members in Congress.

A fight over the 1824 Presidential nominee of the Democratic-Republican Party sounded the doom of the caucus system. The Monroe administration and the caucus tried to pick Secretary of the Treasury Crawford as the party's Presidential candidate. But both Andrew Jackson and Henry Clay had a larger following among party members.

The anti-Crawford forces defied the caucus. Jackson, Clay, Crawford and John Quincy Adams all were Presidential candidates. None received a majority. When the election was thrown into the House, Adams was elected. Jackson supporters suspected a "deal" with Clay.

In any event, that was the end of "King Caucus."

These Days

'We Dissent'

The Associated Television, Ltd., of Great Britain some time ago put on two television programs about the United States. One dealt with what is wrong with the United States; the other was a defense of this country. The defense was no better than the attack. What William Clark, the moderator of the program, seems to have wanted to have discussed was whether this has become a nation of dull, joyless, fat, and self-satisfied robots. He collected a most amazing group of Americans to discuss the subject. Professor Wright Mills of Columbia University answered Clark amply when he said:

"When you ask the question what do you mean by conformity and dissent, you assume that all men tend to be political and that they either conform or that they dissent. Now neither of those situations is really the case for some people at least in the United States today. The situation is a third. Namely, that they don't care either way, that they neither accept nor reject. So that the problem of conformity versus dissent I should rephrase and say that it has been displaced in the U.S. scene as well as elsewhere, as a problem of apathy, of political indifference, of just not caring. I suppose this sort of thing is most likely to happen in a society which is doing very well economically, but I don't think that is the only cause of it. In the United States today there is no broad base of dissent . . ."

In a word, we are on the whole a satisfied, contented people who have little to kick about. It is a sound, realistic position, even if it is temporary. The next one to be interviewed was Alex King. I read what he had to say carefully but find nothing worthy of quotation. King apparently does not like advertisements which is his privilege.

Then Alger Hiss was brought on to speak for the United States. Clark's introduction of Hiss is a marvel of understatement and may serve some purpose. This is what William Clark told Great Britain about Alger Hiss:

". . . We put this question to someone now living in obscurity, his State Department career cut short by a famous trial in which he was convicted of perjury . . ."

Hiss spoke emotionally:

". . . I would think certainly one of . . . (the causes) in the past 10 years has been fear; sort of nameless fear, but a fear of the unknown, of unusual, unexpected things, and as a result of that, the thing sort of spread so that there has been a tendency to conform in the professions, in education, and even in cultural matters."

Had Hiss been adequately introduced, his British audience would have understood the cause of his fears. Furthermore, he might have explained that if there is fear in this country, it is due to the rising power of the bureaucracy of which he was one of the architects.

Alger Hiss was followed by Jules Feiffer of whom I unfortunately never heard. His comments I cannot interpret. They are of the new-fangled Beatnik type. For instance, he says this:

" . . . Probably because if you pay attention to the issues they're too frightening, because the issue today is whether we can bypass next year or not and it's too horrible to contemplate. It's not just who's going to win this local war, or who's not going to win this local war, it's what's going to be left and nothing is going to be left. Nobody wants to think about that."

It would be very interesting to know what this means and in what manner it explains the United States to Great Britain. There is much more of it and one day I shall return to some of it. Some of the rest of it gives the impression that we are just plain nuts, if these are examples of the great American dissenters. Clark might have found serious dissenters such as Earl Browder, the former Communist leader, James Wechsler, editor of the "New York Post," Herblock, the cartoonist of "The Washington Post," William F. Buckley Jr., editor of "National Review," and Ward Bond, the actor, of "Wagon Train." There are dissenters on the Right and dissenters on the Left. Senator Barry Goldwater and Senator Wayne Morse or Senator Jacob Javits are dissenters of stature. Whoever picked this gang did not know America, but I shall give you more of this.

FPC Chairman Entertained By Oil And Gas Officials But Keeps Job

By Drew Pearson

WASHINGTON — This column has obtained a photostat of an unpublished letter from Chairman Jerome Kuykendall of the Federal Power Commission to the Legislative Oversight Committee regarding the number of free airplane junkets and other entertainment supplied him by the oil and gas industry which he regulates. It's an interesting document.

It's especially interesting when compared with the record of Commissioner William Connole, champion of the consumer, who did not pal around with oil and gas lobbyists on free junkets, but is being dropped. In contrast, Eisenhower reappointed Kuykendall.

It's also interesting in view of the fact that Eisenhower recently fired Chairman John Doerfer from the Federal Communications Commission because he went on a yachting trip with a big broadcaster. However, he's not firing Chairman Kuykendall, who went on many trips with oil and gas lobbyists. He's firing Commissioner Connole instead.

Entertainment Record

"Hotel accommodations were provided me at the following conventions and meetings at which I was the scheduled speaker:

"September 1953, Independent Natural Gas Association, Houston, Texas.*

"October 1953, Texas Mid-Continent Oil and Gas Association, Houston, Texas.*

"(The above two conventions were held within a few days of each other and involved only one trip to Houston).

"March 1954, American Power Conference, Chicago, Ill.

"June 1954, Edison Electric Institute, Atlantic iCty, N. J.*

"September 1954, Independent Natural Gas Association, New Orleans, La.

"Although I was not on the program of this meeting, I flew there from Omaha, Neb., where I had attended a meeting of the Interstate Oil Compact Commission, so that I could inspect offshore drilling operations in the Gulf of Mexico at that time, as well as attend the meeting.

"April 1956, Practicing Law Institute, New York, N. Y.*

"April 1956, Texas Independent Producers and Royalty Owners Association, Dallas, Texas.

"Also visited FPC regional office at Fort Worth, Texas.

"April 1956, American Public Power Association, Los Angeles, Calif.

"September 1956, Independent Natural Gas Association, San Antonio, Texas.

"October 1956, American Gas Association, Atlantic City, N. J.

"April 1957, Southeastern Electric Exchange, Boca Baton, Fla.

Free Trip Record

In addition, Chairman Kuykendall listed five free airplane trips paid for by oil and gas interests. What he did not mention, however, was that on one tour of the Southwest, courtesy of the Texas Mid-Continent Oil and Gas Association, only the three Republican commissioners went along. Commissioner Dale Doty, appointed by Truman, and Claude Draper, with a 20-year record of trying to protect the consumer, did not.

Later Doty was dropped by Eisenhower, in the same way Connole is being dropped now. He was not friendly to the oil and gas companies.

Chairman Kuykendall also failed to mention that he attended a cocktail party in his honor given by Stanley M. Morley, Washington attorney for West Coast Transmission, which at that very moment was applying for a certificate to build pipelines to the Pacific Northwest.

He also omitted mention of the fact that he was dined by Ed Falck, an attorney for several power companies, and flew to Chicago with Falck to attend the National Association of Railroad and Utility Executives.

The five cases in which Chairman Kuykendall took free airplane transportation from oil and gas interests, according to his own letter to the Harris Committee, were:

1. Trip to Houston and tour of Texas and Louisaina, Sept. 30 and Oct. 1, 1953.
2. Trip to St. Louis and return for Mrs. Kuykendall paid by American Gas Association, October, 1953.
3. Trip to Atlantic City and return, June 1954, paid by Edison Electric Institute.
4. Trip to Gulf of Mexico to inspect offshore oil, arranged for by Louisiana Conservation Commissioner, September, 1954.
5. Trip to Seattle and Grand Coulee, August, 1956, paid for by Pacific Northwest Pipeline Corp.

That's the record of the man who was reappointed to the Federal Power Commission in contrast to Commissioner Connole, defender of the consumer, who was not.

Fulbright's Statement Gives Aid To Nasser

By David Lawrence

WASHINGTON — Does Chairman Fulbright, of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, speak for the Democratic Party when he takes the side of Dictator Nasser against the Israeli government? Senators Kennedy, Humphrey, Symington and Johnson disagree with the Arkansas Senator in his latest pronouncement that glosses over Nasser's refusal to open the Suez Canal to all shipping.

Senator Fulbright in his statement castigates his fellow Senators — many of them liberal Democrats, like Senator Douglas of Illinois — because they voted last week against the use of American taxpayers' funds to help Nasser carry on his economic boycott against another country in the free world.

The House of Representatives has adopted a similar provision advocating the principles of free navigation. For a majority derived from both political parties sees no reason why the United States government should continue to send mutual security funds to Egypt if the latter seeks to destroy the economy of Israel, a country which also receives such funds from America.

Nasser has ignored the pleas of President Eisenhower to reopen the Suez Canal to the ships of all nations, though diplomatic help toward that end was promised by Mr. Eisenhower after Britain and France intervened in 1956 in the Middle East war. At least it was a factor in placating Israel, which early in 1957 withdrew its armed forces from the battle zones with that understanding.

The United Nations has tried repeatedly by its resolutions since 1948 to bring about a reconciliation between Israel and Egypt. But Nasser refuses to negotiate directly or indirecly. He says a state of war exists, and he uses that technical reason in trying to justify closing the Suez Canal to Israel's shipping.

If it be conceded that a "state of war" exists, then why did the World Bank, which is part of the United Nations organization, decide last December to make a loan of 56 million dollars to Egypt to widen and improve the Suez Canal? Cannot it be argued that the World Bank has thus taken sides in a "war" and has helped one of the so-called belligerents? Plainly Dictator Nasser cannot have it both ways.

Within the last few days another grave development has occurred. A maritime union in New York City decided not to help unload ships coming from Egypt. Immediately the maritime unions in Egypt and other Arab countries retaliated by refusing to unload American ships in their ports.

But the real reason for the boycott imposed in this country is the union's fear of damage to the jobs of American seamen in the future, because the Cairo government persists in refusing to let ships from any country go through the Canal if, at any time previously, they have carried any cargoes to Israel. This means that American companies with products destined for other countries in the world must maintain a fleet of ships solely for the Israeli trade, and cannot even separate the voyages of their own ships. Once a vessel serves Israel, it goes on the blacklist imposed by Nasser not only against Americans but against the ships of all other countries.

Within the last 48 hours, Nasser has issued a bitter attack on President Eisenhower blaming him for the boycott by American seamen in New York City. He holds President Eisenhower responsible for what the unions are doing, though he himself disclaims any responsibility for what the Arab unions are doing.

Should American taxpayers' funds be used to support any regime which discriminates against American seamen in this manner? Although the Senate and House recorded an emphatic "no," Senator Fulbright now accuses his fellow members of Congress of playing politics and of being influenced by a "pressure" group. The veterans committee of the Jewish War Veterans called this remark "an insult to the loyalty and patriotism of the members of this group who have served this country loyally in war and peace." It added:

"It is apparently the view of Senator Fulbright that American organizations must abdicate their right to speak out on issues affecting the foreign policies of the United States."

Senator Keating, Republican of New York, says that the action taken by Congress means that the United States is asking Nasser to "stop using the Suez Canal as a political pawn." Senator Fulbright, however, contends that the action by the House and Senate has "seriously compromised the conduct of foreign policy by the President."

But it is the Nasser government which is trying to sabotage American foreign policy. Within the last few days the Vice Foreign Minister of the United Arab Republic (Egypt), on his visit to Chile, told a news conference there that the Cairo government "will resolutely help Cuba defend herself against aggression if Cuba requests it, and if it is within our possibilities." There was a time when such a pronouncement would have been regarded as a public insult to the United States because of the Monroe Doctrine which warns nations outside this hemisphere to keep out of Latin-American affairs.

The Cairo regime has been boldly taking the Communist side in many a dispute, and yet the chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee imputes improper motives to other members of Congress who resent the pro-Communist tactics of Egypt's dictator.

By Henry Cathcart

THE PRIMARIES — None of the contestants got much comfort out of the Wisconsin Presidential primary election last month, and none of them are apt to get much more out of the West Virginia primary on May 10.

More and more, the public is realizing the truth of Harry S. Truman's statement that primaries are "eyewash." What Mr. Truman meant and what has proved to be the fact on many occasions is that the procedure of candidates entering selected primary elections, each of which has its own peculiarities, is inconclusive as far as determining public preferences.

A national primary would be a different thing. Under such conditions, the mass of public voters would be able to indicate their preference for Presidential candidates on both major party tickets. Further, they would be able to express, even if indirectly, significant public reactions to current issues and policies.

One of the shortcomings of the conduct of national affairs is that once elected, a President and his party tend to be frozen into a set of policies for four years without sufficient regard for changed conditions or changed public opinion.

A national primary would give a President some indication of the public mood during the last year of his administration and would provide valuable time to begin to shift to popular views.

Even if the President and his party should be thrown out of power in the next election, there is a good chance that some changes would be in the process of being made and therefore could be completed by a new administration with less shock to the economy and the public.

In this context, Wisconsin did serve a purpose. It showed that the farm issue is very much a part of voters' thinking, at least in the Midwest. It also served as a warning to Vice President Richard M. Nixon to step up his pre-convention campaigning.

Bowling Is Safe, But Injuries Do Happen

By Dr. Theodore R. Van Dellen

Bowling is one of the few sports that appears safe for anyone in good health. Outside of dropping the ball on the toes or getting the fingers pinched in the holes, we seldom hear of mishaps associated with this game.

Dr. James R. Hoon was bowling with a Sheboygan team when one of his men sustained an injury to his right groin. This chap was heavy and inclined to stand more erect than the average bowling stance calls for. He stopped abruptly on the foul line and staggered backward in obvious pain. In a moment or two he became pale and broke into a profuse sweat.

The bowler's physician-partner made an examination within a few minutes and found a tender swelling in the groin that had not been present previously. It got worse and the man was taken to a hospital. An incision was made over the swelling and the adductor muscles of the thigh were found to be torn and bleeding. These muscles are best described as those used in grasping the sides of a saddle between the knees when riding. In addition, one of the muscles had been so strained, it pulled off a splinter from the public bone to which it is attached.

The patient made an uneventful recovery. Other bowlers might be interested in knowing that he made a resounding strike on that last throw. The strain occurred when he stopped suddenly.

Dr. Hoon's report in the Journal of the American Medical Association included two other bowling injuries. In one, a physician slipped on a wet spot. In the other, a dentist made a sudden balk at a foul line. Both strained the muscles in the right thigh.

Dr. Hoon believes these accidents can be prevented through proper training and conditioning. Bowlers who stand too erect on reaching the foul line should alter their approach and follow through rather than stop suddenly.

TOMORROW: Food, dust, and other allergies.

Frank Shuster of the comedy team, Wayne and Shuster, tells of a young Cuban intellectual who was suddenly appointed head executioner in a certain district by Fidel Castro. He had butterflies in his stomach the first time he led a prisoner forth to be shot, but asked the doomed man formally enough, "Would you like a cigaret?" "No," was the answer. Then he asked, "Would you like to be blindfolded?" Again the prisoner spat out "no."

The officer barked, "Ready," and "Aim" but just then the prisoner cried out a defiant "Down with the tyrant and scoundrel Castro!" The officer ran over and shook him. "You fool," he admonished. "Are you just trying to cause more trouble for yourself?"

The Southland experienced an unexpected and devastating blizzard early in 1960, during the course of which an associate of producer Garson Kanin phoned him in New York to report, "This snow has paralyzed traffic down here. I'm literally stranded in Alabama."

"Ah," nodded Kanin knowingly. "Immobile, eh?"

Fat worries Buddy Hackett. He has the shape and color of an overdone meatball. A barber said that long sideburns would make his face look thin. He was wearing them when we met at the Americana Hotel in Miami Beach. "Whaddya think?" he said, beaming. "I look like a Jewish John Carradine, hah?"

He doesn't. He looks like Buddy Hackett, only funnier. Mr. Hackett is a pathetic, defensive little comedian of enormous talent. His speech is flawless Brooklynese, and even the big words come from the side of his mouth. He rolls his dark eyes back and forth in a wise manner, but he is still the kid that the other kids most aspired to beat up on the way home from New Utrecht High.

His name is Leonard Hacker. He is 35, the son of Phillip Hacker, Brooklyn upholsterer. Mr. Hacker invented the convertible couch. He is 72, still matching swatches and fitting covers on wing chairs.

It is possible that more well-known Broadwayites went to school at New Utrecht than any other. Among them are Jack Carter, Dane Clark, Arnold Stang, Phil Foster, Abe Burrows, Michael Kidd and Martha Stewart. Buddy graduated in 1942, after a fierce fight with the people who write diplomas, and enlisted in the Army.

When the war was over, Buddy got a job in the winter helping people on with their skiis. When anyone permitted him onstage, Mr. Hackett told Army jokes and did impersonations of Henry Aldrich, Sidney Greenstreet and Akim Tamiroff, the Russian John Carradine.

For a finish, he yanked a lady patron out of her seat and did a Lindy hop. One morning, the manager appeared in Buddy's room and yelled: "Get out." Hackett said timidly: "Out of bed?" The manager shook his head. "No, out of town."

He worked in Dave's Bayside Inn for $12 a night and was in a road company of "Call Me Mister," and spent time at the Concord Hotel. It was there, in 1953, that he fell in love with a dancing teacher named Sherry DuBois. She introduced Buddy to her mother, Esther Cohen.

They were married on June 12, 1955. He had the wedding invitation printed: "Mrs. Esther Cohen requests the honor of your presence at the marriage of her daughter, Sherry DuBois, to Mr. Leonard Hacker." Sherry made him tear up the invitations and get new ones printed without the DuBois bit.

We were talking about how romance dies after a year or so of marriage and Buddy shook his head sadly. "She used to retire," he said out of a corner of his lip, "in a peignoir. Now she wears Army shoes and a turtleneck coverall."

They have two children: a boy named Sandy, 3½, and a girl named Ivy, 2½. Buddy recently killed a Broadway musical entitled "Viva Madison Avenue," and he did it in one night. Still, he has more television and nightclub dates than he can handle and one of these days he is going to hit his proper stride and go all the way to the top.

He admires Jackie Gleason, and sometimes they play golf together. Buddy shoots in the 90's. Gleason, who also worries about fat, although not to the point of hysteria, rides around the course in the fastest electric cart ever made. He is followed by a 63-year-old caddy who looks like a tired apostrophe. When Gleason reaches the ball, he grins and says: "Mmmm, tee it up, my boy."

When Jackie gets a seven on a hole, he turns the cart around and scoots all the way back to hole number one with the caddy dogg-trotting behind with a yard of tongue hanging out. He starts all over and keeps doing this until the script comes out right. Once, Buddy says, they shot 77 holes on one course.

Hackett found a Brooklyn scientist who could reduce weight by analyzing blood. Hackett phone Gleason and said he had gone down from 235 to 210. Gleason cooed: "A temporary adjustment, my boy." Buddy told him about the scientist, and Gleason ordered the doctor sent to his home at once in Peekskill. Buddy said the doctor wouldn't go.

So Gleason got a local doctor to take some blood. Then he wrapped it in warm blankets, hired a Carey Cadillac and chauffeur, placed the blood on the rear seat, and sent it to Brooklyn.

The diet worked for Hackett, but not for Jackie. When Gleason met the scientist and Buddy at Sardi's, he knocked off a few bottles of wine and murmured: "Doctor, you're killing this boy."

LaSalle High School's Explorers stepped into the picture to break up the triple tie for first place in the Allegany County High School League by jolting Mt. Savage High School's Indians yesterday at Stitcher Field to the tune of 13-7.

Coach Chet Payne's Campers whipped Valley High's Black Knights at Campobello, 7-3, while Major John J. "Bobby" Cavanaugh's Fort Hill Sentinels whipped the Aggies at Flintstone for the ninth consecutive time, 6-1, when Gary Henry turned in a no-hit performance.

Phil Barbe, who started, and Charley Rice, who twirled the last 5 1/3 frames, limited Mt. Savage to six hits as the Explorers of Coach Norman Sell cracked the Indians' 4-game winning streak and knocked Joe Carter's club off the top rung in the eight-school circuit.

Explorers Get 14 Hits

LaSalle racked up a total of 14 hits, including doubles by Brode, Green and Sloan and moved into a tie with Mt. Savage for the runner-up spot, each team owning 4-2 records, just one game off the pace.

Franklin Brode, Bobby Green, Mike Long, Ronnie Speir and John Hudson shared ten of LaSalle's 14 blows.

Charley Rice got the win, his second against one loss while "Chuck" Winebrenner was the loser. The latter has a 2-2 record.

Fay Often, regular shortstop of the Mt. Savage team and leading hitter in the league, has been nursing an arm injury and failed to start the game. He finished the game in right field and batted once.

Wharton Wins For AHS

Bob Wharton went the route, scattered nine hits and fanned four as the Campers whipped Valley High. Bob is 2-1 for the current campaign.

Allegany collected 11 safeties, including a homer by Gary Clingerman and two-baggers by Mike Hadra and Bob Bishop. Joe Ranker, Hadra and Bishop garnered two hits each for the Campers.

Henry Mows Down 13

Southpaw Gary Henry mowed down 13 agies via the strikeout route as he turned in his no-hitter against Flintstone. An error enabled the Aggies to score their only run in the third frame. The loss was the 6th for winless Flintstone.

Glen Shipway headed Fort Hill's 7-hit attack with a double and two singles. Henry banged a pair of doubles and Sheetz rapped a triple and single.

Greenpoint Plays Wellersburg Today

Greenpoint Inn and Wellersburg will clash today in a County Softball League game at Wellersburg at 6:15 p. m.

These teams met last Friday and battled to a 4-4 tie, darkness halting the contest at the end of seven innings of play.

A victory for Greenpoint Inn today would give them a 3-0 record and tie them with Ellerslie and Corriganville for first place.

Mounts Win Third

EMMITSBURG, Md. (AP)—Mt. St. Marys dominated the field events Tuesday as it swept to a 91-31 victory over Loyola of Baltimore in a Mason-Dixon Conference track meet.

Dean Marracini led the Mounts with 16 points, scoring victories in the 120-yard high hurdles and pole vault, finishing second in the 220-yard low hurdles and the broad jump and tying for third in the high jump.

It was the third victory in three dual meets for the Mounts. Loyola is now 2-2 in dual meet competition.

Kansas City Loses On Siebern Miscue

BOSTON (AP)—Norm Siebern's throwing error on a 10th inning bunt by Pete Runnels let in the winning run Tuesday as Boston edged Kansas City 4-3.

Shortstop Don Buddin scored from second base.

Runnels dragged a bunt down the first base line and Siebern moved in to field it. The bespectacled A's infielder set for his lob throw with plenty of time but overshot Jerry Lumpe who was covering the bag.

Davis And Elkins Evens Up Series

Davis & Elkins College squared accounts for a 16-4 defeat on April 28 by edging Potomac State College's baseball team in a ten-inning battle yesterday at Elkins by the score of 8-7.

The setback was the fourth against seven wins for Coach John Fox's Catamounts.

The Senators scored the deciding run in the extra frame when Ronnie Kuykendall, Potomac State catcher, dropped a third out-third strike on Shreve, threw wildly to first base and Ferrell crossed the plate with the tie-breaking tally.

Dave Wilson, Fred Alvaro and Bill Funkhouser took turns on the rubber for Potomac and the latter was charged with the defeat.

Elkins' 10 hits included circuit blasts by DeMatteo and Cook and a pair of two-base wallops by Ferrell.

Michael, Fernandez and Kuykendall shared six of Potomac's 11 blows and the latter batted in three runs.

Belt Three Homers In 10-3 Triumph

By OSCAR FRALEY
United Press International

NEW YORK (UPI) — Two-run homers by Moose Skowron and pinch hitter Kent Hadley and a solo blast by Roger Maris led the New York Yankees to a 10-3 victory over Detroit Tuesday and handed the Tigers their seventh straight defeat.

The Yankees came from behind a two-run first inning deficit—after a 22-minute delay for a national civil defense test—to hand left-hander Don Mossi his second defeat of the season with a 14-hit attack on four Detroit pitchers.

Art Ditmar scored his first win of the season, succeeding Whitey Ford at the start of the second and getting relief from Ryne Duren in the seventh, as Detroit came up with nine hits but could not match that Yankee home run power.

Detroit put together four singles for the two runs off Ford in the first inning but Skowron's fifth home run of the season in the fourth with Maris aboard tied it at 2-2.

The Yankees chalked up five hits in the fifth to rout Mossi, who last year completed seven of eight starts against them.

Detroit got one run back in the sixth with three singles but then, with Bob Bruce pitching, and Ken Hunt on first, Hadley hit his first home run as a Yankee. Maris got his homer in the seventh.

The Yankees then added two more in the eighth on Tony Kubek's single, Gil McDougald's triple and Mickey Mantle's long fly to center.

Southern High, Keyser, Jackets Cop PVC Games

Petersburg, Romney Also Mark Up Wins

Southern High School of Oakland, Keyser High's Golden Tornado and Moorefield High's Yellowjackets remained in the running for the Potomac Valley Conference baseball crown by winning games played yesterday.

Dick Travis' Southern Highlanders made their record 4-0 by downing Elk Garden on the latter's field by the score of 8-3, behind the 6-hit pitching of Jerry Wine, who fanned eight batsmen.

Keyser Routs WVSD

Thirty Keyser players saw action in this one-sided affair as the Tornado bagged its 7th win in eight starts. The Mineral Countians blasted a total of 21 hits which included homers by Jim Chidester and Fred Clark.

Dave Vance, righthanded sophomore, tossed a one-hitter and whiffed an even dozen as Moorefield trounced the Circleville High Indians, 13-0, for their 8th victory against two losses.

Bill Toohey belted a pair of three-baggers while Flynn and W. Sherman also obtained two hits each for the Yellowjackets from Hardy County.

Indians Windup With 4-0

Berkeley Springs, playing its last game in the PVC, closed with a 4-0 record by defeating the Paw Paw Pirates, 10-0, on a two-hitter by Donald Young, who struck out seven and walloped a two-run homer. Doug McBee blasted a three-run double for Coach Al Goldstrom's Indians.

In other conference action yesterday, Petersburg High's Vikings made their record 5-2 by trimming Bayard at Petersburg, 9-2, and Romney High School (4-2) trimmed Capon Bridge, 10-2 on a three-hitter by Bill Maphis who fired the third strike past eleven batsmen.

Sox Whip Barber, Baltimore Rookie

It was Pierce's 20th victory of his career against only six losses in his meetings with Baltimore and it raised his season's mark to 2-1. Barber, a victim of two unearned runs by his mates' slipshod play, had his mark evened at 1-1.

Pierce, who fanned six and did not walk a man, allowed 10 hits and had to quell a two-out, two-on rally in the ninth by making Gene Woodling ground into a force play.

The White Sox scored their two unearned tallies in the second inning when Roy Sievers reached first on Ron Hansen's error. He scored two outs later on a double by Gene Freese, who in turn tallied when Jim Landis singled.

Barber was touched for two earned tallies in the third on successive doubles by Nellie Fox, Minnie Minoso and Roy Sievers' single. Luis Aparicio's two-bagger and Fox's second single plated the final run in the seventh.

The Orioles made two off Pierce in the fourth on singles by Woodling, Willie Tasby, Brooks Robinson's sacrifice fly and a single by Jackie Brandt. Ron Hansen's first major league homer in the fifth closed out the Birds scoring.

Senators Edge Cleveland, 7-6

Green's Hit Wins Contest In Ninth

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Lenny Green's single in the ninth gave the Washington Senators a 7-6 victory over the Cleveland Indians Tuesday night despite the sensational clutch hitting of Tito Francona.

Green's game-winning hit to center field dealt the loss, to Bob Tiefenauer who took over the Indians' pitching in the ninth and promptly yielded a single to lead-off man Earl Battey. Tiefenauer's late throw to second base on Don Mincher's bunt and a force play set the stage for Green.

The loss dropped the Indians into third place in the American League race and the game was the seventh straight played by the Senators which was decided by one run.

Francona, a .363 hitter last season, entered the game as a pinch-hitter in the third inning and cut the Senators' lead to 4-3 with a sacrifice fly with the bases filled. In the sixth he doubled and tallied on Jimmy Piersall's single and in the seventh he singled after one baggers by Johnny Temple and Vic Power to give the Tribe a 5-4 margin.

The Senators appeared to have won the game in the eighth when Billy Gardner singled in a run that put them ahead, 6-5, but with two out and two on in the ninth Francona delivered a clutch double that tied the score again at 6-6.

Derby Trial Captured By Beau Purple

Cuvier Relic 2nd, Pied d'Or Is 3rd

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Beau Purple, a late arrival from New York, led most of the way Tuesday and won the $16,800 Kentucky Derby Trial Stakes at Churchill Downs.

Cuvier Relic was second and Pied d'Or was third.

Cuvier Relic, a 10-1 outsider, barely managed to take second place over Pied d'Or, one of three Calumet Farm colts in the 33rd running of the trial.

Eric Guerin, who won a derby aboard Jet Pilot, in 1957, rode Beau Purple who had gone off as the second choice behind the Calumet trio. The Calumets, who have won seven trials and sent on three of the winners late to win the derby, started as 4-5 favorites.

The time for the mile on a fast track under cloudless; warm skies was 1:35 3-5 which compared with the track record of 1:35 flat, set in the 1954 trial when Hasty Road edged out Determine.

However, Determine came back the following Saturday and outfought Hasty Road to grab the roses.

Twelve 3-year-olds, all of them eligible for the derby, started in Tuesday's derby trial but none, apart from the first three, looked like derby timber.

Roger Craig Suffers Collarbone Fracture

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Roger Craig, right handed pitcher who was a key figure in the Los Angeles Dodgers pennant drive last year, will be out of action "for at least two months" due to a fractured collar bone suffered on Monday night, the club annnounced Tuesday.

The lanky pitcher suffered the injury Monday night in a game he started against the Cincinnati Reds here in the Coliseum. Craig was covering home plate in the eighth inning when the Dodgers caught outfielder Vada Pinson in a rundown between home and third.

As the speedy Pinson broke for the plate he knocked over Craig taking the throw from third baseman Jim Gilliam. Despite being bowled off his feet, Craig made the tag on Pinson.

But a few minutes later he motioned to Manager Walt Alston and told him he had hurt his shoulder. Larry Sherry replaced him on the mound.

Mickey Solomone Has Four Winners

The 18-year-old Reinsman's first victory was aboard Arctic Angel ($14.60) in the opener and combined with the old master, Eddie Arcaro, to produce a $186.60 daily double. Arcaro won with White Collar ($17.60) in the second race.

Solomone's other triumphs came aboard Fat Roundone ($6.40) in the fourth and Darlin Patrice ($8.20) in the ninth.

Johnson, Floyd Clash Tonight

Light-Heavyweights To Meet In Philly

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) —Clarence (Tiger) Floyd is a 3-1 underdog going into Wednesday night's scheduled 10-round nationally televised bout with the number - one lightheavyweight contender Harold Johnson but the New York battler hopes to pull the upset of the season.

Floyd, a truck driver with a 10-8 record, fought his way to the sixth spot among the contenders when he scored an upset, 10-round decision over young Von Clay of Philadelphia here two months ago.

Floyd has been training full time for the first time in his career and will be out to score his second straight upset over a highly-regarded Philadelphian.

Johnson, the perennial challenger for Archie Moore's crown, is a 31-year-old boxer - puncher who is religiously avoided by all in the lightheavyweight division.

Johnson has fought only 11 times in the last four years and will be looking for his 12th consecutive victory when he meets Floyd.

Johnson will be making his first local appearance in three years when he climbs into the ring at Convention Hall Wednesday night.

Collins Beats Arnold Palmer For Top Money

Wins By 2 Strokes In Houston Playoff And Earns $5,300

By KYLE THOMPSON

HOUSTON, Tex., (UPI) —Big Bill Collins, who had won only one big tournament previously, upset Masters champion Arnold Palmer Tuesday to win the $35,000 Houston Classic golf tournament in an 18-hole playoff.

Collins, who is 6-feet-4-inches tall and weighs 210 pounds, fired a 35-34-69, three under par, to wind up two strokes ahead of Palmer's 35-36-71.

The only previous tournament Collins won was last winter's New Orleans Open. He tied for first place in this year's Phoenix tournament but lost in a playoff to Jack Fleck of Los Angeles.

Tuesday's victory was worth $5,300 to Collins and was by far his most important win of his golfing career. Palmer's second place money was $3,400 which gave him a season's earnings of $47,657.57, the most money ever won by a pro this early in the year.

Palmer said he planned to take a week off and spend some time with his wife and two daughters before playing in next week's Colonial Invitation tournament in Fort Worth.

Collins and Palmer wound up tied with eight-under-par 280s Monday through the regulation 72 holes and were forced into a playoff.

Phils Nose Out Chicago, 10-9

CHICAGO (AP) — Rookie outfielder Ken Walters' first major league home run, a drive over the left field screen with one out in the ninth, carried the Philadelphia Phillies to a 10-9 victory over the Chicago Cubs Tuesday.

The victory enabled the Phillies to smash a six game losing streak and gave them a split in the bobtailed series.

It was an up-hill triumph for the Phillies, who had to overcome a 5-0 deficit to gain their sixth victory in the season's first 17 games. Seth Morehead, formerly a pitcher for the Phillies, served the "gopher" to Walters.

Jack Meyer, second of three Philadelphia pitchers, held the Cubs to three hits over a five inning span to earn his first victory of the season.

Beall May Queen Crowned

Council Told To Clean Up Town Dump

FROSTBURG — Russell Y. Smith, president of the Borden Mining Company, told the Mayor and Council he was shocked when he visited the city dump area. Fire has destroyed some trees recently planted by the Forestry Department, he said, adding that paper and cans are spread over the entire area, as well as the road leading to the dump.

"Unless this situation is cleared up," Smith said, "we will have to cancel the license granted the city for the road into the dump, thereby making it inaccessable to the public. It is absolutely disgraceful and a serious fire hazard.

"We are reluctant to renew the lease, and if we do it will be on a one year basis so that we can maintain control over the area. Apparently you have neglected the dump and it is a decided reflection on the governing body to permit such a condition to exist," Smith concluded.

Preston pointed out that at least 90 per cent of the trash and garbage of the community is collected by city trucks, hauled to the area and disposed of. The trouble, he said, is that residents of outlying areas use the dump in the evenings and create most of the conditions mentioned.

Council decided to appeal to the Allegany County Commissioners for aid as a great part of the users of the dump live outside the city limits.

Frostburg Mayor And Council Take Office

Mayor Joseph James is shown being sworn in by Magistrate Edward P. Flanigan, for his third two-year term as Mayor of Frostburg in ceremonies held at the City Hall preceeding the regular May meeting. Immediately after being sworn in, Mayor James administered the oath of office to his council standing at the rear. They are left to right: Herbert Loar, finance commissioner; William R. Goebel, police commissioner; James P. Kenney, water and light commissioner and T. William Preston, street commissioner. Council made several appointments after they assumed office.

Installation ceremonies will be held May 11 at 7:30 p. m. with Mt. District Commander Charles Griffith, Cumberland, officiating.

The summer festival slated for July 7, 8 and 9 has been advanced to June 9, 10 and 11. A street parade will be held June 10 at 7 p. m.

Piedmont Pool Opens May 30

PIEDMONT — The Mayor and Council reappointed personnel for the municipal swimming pool which opens Memorial Day, May 30.

David Lambert was named manager at a salary of $225 monthly, an increase of $25 over last year. A student at Potomac State College, Keyser, he has completed a course in senior life saving.

James Skidmore and Richard High are life guards at a salary of $150 monthly. Rebecca Harshbarger was renamed ticket seller and Carol Price was also appointed to that position at $100 monthly. Diane Cheshire, Dorothy Smith, French Ward and Robert Shook, who are in charge of baskets, will be paid $70 monthly.

Each of the life guards, ticket sellers and basket attendants will work every other week and be paid for the time they work. The manager will also serve as a life guard so there will be two on hand at all times.

The debt-free pool will be open from 1 to 8 p. m. daily. Swimming rates have been fixed.

Council ordered that a new diving board, 14 feet long and 20 inches wide, be purchased.

In Memoriam

In memory of our beloved son, Ronald Gene Morris, who was killed 2 years ago today, May 4, 1958.

Softly the stars are shining,
Upon a precious grave.
Beneath lies one we dearly loved,
But whom we could not save.
Friends may think we have forgotten,
When at times they see us smile.
Little do they know the heartache,

Card Of Thanks

We wish to express our appreciation and thanks to our friends and relatives for their many expressions of sympathy during our period of bereavement, the death of our husband and father, Roy E. Crowe.

We especially wish to thank Rev. Emory McGraw.

MRS. CLARA L. CROWE and FAMILY

NEEDED WORK — Excellent references. I do my job, finest of all, my twelve million references will tell you so. My upkeep is far less, my days off are next to nothing. If I do need anything special, such as a timer or anything else, you'll find I need only as much as one-third the cost. Some of my distant relations play out fast and cost you as much in severance pay. But I won't play out. I'll always be worth something a great deal more. I can come into your home until June at no expense to you. My complete salary for up to 20 years of work is from $139 up, depending on what you want of me. $5 a month for 2 years is all the wage I ask. My name is Miss Maytag Washer and I live at Green Aplliances. You can tell where my sisters are working by looking at the clothes lines. There is a difference. I have 50 years schooling for your type of work. You can see me at your Maytag Headquarters: Green Appliances, 38 N. Mechanic St, Dial PA 4-0730.

Opening lead: King of ♥

In today's hand the normal trump drawing procedure was abrogated in order to manufacture a trick which was unobtainable by any other process.

The partnership exhibited unbounded confidence in each others bids. South's six diamond call was in particular a vote of confidence and was interpreted by North as an effort to attain the ultimate. He, therefore, holding two of the three top honors in the trump suit, the very valuable king of partner's second bid suit and both unbid suit controls, returned the compliment by contracting for a grand slam in spades.

West led the king of hearts and when dummy appeared, apparently everything depended upon the successful finesse of the jack of diamonds, a 50-50 chance. From declarer's viewpoint that was an unpalatable prospect for, when essaying a 13 trick contract, one ought to be at least a two to one favorite to fulfill.

South casting about hit upon a plan which offered a better prospect. If the spades were divided 3-2, which was probable, the hand could be made without resorting to the diamond finesse. Declarer immediately returned a heart and ruffed it in his hand. He then cashed the king of spades and led a spade to dummy's ace. Another heart was returned and ruffed, and dummy was entered again with the king of clubs and the last heart was ruffed with declarer's jack of spades. A diamond was led to dummy's ace and the last trump was extracted, and dummy's losing diamond was discarded on declarer's long club.

Note that declarer had time to change his line of play up to the point where he played the king of spades and led over to dummy's spade. If the trumps had not divided, he would have extracted all the adverse trumps and relied on the diamond finesse. However, in this case he was able to use dummy's short trumps to extract the outstanding trumps and in effect make his own hand the dummy.

"Whee! This is FUN!"

Keeping Up With Hollywood
by Louella Parsons

HOLLYWOOD—Never let it be said that Kirk Douglas scares easily. Undaunted that "Spartacus" took over a year to film and cost around $12,000,000 — Kirk takes on another biggie, "Montezuma", —and for this John Huston has been signed to direct.

Huston gets here the end of May to get his picture with Marilyn Monroe "The Misfits" rolling as soon as possible. This is Marilyn's independent which her husband Arthur Miller is producing.

Then, Huston heads for Mexico for four months of research on "Montezuma". Kirk's role is that of Cortes who virtually takes Emperor Montezuma a prisoner and uses him to aid in his conquest of Mexico.

I'm not going to argue with the enthused press agent, who, in telling me that Robert Ryan and Peter Ustinov have been signed for "Billy Budd", called this story "The Ben-Hur of the Sea." Herman Melville's classic novel is one of the greatest martime stories ever written encompassing two events that changed the course of the British navy—the Spithead and Nore mutinies of Admiral Nelson's day. Ryan will play Claggart, the tyrant who is so cruel that young Billy Budd kills him. Peter is cast as Captain Vere—and, in addition, will do the directing.

This undertaking is the venture of the new producing team of A. Ronald Lubin (former vice-president of MCA) and writer Millard Kaufman—and Steve Broidy, of Allied Artists say shooting starts in the Medterranean in early winter.

The dramatic story of the Jackson E. McVey family of Houston, Texas, whose lives have been drastically transformed by an accident of atomic radiation, will be made into a motion picture by Tom Laughlin, who has obtained screen, literary and TV rights. Young Laughlin will produce and direct the movie tentatively titled "Poison in Our land" early this fall.

The McVeys who have been isolated from their friends and neighbors since 1957, for fear of contamination of the deadly radiation, have recently testified behind closed doors in Congress in an investigation into the plight of such victims. The family has arrived in Hollywood and will appear on Jack Linkletter's show "On the Go." Although there is no longer any danger of contamination, McVey has leukemia, and his wife and oldest son have cataracts.

"We are finally ready to produce our motion picture together," Carroll Baker told me over the long distance telephone. "Remember, you printed that my husband Jack (Garfein) and I were going to do a picture from the book 'Mary Ann'. It's all set now. We have the backing and we start in August in the sweltering heat.

"We are calling our picture 'Somthing Wild in the City'. I'll star in it, and Jack will produce and direct. Jack helped Alex Karmel, the author of the book, adapt it for the screen, and United Artists is releasing."

I am glad that the Garfeins have everything set.

Things have never been better between Edd "Kookie" Byrnes and Warner Bros. He tells me that because of the writers strike he has been able to appear in just one new segment of "77 Sunset Strip" since he and the studio smoked the peace pipe. Now the popular TV series is completely out of scripts and shooting has halted.

But "Kookie" is a very happy boy. He's been given permission to appear on Pat Boone's TV spectacular with many other big names. Although no details were given out about the terms of his settlement with Warners, I'm pretty sure "Kookie" has been allowed some outside TV appearances and there may be some motion pictures in the offing.

Stock Market Rebounds From Level Of 1960 Lows

NEW YORK (UPI) — Stocks pulled out of a seven-session slump Tuesday to score their best advance since mid-February, with leading steels, chemicals, metals and electronics setting the pace.

Individual gains ranged to 11⅜ points in Polaroid and improvement of 3 and 4 points was common.

While the advance was heartening after the protracted decline, commentators were inclined to attribute it to technical considerations, noting that the decline had left many prices at bargain levels. While the lack of pressure on the decline was seen by some as an indication that support may be forthcoming, the corresponding lack of enthusiasm on the upside was cited by others as an indication that a further test of the march lows may be necessary.

Trading, interrupted by a 25-minute air raid alert late in the afternoon, totaled 2,910,000 shares for the session, compared with 2,930,000 on Monday.

Of a total 1,215 issues appearing on the tape, only 310 were lower while 699 were higher on the day.

Chicago Grains

CHICAGO (UPI)—Grain futures were mixed Tuesday in an active board of trade.

At the final bell, wheat was off 1 to up ½; corn off ⅛ to up ¼; oats off ⅛ to up ¼; Rye up ¾ to 1¼ and soy beans unchanged to up ⅜.

The May wheat contract pursued an irregular pattern following Monday's sharp drop. It gained about a cent on covering and local buying early in the session. Selling by local longs and stop loss orders dropped the delivery a cent by the close.

Deferred wheat futures were firm.

Liquidation in May and active spreading were the main features of trading in corn. Some cash houses sold July and September futures closed steady. Receipts were light, and the cash basis firmed. Export subsidies were granted on 387,000 bushels of corn.

Oats were also steady. Commission houses traded on both sides of the market.

Rye grew strong on buying which spilled over from wheat. The Winnipeg market was also higher.

Soybean futures were comparatively quiet and mostly steady. Some selling stemmed from lower oil and meal prices. Local traders bought July beans late in the session.

Exporters reported Poland purchased 1,750,000 bushels of hard wheat. Formosa was in the market for soybeans.

Civil Defense Alert Results Good In County

Firemen Make Runs To Industrial Plants

Excellent results were reported here yesterday as Allegany County joined in observing "Operation Alert" as part of a nationwide Civil Defense workout.

The most dramatic phases of the alert came in early afternoon as Civil Defense and fire department sirens sounded the "take cover" signal and when fire departments throughout the county early last evening sped to quench simulated fires in three industrial plants.

William G. Barger, county CD director, said the response to the alert in Cumberland was splendid.

He said Arthur B. Gibson, city CD coordinator, and Police Chief B. F. Gaffney reported motorists and pedestrians, with few minor exceptions, cooperated in all phases of the alert.

Traffic Halts

All traffic halted and pedestrians took cover in the nearest building when the signal sounded at 2:15 p. m.

Mr. Gibson said J. Walter Byer, who directed CD workers on the West Side, reported good observance there.

He added that the sirens were not as loud as in some past alerts, since a new location is being sought for a big siren formerly located on the old Roman property, site of St. Paul's Lutheran Church.

Mr. Barger said even customers of one local food market cooperated in the alert.

He said all reports from Frostburg and other communities indicated a good response to the alert—and to the need for more volunteer workers.

A Conelrad test held throughout the county, he said, appeared successful.

Staff On Duty

The CD staff was scheduled to remain on duty at the county CD center in Constitution Park until midnight.

Dry Runs Held

PPG Chemist Killed In Road Crash

Local Man Also Hurt In Accident

Arthur Joseph Kuhns, 32, of 106 Sylvan Drive, New Kensington, Pa., was killed instantly early yesterday morning in a one-car accident on U. S. Route 220, several miles outside the city limits on Bedford Road.

Injured in the crash was James Hinkle, 30, of 718 Yale Street, who was reported in "fair" condition last night at Sacred Heart Hospital.

The victim was a research chemist and was working at the Pittsburgh Plate Glass Company plant here. Hinkle is employed as a carpenter at the PPG plant.

Car Leaves Road

State Police at Bedford said it is believed Hinkle was operating the vehicle at the time of the fatal accident.

Police said the accident occurred just 500 yards north of the Maryland - Pennsylvania State Line on the Pennsylvania side.

Hinkle was southbound on the highway when he apparently lost control of his car, left the highway and rammed into an embankment. Police said the car was demolished by the impact.

Hinkle was taken to Sacred Heart Hospital and was unconscious when admitted. Attaches said he sustained a small laceration over his right eye, two skull lacerations and abrasions of his feet.

Father Of Three

Kuhns, a native of Kittanning, Pa., was employed at Works No. 7 of the Pittsburgh Plate Glass Company at North Branch. A company spokesman said he was assigned here the first of the year on a special project of developing twin polishing machines at the factory.

He was graduated from Kittanning High School, and joined the Pittsburgh firm at Fort City in 1946. He resigned shortly afterwards and enrolled at St. Vincent's College where he earned his degree.

A company spokesman said he resided at the Fort Cumberland Hotel during the week and returned over the weekends to New Kensington where his wife, Jerry Jean Kuhns, and three children resided. He was the father of two sons, Gary J., age seven, and David W., age five, and a daughter, Megan, age two.

The death of the research chemist was the third on Bedford County highways this year.

Pennsylvania State Police said no charges have been placed pending the completion of the investigation of the accident.

Obey Civil Defense Alert

Several drivers are seen abandoning their cars on South Centre Street near Baltimore Street yesterday afternoon as sirens sounded the beginning of the Civil Defense Agency's "Operation Alert." Arthur B. Gibson, city CD coordinator, and Police Chief B. F. Gaffney, who were among the observers, reported excellent results, especially in the downtown area and added that CD workers, the Cumberland Police Department and Auxiliary Police, who cooperated, all said the alert worked out well. Volunteer firemen throughout the county participated in "dry run."

Plaintiff Gets Jury Verdict In Trial Here

Old Court Ruling Cited In Hearing

An Allegany County Circuit Court petit jury yesterday returned a verdict favoring the plaintiff in a civil suit in which he sought an $800 life insurance policy from his former wife.

Sylvan Durst, of Grantsville, filed the suit against his former wife, Mrs. Flossie L. Durst, of 217 Glenn Street. He sought the insurance policy and $300 for detention of the policy, the declaration filed in court indicated.

After arguments were presented by lawyers of both sides yesterday afternoon before Chief Judge Morgan C. Harris, the jury got the case and deliberated about half an hour.

During the trial, a Maryland court ruling of more than 175 years ago involving the ownership of slaves was cited.

John M. Robb, attorney for the woman asked the court for a directed verdict and the members of the jury were sent out of the court room while the motion was argued.

Hugh McMullen, who along with William H. Geppert, was counsel for Durst cited a case from 1778 in which the court held that the statute of limitations does not begin until a legal demand is made for an item held by another with permission of the owner. He said this is similar to the current case, wherein Durst had not made legal demand for a return of the insurance policy until last year.

He said the contention of counsel for the woman that the statute of limitations ran out because the policy had been in the woman's possession since 1953 would not stand in the face of the old court case.

He recounted how a man left his daughter a slave woman and after she married her husband assumed ownership. The couple had two daughters and when they married the mother gave the slave and her offspring to the daughters. The mother did not want the sons-in-law to have the slaves but made no legal claim. The court ruled later on that the slaves were the property originally of the mother of the two daughters and the statute of limitations did not apply.

Judge Harris denied the motion by Robb and the jury was recalled to hear testimony in the case.

Car Strikes Young Boy

A two-year-old boy was injured last night when he darted in front of an automobile on Valley Street near the intersection of Columbia Street.

City Police Officer Royce Clayton said the youngster, Neil Richard Shook III, son of Mr. and Mrs. Neil R. Shook Jr., 555 North Mechanic Street, was admitted to Sacred Heart Hospital with facial injuries.

The accident occurred about 8:30 p. m. The driver of the car was identified as Olaf Oscar Watne, 41, of 530 Riehl Avenue.

Officer Clayton said the parents of the boy told him they left the youngster sipping on a soft drink on the steps of a grocery store on Valley Street as they shopped inside. They said they frequently did this when visiting the store.

The boy unexpectedly ran in front of Mr. Watne's car as he was traveling north on Valley Street. The left front of the car struck the youngster. Officer Clayton said the impact broke the left headlight on the car.

Hospital attendants said the Shook child had cuts on his cheek, above the right eye and on the mouth. He was not badly hurt and was admitted for x-rays.

Science, Math Teachers To Hear State Supervisor

"New Developments In The Teaching of Physics" will be the topic presented to science and mathematics teachers of Allegany County by Lewin A. Wheat, state supervisor of high schools, at 7:30 p. m. today at Fort Hill High School.

Jack A. Petry, county supervisor of high schools, explained that this is the ninth in a series of 10 weekly programs arranged through the cooperation of the Cumberland chapter of the American Chemical Society.

Mr. Wheat is a graduate of Washington College at Chestertown and the University of Maryland. He was a teacher of science and vice principal at Chestertown High School. During summers he has participated in the General Electric fellowship program in physics at Union College, Schenectady, N. Y.; the Shell fellowship program in chemistry at Cornell University, Ithaca, N.Y., and in two national science foundation programs — one in biology at Indiana University and one in physical science study committee physics course at Oak Ridge, Tenn.

The state supervisor is working with the State Department of Education as a consultant in science and mathematics in connection with the National Defense Education Act program.

Auto Safety Check Plan Begins At 5

Operation Safety Check, a voluntary and free check of area automobiles, is scheduled to open today at 5 p. m. with four check lanes to be available to motorists.

Locations of the check lanes will be at the intersection of Frederick and Bedford streets; Spoerl's Used Car lot on North Mechanic Street west of the Henderson Avenue intersection; Virginia Avenue near the B&O YMCA, and on the south side of the Dingle Hill near the city limits.

The lanes will be open from 5 until 9 p. m. today. Each lane will be staffed by experienced auto mechanics and tire men in addition to members of Cumberland Chapter 377, Safe-Teens.

Lynn Walker, publicity chairman for the program, again emphasized last night that the inspection is voluntary and that there is no charge for the service offered to Cumberland and Frostburg area drivers in this 10-point inspection of their automobiles.

The program is offered in cooperation with the National Vehicle Safety Check for communities, conducted nationwide by an agency of the President's Traffic Safety Commission.

In Cumberland the project is being operated by the Safe-Teen organization with the Cumberland Optimist Club as sponsor. In Frostburg the Safe-Teen chapter operating the check lane at Beall High School is being sponsored by the Frostburg Lions Club.

These organizations invite everyone to take advantage of the free inspection of automobiles. Their motto for the program is Join the Circle of Safety — Check Your Car, Check Your Driving, Check Accidents.

Lads Hold Wading Party In Wills Creek

They were armed with poles and at least one lad managed to stun a fish by slapping the water before city police arrived.

Magistrates Endorse Plan Of Safe-Teens

The Trial Magistrates Affiliation of Allegany County met Sunday afternoon as the guests of Magistrate V. Browne Kooken, 415 Johnson Street, Westernport, and heard a talk by Lynn Walker, one of the sponsors of Safe-Teens.

The affiliation passed a resolution endorsing the program of safety as supported by the Safe-Teens and agreed to cooperate in their plan to help educate youthful drivers.

Mr. Walker suggested that when young people come before the magistrates of the county on traffic violations, that they be asked if they are members of Safe-Teens. If so, he said, the club, which is international in scope, recommends that the magistrates lift the offenders membership card. If any offender is not a member, it can be suggested to him that he contact Safe-Teens for possible membership and training in the "rules of the road, highway safety and highway courtesy."

Magistrate Kooken, president of the affiliation complimented Mr. Walker for his interest in promoting safety and especially for his dedicated work over a long period of years with young people.

The magistrates adopted a constitution and by-laws and decided to have a speaker at each monthly meeting. The next session will be held at the home of Magistrate Harold E. Naughton, 807 MacDonald Terrace.

Stunting Plane Causes False Crash Report

A call from a Garrett County farmer set the wheels in motion for a search of the mountainous area near Accident yesterday when a twin-engine plane was believed to have crashed in flames.

But several hours later, about 9 p. m., the sheriff's office in Oakland said the report was false and that it appeared that a plane stunting in the area had caused witnesses to believe it had crashed.

State Police said a call at 5:43 p. m. notified them that a plane flying west over Accident had suddenly spiriled down behind a mountain, trailing smoke. At first it was believed to be an airliner headed for Pittsburgh.

Police immediately dispatched a cruiser to the scene and the Civil Air Patrol and Civil Aeronautics Administration were notified to begin the search in the event the plane had crashed in the mountainous area.

However, shortly after dark, investigating officers said they determined that a small aircraft flying from McHenry and piloted by a Pittsburgh man had been stunting in the vicinity. The plane landed safely at McHenry shortly after the report was made.

Sheriff James Frantz at Oakland said officials now believe that the plane seen by the farmer actually was the Pittsburgh flyer stunting his small craft.

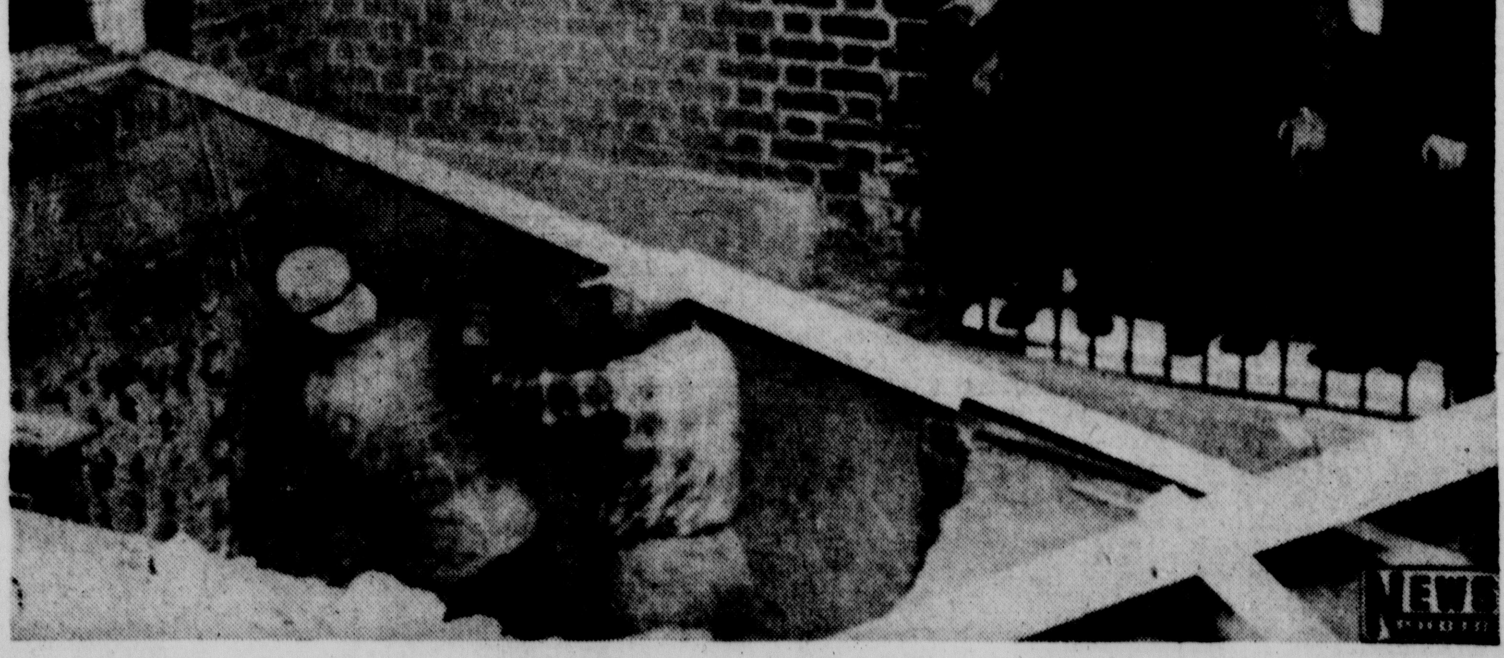
Driver Dies In Auto Fire

An unidentified man died shortly before last midnight when the car he was driving on State Route 51 about three miles from Paw Paw, W. Va., struck an abutment and caught fire, according to State Police.

Early this morning, State Police lacked positive identification on the victim, who was believed to have been a Cumberland man.

State Troopers Willis Foreman and Ronald Davis were still investigating at 1 a. m. today.

The body was being brought back to Cumberland for positive identification. The victim apparently was traveling alone and no other vehicle was involved in the crash.



Work Starts On New YMCA Health Room

Depressed Area Bill Support Is Urged By Tawes

Western Maryland Areas Would Qualify

ANNAPOLIS (AP)—Gov. Tawes has urged Maryland's seven Democratic congressmen to support the so-called Area Redevelopment Act which would set up a federal agency to assist depressed areas.

The act, known as the Flood-Douglas-Clark Bill, has passed the Senate and has received approval of the House Banking and Currency Committee. It it currently in the House Rules Committee.

Tawes noted that the bill is designed to aid, through federal loans and technical assistance, areas of chronic unemployment seeking to attract new industry and improve public facilities. Vocational retraining of unemployed for new types of jobs would also be offered in areas which have lost industry on which they were dependent.

The governor said he has been advised that Cumberland, Cambridge, Hagerstown, Crisfield, Elkton and Garrett County, Md. would all qualify for participation in such a program since all have experienced more than 6 per cent unemployment over a period of 18 months or longer.

"I believe you are aware of my concern for the economic development of our state as evidenced by my support for the creation of a State Department of Economic Development," Tawes told the congressmen. "I am anxious, as I am sure you are, to do all that we can to increase economic opportunity throughout all of Maryland and particularly in our underdeveloped areas.

"The bill would, I believe, be helpful to our efforts to provide economic opportunity for all. I hope, after careful study of the bill, that you will support its passage."

Tawes' letters to Maryland congressmen went out last week. His office said Tuesday he has already received replies from Reps. Samuel N. Friedel and Edward A. Garmatz promising to support the bill. Both said they have favored such legislation for some time.

Georges Creek Area Fails In Blood Quota

The Red Cross bloodmobile collected 60 pints of blood yesterday on its quarterly visit to Lonaconing. The quota for the Lonaconing - Barton - Midland area is 85 pints.

Only 49 donors had been scheduled for this visit at the Lonaconing VFW home and of this number, 40 kept their appointments. Three cancelled and six failed to appear. There were however, 26 volunteer walkins. Six persons gave blood as replacements and six were rejected for disabilities. Five of those who gave blood were first timers.

Seven names were added to the One Gallon Club. They include, Alvin Beeman, Mrs. Alma E. Durst and Grant O. Glotfelty, all of Barton; James Ferrens, Robert G. Muir, Mrs. Margaret Stafford and Miss Catherine Tendleberry, all of Lonaconing.

A check of the donor records last night showed that only one person from the Midland area gave blood and this man is a resident of Gilmore.

Physicians on duty were Dr. William W. Lesh of Westernport and Dr. Lester Miles Jr. of Lonaconing.

Bloodmobile officials indicate that unless the area can raise its quota of donors, it may be necessary to drop the section from the blood program. An area which donates its regular quota of blood makes it possible for all residents of that area to receive blood free, in the event of sickness, injury or an emergency.

City Staffer Is Discharged

Water Commissioner G. Ray Light announced yesterday that Franklin J. Blaney, sanitary engineer, had been discharged, effective immediately.

Mr. Blaney has been superintendent of the Lake Gordon filter plant and the sewage treatment plant since coming here from Wadsworth, Ohio last June.

Mr. Light said Nixon will assume Mr. Blaney's duties until a new engineer is named. Mr. Nixon has been serving as assistant superintendent at the filter plant.

The water commissioner declined further comment on the action.

Mr. Blaney, contacted shortly before noon, told a reporter he had "quit for the preservation of my family."

All-Or-Nothing Summit Accord Sought By West

No Piecemeal Settlements, NATO Told

ISTANBUL (AP)—The Western Big Three pledged to their NATO partners Tuesday they will seek an all-or-nothing understanding with the Soviet Union to end the global cold war at the summit.

No piecemeal settlements would really relax East-West tension, it was agreed.

Turkish tanks stood guard at the far end of the plaza from the new city hall where the 15 foreign ministers of the NATO council met and reached these conclusions.

But only one incident marred an otherwise quiet day. The city is under martial law as a result of student demonstrations demanding that Turkish Premier Adnan Menderes' government restore political freedoms.

Troops Move In

Fifty students assembled for an antigovernment parade near Taksim Square in the heart of the city but troops with bayonets levellled moved in and dispersed them before they could form ranks.

The army was taking no chances. Troops patrolled the streets in threes soon after the 8 p.m. curfew and heavy tanks rumbled to ancient Dolmabache Palace where the NATO ministers were at a banquet.

These were the highlights of the NATO Council session as related by senior authorites:

Secretary of State Christian A. Herter, British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd and French Foreign Minister Maurice Couve de Murville assured their allies any stopgap deal arranged by President Eisenhower and the summit chiefs on Berlin will leave Western rights intact. Otherwise, they promised, there will be no deal with Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev at the summit meeting in Paris.

Detente Up To Soviets

Herter, Lloyd and Couve de Murville stressed they will demand that the Soviets quit trying to upset governments such as those of West Germany, Greece and Iran—if a detente really is wanted. Detente is a French word widely used by diplomats to mean relaxation of tension.

As a sort of slogan the Allies resolved that the Soviets must be told any East-West detente must be indivisable.

Administration To Offer Medical Aid Subsidy Plan

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Eisenhower administration will recommend to Congress Wednesday that most persons over 65 be given a chance to buy hospital and nursing home insurance at a subsidized rate of $24 a year, informants said Tuesday.

The administration will propose that federal and state governments share the cost of the subsidy. Informed sources estimated it would cost the federal treasury about 600 million dollars a year.

The plan is the administration's answer to Democratic proposals to add hospital insurance to benefits available under the Social Security program and to finance it through higher payroll taxes on workers and their employers.

Ford Plan Insures Secrecy Of Choice

DETROIT (AP) — A program that provides Ford Motor Co. employes with an opportunity to contribute financially to the political party of their choice was outlined Tuesday by the company.

Henry Ford II, president, said the program was the first ever undertaken by a major industry which guarantees the secrecy of choice.

He said the purpose "is to exert an influence for good government by broadening the base of participation in politics."

Practice Alert Tests Civilian Defense Setup

WASHINGTON (AP)—The plan for keeping the people informed during an attack—and at the same time confusing the enemy—got a nationwide workout Tuesday. It was the start of Operation Alert 1960, a three-day civil defense exercise.

For 30 minutes, all television stations in the nation were blacked out and radio stations stopped their regular broadcasts. During that time the 5,000 radio stations in the civil defense, or Conelrad, emergency network broadcast instructions and talks by officials, including President Eisenhower.

Except for this public participation, it was in most cities primarily a training exercise for federal, state and local officials. Busy millions were unaware of what was going on unless they had TV or radio sets turned on or heard the moaning sirens signal a hypothetical attack.

However, New York City's streets were deserted for 15 minutes. Motor vehicles were parked and millions rushed to shelters. New York State law requires everyone to participate in civil defense tests.

In New York's City Hall Park 26 persons were arrested for refusing to take shelter. Police described most of them as "resisters" — conscientious objectors to war and nuclear tests. But civil defense officials termed the response in the city excellent.

Participation by federal workers in Washington was most extensive at the Pentagon and the State Department. Some other departments kept the workers at their desks during the 15 to 30 minute evacuation exercise.

At the Pentagon, the more than 26,000 employed were herded into hallway shelters and the two top floors were cleared of all except emergency personnel. A few "token" representatives were flown by helicopter to various emergency command posts in Maryland and Virginia.

The State Department reported that its 4,000 employes tucked away their secret papers in safes and got out of the buildings in eight minutes—four minutes faster than the record set last year.

Senate Boosts Space Program

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Senate approved a civilian space authorization bill Tuesday totaling 50 million dollars more than President Eisenhower sought after hearing a Democratic warning against placing "financial roadblocks on our path to the stars."

The roll call vote was 78 to 0 for passage of the bill.

The measure would fix a ceiling of 970 million dollars on outlays by the National Aeronautics & Space Administration (NASA) in the new fiscal year beginning July 1. Included was some 230 million dollars for the Saturn super rocket and $107,750,000 for manned space flight.

The House previously approved an authorization measure providing the exact 920 million dollars sought by Eisenhower. It subsequently cut 39 million dollars from the request, however, in approving a follow-up bill providing the actual cash.

'Mother Of Year' Salvaged Retarded Youngest Son

NEW YORK (AP) — A 72-year-old Californian, who salvaged her retarded youngest son without neglecting five other children, Tuesday was named American Mother of 1960. She is Emerald Arbogast of Los Angeles.

Her selection was announced by the American Mothers Committee Inc., which brought her here for a testimonial luncheon Friday.

Talking with reporters, the trim grandmother of 10 and great-grandmother of four said of child rearing: "Home environment is important, and freedom under supervision."

Mrs. Arbogast gave her husband, Glen, credit for much of her success as a mother. An electronics firm official, he once was named Man of the Year by the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce.

Mrs. Arbogast told a news conference she doesn't smoke but does indulge in a glass of sherry—once a year before Thanksgiving dinner. As for form-fitting slacks and sweaters on women, she said:

"I just turn my head. I think they lose some feminine appeal when they dress that way."

When her youngest son was born 35 years ago, Mrs. Arbogast was told by doctors that he was a "mongoloid who would never be anything but a burden."

"I would not give up," she recalled, "and I used everything I could—I used the trial and error method."

Today, the son plays the piano, types, rides horseback, travels alone and is self-supporting.

Chessman's Body Cremated Without Rites

SAN RAFAEL, Calif. (AP) — The body of Caryl Chessman, one of the most articulate criminals ever executed, was cremated Tuesday without religious ceremony.

The convict-author's body became ashes soon after publication of a letter, written in his final hours, telling his views on the problem of juvenile delinquency.

The letter, started on his death row typewriter and finished in longhand shortly before he died Monday in San Quentin's gas chamber, was addressed to Mary Crawford, San Francisco News-Call Bulletin reporter.

Writing of his life as a "violent young psychopath" and his futile 12-year fight to escape execution, Chessman's letter asked:

"How could he have been changed from an angry, undisciplined young man, filled with mistrust of the world and even himself, into a useful citizen?

"In larger context, where and how are we failing those we call juvenile delinquents?"

There is no easy answer, Chessman wrote, but he declared: "I believe that so long as we seek a negative answer with punishment and the threat of punishmen, deluding ourselves with the witless fiction that punishment per se is either a correction or a cure, we will continue to see the problem get worse."

Chessman argued that externally applied repression only increases the pressures inside young humans—their conflicts, anxieties, wants, hopes and dreams.

Chessman's casket bore two red roses as it was driven to Tamalpais Cemetery for cremation. Only one person joined funeral home attendants and newsmen at the cemetery.

Gordon Roadanal, a San Francisco teacher, said he had come because "I didn't want him forgotten."

An avowed agnostic, Chessman directed there be no religious service. The ashes will go to Glendale, Calif., where his mother is buried.

Ike Appeals For Action On Program

President Urges Less Politicking And More Work

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower appealed to the Democratic-controlled Congress Tuesday to pass up politicking and get down to legislating for all America in these closing months of the election year session.

"Too great a preoccupation with events of an election year could seriously impede constructive effort," Eisenhower said in a special message.

"We should jointly resolve that the shortness of time and political rivalries will not be allowed to prevent us from serving the American people effectively."

"This speech—it's called a message but I call it a speech—seems to be the Republican platform," House Speaker Sam Rayburn (D-Tex) said.

One Major Accomplishment

Other Democrats accused Eisenhower of using a double standard in urging more foreign aid spending but a tighter curb on spending at home.

But Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois praised Eisenhower's message as "an earnest appeal for a cooperative effort."

Eisenhower credited Congress with one major accomplishment in four months of work so far—passage of a new civil rights bill. But even here, the President chided Congress for rejecting certain of his recommendations.

The President plugged hard — as he did in a nationally broadcast speech Monday night — for his four-billion-dollar foreign aid program which he called imperative to the nation's security.

Medical Aid Plan Promised

He asked anew for a farm bill to cope with the problem of mounting crop surpluses, particularly wheat.

While Eisenhower listed a whole group of proposals ranging from more federal judges to a "moderate" increase in the $1-an-hour minimum wage, the only really new one was in the field of health care for the elderly.

The President said Secretary of Welfare Arthur S. Flemming on Wednesday will unfold "a new program which will enable older people truly in need of help to meet the calamity of catastrophic illness."

Without going into detail, he indicated this politically significant plan will be built around private health insurance, with federal and state sharing of the costs.

Africa Escapes Public Censure

LONDON (AP)—The Commonwealth prime ministers conference Tuesday ruled out any public condemnation of South Africa for its racial segregation policy.

Instead, the leaders of this free association of nations that once made up the British Empire decided to discuss the problem informally at a series of private meetings with South Africa's foreign minister, Eric Louw.

This formula was worked out at the opening of the 10-day conference, behind locked doors, after Louw reminded his colleagues that South Africa claims the sole responsibility for its own domestic policy.

The decision to avoid putting South Africa in the position of a defendant in court represented a triumph for Prime Minister Harold Macmillan of Britain over angry leaders from dark-skinned nations in the Commonwealth, particularly Ghana, India and Ceylon.

He convinced visiting leaders that more good could be done in informal conversations either singly or in pairs with Louw, who is deputizing for Prime Minister Hendrik F. Verwoerd, wounded last month by a white, Brititish-born assailant.

Malenkov Shifted

MOSCOW (AP) — Former Premier Georgi Malenkov has been shifted from his job of running the Kamenogorsk hydroelectric plant on the Siberian-Kazhak border, usually reliable sources said Tuesday.

Malenkov was stuck in the remote hydroelectric post after he and several Communist leaders were deposed by Premier Nikita Khrushchev in 1957 for "antiparty activities."

Ike Covers Ears As Guns Roar

Army Nuclear Age Weapons Shown To Ike

FT. BENNING, Ga. (AP)—The Army Tuesday paraded before President Eisenhower an awesome arsenal of nuclear weapons for foot soldier support. They included the spectacular new Davey Crockett short-range atomic gun.

Davey Crockett dwarfs in firepower anything we have ever known in the immediate area of the battle line said Secretary of the Army Wilber M. Brucker.

Brucker and top Army officials were on hand to welcome the President as he arrived by jet airliner from Washington for an old soldier's look at how the infantry is being trained in this age of nuclear weapons.

For 90 minutes the Army rolled its latest rockets, other weapons and equipment before Eisenhower as he sat in a cushioned chair at the edge of the parade grounds at this huge infantry training center.

A demonstration of the firing of some of them—without nuclear warheads, of course—was arranged for the President in advance of his departure for Washington late in the afternoon.

Shortly before the demonstration Eisenhower lunched in a grove of trees on fried chicken, baked beans and potato salad. Secretary of Defense Thomas S. Gates, Brucker and a group of young officers and enlisted men also were at the President's table.

What the President witnessed during his one-day visit was "Project Man," the code name for the theme of the operation—modern Army needs. The emphasis was on the foot soldier's role in the nuclear age—and how America's munitions makers are meeting the infantryman's needs.

Gen. Lyman L. Lemnitzer, Army chief of staff, welcomed Eisenhower to Ft. Benning—home of the infantry—as "the nation's No.1 infantry soldier."

It was something of a homecoming for the President. He was stationed at Benning for a few months immediately after World War I, and for seven months in 1926-27.

Five Killed In Crash Of Brazilian Plane

SAN JUAN, P.R. (UPI) — A Brazilian aircraft en route to San Juan from Miami crashed and burned Tuesday on the runways of Ramey Air Force Base.

The air traffic control tower at San Juan said there were no survivors of the crash indicating the plane was being ferried to Brazil and was not in commercial service.

U.S. Air Force firemen and rescue teams at Ramey reached the crash scene minutes after the crash but were not able to rescue any of the men aboard. Their nationality was not immediately established.

Dietrich Returns To Berlin Stage, Scores Triumph

BERLIN (AP) —Marlene Dietrich returned to the Berlin stage Tuesday night after 31 years' absence and scored a triumph.

She took two encores and 11 curtain calls.

Mayor Willy Brandt stood up and led the applause when she concluded with a favorite local song: "I Still Have a Trunk in Berlin."

Billion Budget Rise Forecast

WASHINGTON (AP) — Another billion-dollar rise in federal spending—to a probable peacetime record of 81 billion dollars—was forecast Tuesday for 1962 by Budget Director Maurice H. Stans.

Stans warned against "compulsive spending" in a speech at the annual meeting of the U.S. Chamber of Commerce. He said the increase of "a billion dollars or more" from the budget now before Congress will result from built-in cost increases of programs already on the law books.

"There are few built-in decreases," Stans told the businessmen, "since government programs once begun are usually incapable of being turned off."

Stans challenged the idea that crash spending is the route to economic growth. And he rejected what he called the illusion that victory in the cold war can be bought by panicky infusions of money.

"Instead, it is a formula for rationalizing and inviting higher taxes, bigger debts, and fiscal exhaustion," he said.

Arab Boycott Spreads

CAIRO Egypt (AP) — The International Confederation of Arab Trade Unions announced Tuesday that workers in Libyan hotels, restaurants and tourist offices would not serve Americans. A spokesman said Libyans acted in solidarity with Arab workers to counter U.S. picketing of United Arab Republic vessels in New York.

Congressmen Complain Of 'Trash' On Television

WASHINGTON (AP) — Television took some new blows Tuesday from congressmen complaining about trash, poor taste in programming and overcommercialization.

The industry was defended by President Leonard H. Goldenson of the American Broadcasting Co., testifying in the windup of House payola hearings which began last November.

Rep. Peter F. Mack (D-Ill), declared: "I think something must be done to control the trash over our airways."

Goldenson objected. He said TV is just 10 years old but is now giving Americans some of the greatest shows they've evern seen.

Rep. John E. Moss (D-Calif) scoffed at the idea that television's faults are the faults of youth.

"How can it be so young and have so many bad habits?" Moss asked.

There's a commercial gimmick in almost everything on TV he, said, and "I think you have reached a point where this most important means of communication has been subverted."

Rep. William L. Springer (R-Ill) suggested TV programming needs an inquiry all its own.

Goldenson said stiff competition dictated the change.

Anyhow, he said the quality of programming is getting better all the time. For example, he said ABC plans to dramatize the histories written by Winston Churchill, and also has arranged for a series of science shows to be tied in with school classes.

Demonstrations Let Up In Seoul; Curfew Eased

SEOUL, South, Korea (AP) — Threats of further student demonstrations against the National Assembly appeared to fade so the South Korean caretaker government shoved the curfew in this capital city back to midnight.

The Assembly Tuesday formally accepted the resignation of Syngman Rhee as president as well as the resignations of six assemblymen accused of helping to rig the March 15 elections that returned him to power and then touched off nationwide student riots. The lawmakers are now working on changes in the government setup calling for new elections.

The regime of acting President Huh Chung also issued a policy statement pledging reforms in U.S. aid management, measures to increase democracy, and steps to improve relations with Japan, another important U. S. ally in Asia.

Student groups in Pusan and Taegu, the second and third largest cities in South Korea, have demonstrated by the thousands for three days calling for the Assembly to quit and order new elections right away. No clashes were reported.

In Seoul, leaders of the students' revolt voted Tuesday by a slim majority to urge the present Assembly to complete the work of cutting down the presidential powers and giving the Cabinet more responsibility.

One group of about 150 diehard students insisted on staging a demonstration. They squatted in front of the Assembly building demanding that the assemblymen resign on the ground they were elected in 1958 "through the use of violence, money and illegal tactics."

The army broke up their demonstration after 40 minutes by tossing tear gas bombs. This appeared to indicate that the new government will not tolerate any more student marches.

Humphrey Heads Morse In D.C. Race

Kennedy Forces Concede "Setback" In Hoosier State

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (UPI) —Sen. John F. Kennedy's Indiana campaign headquarters said Tuesday night that Vice President Richard M. Nixon had out-polled Kennedy in their Indiana presidential primary "popularity" contest.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (UPI) — Vice President Richard M. Nixon won his presidential popularity contest with Sen. John F. Kennedy Tuesday in Indiana's most populous area and held early leads Tuesday in more than two-thirds of the state's counties which had reported returns.

Returns from 1,216 of the state's 4,299 precincts gave Nixon 120,165. Returns from 1,175 precincts gave Kennedy 98,935.

Bellwether Marion County, which includes Indianapolis, gave Nixon a modest margin over Kennedy, but not nearly so great as the margin by which President Eisenhower out-polled Sen. Estes Kefauver in the 1956 primaries.

However, with only 80 per cent of the pricincts reporting, Nixon's Marion County total already had surpassed the complete vote given Eisenhower four years ago as the vice. president surged past the 50,000-vote mark.

Humphrey Ahead In D.C.

With nearly half the ballot boxes counted—50 of 136—Humphrey had 1,960 votes and Morse 1,315.

Adlai E. Stevenson, the 1952 and 1956 Democratic presidential nominee, also figured in the contest. Though his name was not carried on the ballot, a slate of delegates pledged to him was entered over his objections.

Although the votes for his delegates ran well behind those pledged to Humphrey, some individuals on the Stevenson slate ran ahead of some on the Morse slate.

No presidential candidate was listed on the Republican ticket, but all candidates for the party's national convention were pledged to Vice President Richard M. Nixon.

No write-ins were allowed on either ballot.

Ohio Count Slow

COLUMBUS, Ohio (UPI)—Scattered early returns from Ohio's primary Tuesday showed the organization slates pledged to Vice President Richard M. Nixon and Sen. John F. Kennedy for the presidential nominations taking an early lead.

Both Nixon and Kennedy were assured of Ohio's support. All Democrat delegates in a bitter intra-party struggle were pledged to him and 55 of the 56 Republican delegates who won without opposition were pledged to Nixon.

The count was expected to be unusually slow because of the record number of candidates for delegates and for county offices.

Carlton Leads In Flordia

With 107 of the state's 1971 precincts reporting, Carlton had 12,086 votes to 10,028 for Farris Bryant, who was in second place.

These were the two candidates who spent the most in campaign funds.

Bette Davis Sues Merrill For Divorce

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Actress Bette Davis has sued actor Gary Merrill for divorce in Portland, Maine, the Herald-Express said Tuesday.

The action was filed last Thursday, the newspaper account said.

The couple married in Juarez, Mexico, July 29, 1950. They have three children, Barbara, 12, Margot, 8, and Michael, 7.

They have had several previous spats, but always have reconciled.

Japan's No. 1 Earner

TOKYO (AP)—Electric appliance tycoon Konosuke Matsushita reported a personal income of $713,508 in 1959, making him Japan's top earner for the third consecutive year. Second highest earner was Sadao Idemitsu, president of a petroleum company who reported $495,977.

Pressure On Him To Quit In W.Va., Humphrey Says

HUNTINGTON, W.Va. (UPI) — Sen. Hubert Humphrey of Minnesota said Tuesday "tremendous pressure" was being exerted to have him withdraw from the West Virginia presidential preference primary for the sake of party harmony.

He told a news conference here "certain people" urged him to pull out of the Democratic primary race in the Mountain State after he was defeated by Sen. John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts in Wisconsin.

Humphrey was asked if he was inferring Kennedy was behind the pressure.

"I stand on the statement I made," he replied but declining to elaborate.

Starting in the stretch drive with the primary a week away, Humphrey also spoke out on his campaign finances, asked for help from local businessmen and attacked the campaigning tactics of Franklin D. Roosevelt Jr., who has made many excursions into this state in Kennedy's behalf.

Kennedy, meanwhile, was scheduled to arrive in Bluefield, W.Va., Tuesday night by plane from Washington for an address at a rally in Welch.

The two Democratic presidential aspirants will face each other on a television-radio debate Wednesday night at 8:30 P.M. E.D.T.

High heeled shoes are said to have been introduced by Catherine de Medici, wife of Henry II of France. Her heels were about an inch high.

Maryland Hit By One 'Bomb' In CD Exercise

BALTIMORE (AP) — Up to Tuesday evening, Maryland came out of a simulated bomb attack quite well.

Only one missile burst on the Free State, plotters at Civil Defense headquarters said. That one landed near Friendship International Airport, eight miles southwest of here.

A spokesman at CD said the missile supposedly had been fired from an enemy submarine in the Atlantic Ocean.

There was no immediate word on casualties. Such an attack with a nuclear weapon in event of war would probably claim thousands of casualties.

Sirens wailed over the state at 2 p. m. and a special radio program on two frequencies told of the purpose of the alert.

Among those who spoke on the transcribed program were Gov. Tawes of Maryland, President Eisenhower, Defense Secretary Thomas Gates and Gov. J. Almond Lindsay of Virginia.

Generally, housewives, office workers and school children only heard the sirens and didn't participate in take-cover exercises.

However, in Cumberland traffic stopped and pedestrians took cover. There was a fire, rescue and communication exercise Tuesday night in Allegany County, Civil Defense headquarters reported.

In some other counties traffic was stopped. CD officials in Harford County said they had some siren failures.

And at the $325,000 underground fortress where State CD Director Sherley Ewing headed operations, the 80 or so participants in the alert tried out a dehydrated supper. It included onion soup, orange juice, beef stew over biscuits, apricots and coffee.

One of those who tasted the emergency meal allowed that "It wasn't bad at all."

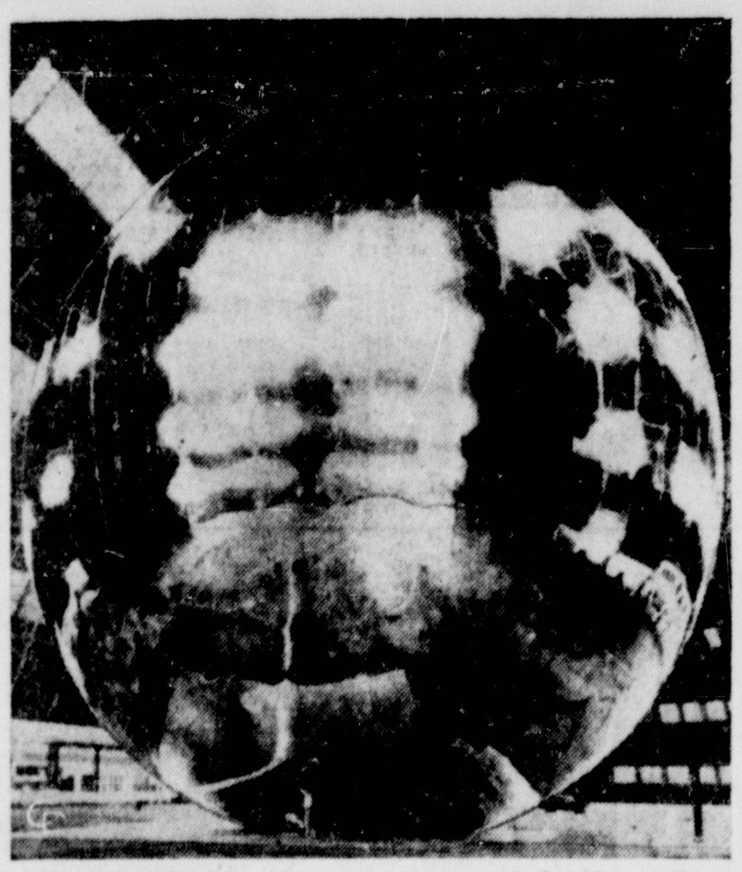
MOSCOW (AP) — President Antonin Novotny of Czechoslovakia has arrived for talks with Soviet leaders. Polish Premier Wladyslaw Gomulka and Premier Otto Grotewohl of Communist East Germany arrived last week.



"SPACE MIRROR"—This is the 100-foot "inflatable satellite" NASA has scheduled for launching at Cape Canaveral Thursday as "Project Echo." It is made of metallized polyester film .0005 of an inch thick, about half the thickness of cigaret package cellophane. Such a satellite is carried aloft packed in a 28-inch sphere in the nose of a rocket. It inflates automatically when released.

Giant Balloon Satellite Shot Slated Tomorrow

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) —A balloon communications satellite, bright as a star and tall as a 10-story building, is scheduled for launching from this missile test center Thursday.

The satellite is designed to test the feasibility of using a system of satellites for fast, accurate global communications. The project, called Echo, could lead to worldwide radio, television and telephone networks.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration, which doesn't like to release the dates of space launchings, announced the Echo date two weeks ago to give volunteer project participants adequate time for preparation. These include government agencies, scientific groups and industries in many parts of the world.

Most ham radio operators do not have powerful enough equipment to carom signals off the big sphere but they will be able to tune in on signals sent by groups with adequate equipment.

The major experiment will be an attempt to exchange signals and messages between the Bell Telephone Holmdel, N.J., laboratories and the NASA jet propulsion tracking station at Goldstone, Calif.

Goldstone will transmit via the satellite on 2390 megacycles and receive on 960 megacycles. Holmdel will transmit on 960 and receive on 2390.

'Minuteman' Nearing Operational Stage

HILL AIR FORCE BASE, Utah (AP) — The commanding general of the Strategic Air Command said Tuesday the Minuteman missile is now moving into the operational stage to take its place as one of America's major defense weapons.

Gen. Thomas S. Power made this description of the solid-fuel, mobile missile as he arrived at this Air Force base in northern Utah to inspect facilities for a coming test of proposed railroad launching facilities.

The Air Force disclosed that the first mobility tests will be run out of Hill AFB about June 20. Later tests will be at Des Moines, Iowa.

Khrush Opens Trade Fair With Calm Address

MOSCOW (AP) — Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev sparked the opening of the Czechoslovak trade fair Tuesday with a calm, collected speech and confined fireworks to a demonstration of his rifle-shooting skill.

Although noting the 15th anniversary of the victory over Germany will be celebrated soon, Khrushchev made no new demands and repeated no old ones for the conclusion of a peace treaty and the departure of the Western Allies from West Berlin.

He emphasized the Soviet Union wants economic cooperation with the West but added, "If the capitalists place obstacles in the way of such cooperation, this would not break us."

"We are capable of advancing our economy without aid from the capitalist countries," Khrushchev added.

After hailing Czech economic achievements during 15 years of Communist rule, Khrushchev strolled through heavy rain around the exhibition, stopping at a shooting gallery where he set off bells with one shot and long drum rolls with another.

Bigotry? It's Easy To Find In W. Virginia

By ARTHUR EDSON

PINCH, W.Va. (AP)—If it's religious bigotry you're hunting, you won't have to search far.

You can leave Charleston, the state capital, drive along the pretty Elk River, and cross over to Pinch. It's a lovely place, and it's easy to fall into a conversation with a kindly retired industrial worker. Soon the talk drifts to the presidential primary race May 10 between Sens. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass) and Hubert H. Humphrey (D-Minn). And how did he expect to vote?

"Well, I'll tell you," he said, "It won't be for no Cannady, I say no man can pray another man into heaven."

It's easy to make too much of this. West Virginia has no patent on intolerance. To paraphrase Will Rogers, we're all prejudiced, only in different directons.

Willie Fisher pushes a beer across the counter and says: "I'm a Protestant myself. Usually go to church Sunday, but last week I didn't feel so good. I listened to the radio, and here was this preacher saying how no one should vote for Kennedy because he's a Catholic.

"Soon as he finished I called him up and told him I figger a man had a right to belong to any church he chooses. I thought he had damn little to do to stand in that pulpit and criticize Kennedy. He said, 'I don't have any more time to talk to you.' "

"But I went to the doctor in town today," Walton said, "and do you know what he told me? 'Lord have mercy on the American people if he gets in.' "

Or let's go to Kingwood, in the northeast corner of the state. Here James Messenger, a coal miner, explains that last year he made exactly $127 in the mines and even with odd jobs never made enough to pay income tax.

"First time it's ever happened to me," he said. "Something's got to happen."

He hopes that something is Humphrey, a man he rates as the poor man's friend.

Yet the economic picture isn't clear-cut either. If West Virginia has its desolate areas, it also has some of the most prosperous scenes in the world.

It's this that makes West Virginia's primary so interesting—and confusing.

Castro's Choice As New Envoy Friendly To U.S.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Prime Minister Fidel Castro was reported Tuesday to have proposed Jose Miro Cardona, his former ambassador to Spain, as new Cuban ambassador to Washington.

No advice that Miro would be acceptable to the United States has yet been sent to Havana, but U.S. officials regard him as friendly to the United States and such word is expected to be sent in due course.

Sailor Killed, Four Injured In Car Crash

LANCASTER, Pa. (AP) — One sailor was killed and four others injured Thursday — two seriously —when a convertible in which they were riding veered off Route 72, ran into a tree and flipped over on its top.

Paris Counters Tunisia Charge

PARIS (UPI) — France announced Tuesday it has sent a protest note to the United Nations Security Council charging that Tunisian-based rebel forces had been making "more and more frequent" attacks across the border into Algeria.

The French protest, dated Monday, said there had been 128 such attacks on French forces in the first three months of this year—71 of them in March. It cited details of 13 of the what it called the most blatant intrusions along the Algerian-Tunisian frontier.

The French note flatly denied Tunisian claims that the French had committed violations of Tunisia's air space and territory in operations against Algerian moslem rebels.

Seven Forced To Abandon Two Md. Yachts Rescued

Five Others On Third Boat Reach Safety

By The Associated Press

Seven persons forced to abandon two Maryland yachts in distress were safe Tuesday and unharmed. Five others on a third reached port safely after feared to have been missing.

Two of the yachts were on their way from Fort Lauderdale, Fla., to Oxford, Md., when they ran into stormy weather and rough seas off the Carolinas Monday.

The Dutch Treat foundered in 30 feet waves. A tanker, the Esso Bethlehem, heard its radio distress signals and went to the rescue.

Taken off and transferred by lifeboat to the tanker were Charles J. Owens, head of a boat building company bearing his name in Dundalk, his son Charles, Arnold Moyer Jr., Jack Shannahan of Cambridge, and Jack Cranigan of Niagara Falls, N.Y.

The other yacht, Killdeer, meanwhile, did not know of its traveling companion's troubles. It went into the Charleston Yacht Club.

Aboard were Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. McComas Jr., their 10-year-old son Henry, and Thomas year-old son Henry, and Thomas Roy Brookes, 43, all of Bel Air, and Manuel Feder, 41, of Hanover, Pa.

Two other yachtsmen, Carl Gray of Bishop Head, Md., and Rodney Gibson of Bridgeton, N.J., jumped off a burning cabin cruiser off Wingate on the Honga River Tuesday noon.

They were picked up by a Tidewater Fisheries Commission patrol boat. The 35-foot cabin cruiser Resunda, owned by Gray, burned to the water line and sank.

Gray said there was an explosion in the engine followed by fire shortly after he had taken on gasoline at the Wingate wharf.

Capt. A. W. Smith, master of the tanker that rescued those aboard the Dutch Treat, said the seas were whipped by 30 knot winds at the time.

"Our lifeboat was severely damaged by the seas and was almost filled with water when it got back to the ship," he said. "It was too dangerous to try to bring the lifeboat aboard so we let it go."

He said the tanker will proceed to New York with the survivors.

McComas said he was sorry over the Coast Guard search for his boat, but said "we weren't worried. The Killdeer is a fine craft."

He said he didn't know of the search because "all we got was rock 'n roll" music on the radio, so turned it off.

15-Man Group Named To Draft Loan Firm Bill

ANNAPOLIS (AP)—Gov. Tawes Tuesday named a 15-man committee to draw up a new bill to regulate Maryland's savings and loan industry.

Richard W. Case, Baltimore attorney and frequent adviser to the governor, will serve as chairman.

The committee is the outgrowth of Tawes' veto of a bill passed by the 1960 Legislature to bring savings and loan institutions under tighter state control. The controversial measure was opposed by small loan interests as harmful to them and by some others as not broad enough.

Tawes said in vetoing the bill last month that he would name a committee to survey the whole problem and come up with new legislation for the 1961 session.

Among members named to the study committee were Del. Joseph Tydings (D-Harford), sponsor of the vetoed bill, and Del. Jerome Robinson (D-Balto 4th), head of a Legislative Council committee which had been looking into the problem. Robinson had criticized the Tydings bill as "hastily drawn" and not comprehensive enough.

Tydings had admitted that the measure was a "stopgap" aimed at bringing under regulation savings and loan companies which have set up shop in Maryland after leaving other states. But he said it was better than no regulation at all and was urgently needed.

Other members of the study committee include Leslie J. Clark, Cumberland attorney.

5 Hagerstown Youths Fined For Vandalism

WESTMINSTER, Md. (AP) — Five South Hagerstown boys, convicted of destroying property during a visit here Jan. 15 for a high school basketball game, were fined by Magistrate G. Norman Hunter Tuesday and put on probation for a year.

The youths were accused of smashing the windows of a school bus and a greenhouse, and exploding a homemade explosive device under the hood of a car.

The magistrate was told total damage amounted to about $1,000, including more than $400 damage to the car. Restitution was made before the hearing.

Hunter fined each youth $100 and costs on the property destruction charge and gave them probation without verdict on eight other counts. He also suspended their drivers' licenses for three months.

Under the probation, the boys will have an 11 p.m. curfew and will be required to make monthly reports to probation officials for one year.

The boys were identified as Harry J. Robol Jr., Aaron E. Light Jr., Paul W. Hess, Thomas C. Hunt and Robert C. Nixon. Robol is 18, the others 16 and 17.

Mental Hospital Escapee Captured

ANNAPOLIS (AP) — Willliam Sutherland, 26, who escaped from Crownsville State Hospital Monday night, was captured Tuesday in a roadside telephone booth.

His companion, Nathaniel Napper, 31, disregarded three shots fired at him by Anne Arundel police and eluded capture.

Lt. John T. Erbe and Cpl. John Flood spotted the two fugitives at Dorr's Corner on Route 3.

They had escaped from the mental hospital by overpowering an attendant and taking his keys.

Sutherland was committed last November after being charged with the strangulation murder of his girl friend. Napper was sent to the hospital a month later after a charge of armed robbery.

Third Cop Suspended After Crash

ANNAPOLIS (AP)—Patrolman Frederick Hyde, who was riding in a police car when it hit a pole and killed his companion, was suspended Tuesday for drinking on duty at the time.

He was the third policeman suspended by Chief Wilbur C. Wade in connection with the case. One of them, Patrolman James Skiles, chose to resign rather than face the charges.

Chapin and Skiles were in a separate police car. Hyde was with Patrolman Gerald Hnyla who died after their car hit a pole on Fort Smallwood road last Wednesday morning.

Chief Wade said Hyde told him the four policemen had been drinking beer before the accident.

Two Receive 18-Year Terms In Slaying Case

CAMBRIDGE (AP)—Two young men were sentenced Tuesday to 18 years in the Maryland penitentiary after pleading guilty to shooting and beating their stepfather to death.

Chief Judge W. Laird Henry Jr. pronounced the penalty on James Caldwell, 18, and Vernon Gilbert Murray, 20, in Dorchester County Circuit Court.

After they entered their plea to a general homicide charge, the judge heard testimony in the case to determine the degree of guilt. He convicted them of second-degree murder.

The Murrays were accused in the death last Feb. 10 of George Washington Lee, 48. Like the defendants, he was a Negro.

The court was told the stepfather had treated the youngsters brutally and had threatened them and their mother.

Woman To Woman

By PATRICIA McCORMACK

NEW YORK (UPI)—How long has it been since you and your husband reviewed your personal affairs?

The Personal Affairs Institute suggests that such a review be done once a year—preferably during May, the "personal affairs month."

The check-up should cover insurances of all kinds, wills and even the state of your health. The purpose: To give yourself time to think about the important facets of life.

The institute maintains that most families neglect such things quite often in the normal rush of day-to-day living.

A thorough "personal affairs" check-up is more than a do-it-yourself project, however. To be thorough about it, you should get together with your attorney, accountant, life insurance advisor, bank or trust officer and other qualified experts.

In the review of life insurance policies, plans and provisions, it is suggested that you consider adequacy, use of dividends, cash values, method of paying premiums, payment of proceeds and disability provisions.

On the matter of wills, the institute urges you to draw one up if you have none. If you have a will, bring it up to date. Do you want to change the executors? Have you considered the advantages of trusts?

The institute makes the point that a thorough annual physical checkup is a "must" for busy breadwinners and mothers. Even if you are feeling "tops," pick up the phone sometime during May and make an appointment with your doctor for a physical audit.

The Personal Affairs Institute, headed by Horace E. DeLisser, was started in Freeport, Long Island, in 1956. Twenty communities throughout the nation have caught the "personal affairs" fever, naming May as "personal affairs month."

"In a short time," De Lisser said, "the idea has spread to such states as Maine, New Jersey, Texas, Colorado and South Dakota, and to other communities in New York state."

Amish, State End School Controversy

HARRISBURG, Pa. (UPI) — State Atty. Gen. Anne X. Alpern Monday pronounced the end of the Honeybrook School controversy which involved the refusal of 13 Amish parents to let seventh and eighth grade children attend a Berks County High School.

Miss Alpern said an "amicable judgment" was reached when the Amish decided to send the 14 children to a neighboring school district next September. She was informed of the decision in a letter from Aaron E. Beiler, Gap, Lancaster County, chairman of the Amish Education Committee.

At an April 12 meeting between the Amish and state officials, Beiler said settlement of the dispute boiled down to choosing between sending the children to another district or setting up their own parochial school which had been proposed by the state. The sect was given until May 1 to make up its mind.

No school district was mentioned in Beiler's letter, but at last month's meeting he made specific references to Caernarvon Twp., Lancaster County. Through their decision, the Amish must pay tuition and transportation to the neighboring district. In his letter, Beiler said: "We would pay whatever charge was decided to be proper and fair."

Tawes Names Md. Agriculture Dept. Study Unit

ANNAPOLIS, Md. (AP) — Gov. Tawes Monday appointed a seven-man commission to look into the "propriety, necessity and advisability" of establishing a Department of Agriculture in Maryland.

J. Homer Remsberg, Middletown farmer and milk producer, will be chairman of the group.

The study was requested in a joint resolution passed by the 1960 General Assembly. The resolution was sponsored by the House Committee on Agriculture and Natural Resources.

The state's agricultural affairs are now administered by the University of Maryland Board of Regents, which doubles as the state Board of Agriculture.

If the group finds a separate Department of Agriculture is advisable in Maryland, it is to draft necessary legislation. A report is to be submitted to Gov. Tawes and the General Assembly's between-sessions Legislative Council by Nov. 1 this year.

All seven appointees have been actively associated with the field of agriculture.

Remsberg is president of the Maryland-Virginia Milk Producers Assn., president of the Maryland Purebred Cattle Assn., director of the Federal Land Bank of Baltimore, treasurer of the National Milk Producers Federation, and past president of the Holstein Friesian Assn. of American.

Serving with him will be:

Wilson A. Heaps of Street, past president of the Maryland Farm Bureau, bank president, director of the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Co., and active for many years in agrictultural conservation work.

J. Walter Hastings of Cambridge, veterinarian.

John D. Worthington III of Bel Air, farmer, newspaper man, and graduate of the University of Maryland College of Agriculture.

Dudley Smith of Mitchelville, formerly associated with the U.S. Department of Agriculture and active in agricultural affairs in southern Maryland for many years.

Wall Street Views

By JACK LEFLER

NEW YORK (AP)—Pessimism about business has been overdone and the stock market should take on a better tone before long, one Wall Street analyst said Monday.

"Without attempting to pinpoint the immediate action of the list, it strikes us that the market is approaching an area from which a good recovery could be mounted," said Standard & Poor's Corp.

The firm pointed out that while business is not as good as some had expected, the economy has not deteriorated and weaker areas are tending to stabilize.

"Overall business indicators were at record levels in the first quarter and should resume a moderately rising trend in coming months," Standard & Poor's said.

"The essential strength of the economy is reflected in aggregate corporate earnings, which show some year-to-year gain for the March quarter in spite of a number of well-publicized declines for individual companies. We believe the overall profits will continue to run at or above the level for the balance of 1960."

Air Conditioner that's 9 ways better!

1 More effective cooling
The cooling coil is located at the air intake; provides a larger coil area for cooling the air. Also assures a more efficient pattern of air passing through the coil.

2 Wrings out humidity
An RCA WHIRLPOOL does this job more efficiently with a "staggered" coil system that exposes more coil area to the incoming air. Removes up to 5.3 pints of moisture per hour.

3 Directs cool air anywhere
A flick of a knob lets you direct cool air to any part of a room. One knob does the job. This control assures draft-free circulation, too!

4 Filters more efficiently
New "Fram" filter is chemically treated to retard growth of bacteria trapped in filter. Filters out dust, dirt and pollen for cleaner, healthier living.

5 Won't obstruct your view
"Sits" low in the window; thin, too, so there's no unsightly overhang. Designed for fast installation in any window 27" to 40" wide. Installation kit available for windows 40" to 50" wide.

6 Thriftier to operate
Exclusive "staggered-tube" cooling coil and other design advances provide a greater BTU output per watt input. You get more cooling power for less money!

7 Whisks stale air out of room
Simply set a dial and automatically smoky, stuffy inside air will be drawn outside of the house. Eliminates opening doors or windows and causing a draft.

County Health Employes Pass Sanitation Test

Two members of the Allegany County Health Department have been certified as registered sanitarians by the National Association of Sanitarians, effective April 15.

The men, Walter J. Patterson and William F. Williams 3rd, were notified by Walter W. Kemsey of Burbank, Calif., president of the national association, that they had passed an examination by the board of examiners, thus qualifying them as sanitarians in all of the 50 states.

Patterson and Williams are two of only five registered sanitarians in Maryland, the rest being located in the Baltimore area, and one of them being an Army officer stationed at Aberdeen Proving Grounds.

Patterson, who resides at Woodland, RD 1, Frostburg, has been a member of the sanitation staff of the county Health Department for six years. Prior to that, he had been employed in the Baltimore area by the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Licensed to test milk by the State Board of Agricultude, Patterson has completed a correspondence course in sanitary engineering. A former student at Midland High School, he also attended the University of Maryland as an engineering student and is a Dale Carnegie graduate.

A son of Mrs. Mary (Miller) Patterson, with whom he resides, and the late Walter T. Patterson, he is an Air Force veteran of World War II, having served overseas for three years with Air Transport Command.

Active in the Masonic Order, Patterson held membership in Georges Creek Valley Lodge 131, AF&AM; Knights Templar and Shrine Club. He also is a member of the American Legion and the Maryland-Delaware Sewage Association, an organization for sanitarians and sanitary engineers.

Patterson is married to the former Miss Mildred Cesnick and is chairman of the Official Board of Woodland Methodist Church.

Williams, a son of Dr. and Mrs. W. Fred Williams, this city, has been associated with the Health Department for two years.

A graduate of Frostburg State Teachers College, he previously had been a teacher in the Allegany County school system. Williams also is an Army veteran of World War 11 with overseas duty. He holds membership in the American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Married to the former Miss Bettie Connor of Frostburg, they reside at 106 LeFevre Road. They have a daughter.

Suicide Rate High

TOKYO (UPI)—Tokyo teenagers are attempting suicide at the rate of nearly two a day, according to the metropolitan police board.

The board said 182 teen-agers had tried to end their lives so far this year in the city and 72 of them were successful.

It attributed the "alarming rate" to a growing "emotional instability" among young people.

Bronco Charlie Miller, 105, was the last surviving Pony Express rider. He died a few years ago.

Local Hotel Worker Retires After 42 Years

Deneen Banks, 314 Magruder Street, retired Saturday as an employe of the Fort Cumberland Hotel where he had served as a bellboy for 42 years.

Banks, who is known to hundreds of local residents as well as the regular patrons of the Fort Cumberland, worked for five years at the Queen City Hotel before going to the Baltimore Street hostelry.

A quiet and reserved man, Banks said he enjoyed every minute of his work and had numerous thrills during his long career. His top thrill, Banks claims, was serving on the late President Warren G. Harding when he stayed overnight at the Fort Cumberland.

Also rating high on his list of noted experiences is the time he escorted the late General John J. Pershing to his room in the hotel. Banks recalls a guard of honor was lined up from the Baltimore Street entrance of the hotel to an elevator, which was kept at the main floor until the arrival of the general.

Besides President Harding and General Pershing, Banks has personal reminiscences about many notable personalities, including Harry K. Thaw, Clarence Darrow, John Charles Thomas and Paul Whiteman. Theatrical personalities always were favorites with Banks, and he recalls with pride having served David Warfield and DeWolf Hopper.

Reviewing his career as a bellboy Banks says there have been many changes in the mode of life since he first answered the call of "Boy." A leisurely way of living has changed to a more alert way of life, Banks claims.

Nowadays, hotel patrons carry much more luggage than they formerly did, tipping has become much more generous, and both men and women are more "on the go."

Banks has no special plans for his retirement, other than "taking it easy." He has placed himself at the disposal of Fort Cumberland authorities and undoubtedly will be called on during rush periods.

Five Persons Slain

BAGHDAD, Iraq (UPI) — "Hired agents" killed five persons and wounded 50 others after May Day celebrations in Baghdad Sunday, military governor Ahmed Saleh Abdi announced Monday.

Abdi said the "agents" attacked the crowds with revolver fire and bricks. Most of them have been arrested and will be tried in court, he added.

The objective of the attack was "solely to impair security and split the ranks of the nation," the announcement said.

Lucky Discs To Be Dropped From Helicopter

Flying saucers are coming to the Tri-State area, but there's nothing to be afraid of. These particular Flying Saucers can mean money in the bank — if you're lucky.

Fifty thousand of the cardboard saucer-shaped discs have been printed and are now ready for distribution by air early next week as Cumberland's first Sports CARnival gets underway, according to H. D. Barber, chairman of the industrial tour and display committee.

Barber said the flying saucers are being distributed in conjunction with industrial displays that will be located in many store windows in the Cumberland business district all of next week.

Each flying saucer will be serially numbered and 50 will match numbers to be found adjacent to each window display. The finder of a Flying Saucer should save it to see if it matches any of the numbers in the industrial display windows. If it does, present it to a designated party at the display and a cash prize will be presented.

Arrangements to distribute the flying saucers have been made with Moran Coal Company, Westernport, which will fly over many communities in the Tri-State area in the company helicopter and toss out the discs.

They expect to cover a minimum of 20 cities and towns in Maryland, West Virginia and Pennsylvania on Tuesday, May 10.

County To Buy Insecticide Spray

The Ellerslie Fire Company will be furnished with insecticide by the county commissioners so that tent caterpillar infestations in the Ellerslie section can be sprayed.

Commissioner John J. Rowan said the proper sprays will be recommended by Joseph M. Steger, county farm agent, who is in charge of the program for the commissioners.

Rowan said only volunteer fire companies will be furnished the insecticide. The tent caterpillars made their appearance about a week or so ago. They are unsightly, but Steger said there is no great economic loss to the area.

Orchardists spray their trees early in the season and the average homeowner takes care of his own problem posed by the tent caterpillar. The infestation started out in full force last year and woodland areas, particularly wild cherry, apple and other fruit trees were affected.

Mental Health Drive To Be Held Next Monday

Final plans are being completed for the annual fund drive to be conducted next Monday by the Allegany County Chapter of the Maryland Association for Mental Health, Inc.

The campaign is being headed by Fred H. Anderson, local attorney, who is being assisted by Lowell Sowers, Frostburg; Mrs. Robert Davis, Mrs. Rudolph Steinberger, Mrs. Boyd Hunter, Mrs. Wade Root, Mrs. Virgil Raines, Mrs. Paul D. Long and Mrs. John W. Shifflett.

More than 600 women have volunteered their services to conduct the one-day campaign within the city limits of Cumberland.

The women will be assisted locally by members of the Tri-Hi-Y of Fort Hill High School, the Rainbow Girls, various homemakers clubs and the Firettes of the Baltimore Pike Volunteer Fire Company.

Anderson said between 8 and 10 homemaker clubs will assist with the drive throughout Allegany County.

The LaVale area will be covered by the LaVale Homemakers Club and members of the Auxiliary of the LaVale Volunteer Fire Company, while members of the Valley High School Tri-Hi-Y will work in the Lonaconing, Barton and Midland areas.

The appeal will be directed from an office in the Commercial Bank Building, under the direction of Mrs. Warren O. Norris. Persons wishing to volunteer their services or make contributions should telephone Mrs. Norris at PA 4-9020.

Two Request Immediate Trials

Hugh J. McMillan and Sarah C. Riggleman, both of this city, have filed petitions for an immediate trial in Circuit Court.

Donald W. Mason, assistant state's attorney, said the pair will be tried before Chief Judge Morgan C. Harris within the next several days on charges of forgery.

They were given preliminary hearings last week before Magistrate F. Allan Weatherholt on the charge and ordered held under $500 bond each for action of the next term of court.

Local Worker Hurt In Fall From Tree

Ann Landers . . .

Answers Your Problems

DEAR ANN LANDERS: Does the United States government care if people take home pens from the Post Office, ash trays from the court house waiting room and items of this type?

My husband claims that as taxpayers we pay for these things and in a way they belong to us. I say if we're entitled to them why do they have "Property of U. S. Government" stamped all over them? Also, I pointed out that the pens he brings home still have the little chains on them.

We have three young children and I don't want them to pick up these habits if it's wrong.—WANTING TO KNOW

DEAR WANTING: Taxpayers pay for the statues in our parks but he wouldn't think of taking them home, would he?

Your husband is guilty of petty larceny and he must know it. Just ask if he filches these items in full view of the Post Office employes or the court house custodian.

Taxes would be lower for all of us if the government didn't have to spend millions replacing damaged and stolen property. Tell your husband to cut it out. He's setting a terrible example for his children.

DEAR ANN: Will you please print a problem that must be bothering others in the age group 45 to 60?

I'm 46, hold a responsible position and have worked for the past 15 years. My husband's salary, combined with mine enables us to live well. I get up at 6:30 a. m. every morning and return from the office at 5:30. I do all my own cooking, laundry and cleaning. The only chance I have for relaxing and doing extra things around the house is the weekend. NOW — the problem:

Our only daughter lives 90 miles away. She has two active, young children. Every weekend and holiday they drive up, no matter what the weather. They make plans with their young friends and I become a sitter, cook and maid. She thinks we are THRILLED to have them, and I hate to tell her otherwise.

Frequently she's told me how wonderful it is to "get away from the grind of housework and kids" every weekend. In the meantime my husband and I are ready to fall to pieces. Have we gotten selfish? I'd like to print my name in capital letters but I wouldn't dare. Just call me —EXHAUSTED

DEAR EXHAUSTED: Your daughter should realize that a woman who holds a full time job needs time for herself on her days off.

You aren't selfish — you're human. And she's terribly thoughtless and inconsiderate. As a homemaker, she must know that cooking and cleaning for six is more work than doing for two.

DEAR ANN: We're in dutch with our folks and need your help.

Last night my girl friend and I had a slumber party at my house. We invited 15 girls. We planned to have a taffy-pull, pop some corn, play records and stuff like that.

About 9:30 six fellows came over unexpectedly. A half hour later another carload drove up. We don't know how the word got out about the party. Everybody was sworn to secrecy.

We were all in our pajamas but we thought it was O.K. to let the fellows in. My folks came home about 11:30 and they were furious. Now I can't go to another slumber party for three months. Is this fair? What else could I do?—VICTIMS

DEAR VICTIMS: You could have told the boys "Sorry but this is a hen party. We aren't dressed. Goodbye."

(P.S. — Yes, this is fair.)

To learn how to keep your boy friend in line without losing him, send for ANN LANDERS' booklet, "Necking and Petting — And How Far To Go," enclosing with your request 20 cents in coin and a large, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

(Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.)

Secrets Of Charm

by John Robert Powers

Powder With Care

All of your cosmetics and especially your face powder must be carefully matched to your skin. The right color and texture of powder can do wonders for any woman.

The powder you use should be to your face what technicolor is to a movie — a beautifying, transparent film. It's the weight of the powder which determines its filmy qualities. A powder too light in weight will disappear quickly leaving no trace behind it. A heavy powder will form an opaque mask when it is applied that will crack with wearing. Neither is the effect you want!

To perform its full miracle, your powder should be of medium weight. It will hold to your face, yet allow the natural color and glow of your skin to come through exactly the way light diffuses through a gauzy curtain. Always apply it over the foundation that is best suited to your type of skin. Gently press it on lavishly; let it "set" a few moments; then brush off the excess with a few light downward strokes of clean absorbent cotton.

Weight and application are only part of the tale about the wonders powder can do for your face. It's the color you use that brings the story to a completely flattering conclusion. The color of your powder must pick up and intensify your own skin tones under any light in which you wear it.

The effect light has on your powder and therefore on your face is extremely important. You may have noticed that in the daylight, your powder heightens your natural color as it should, while at night, the same powder lessens or even deadens the effect. That's because sunlight is full of glowing red rays whereas artificial illumination casts a drab yellow light.

Since you certainly don't want a little thing like the night lights to spoil a big thing like your night-life appearance, change the color of the powder you use in the evening just as you change your dress. Choose an evening powder with an intensity of color that will counteract the yellowness of electric light and bestow on you the same natural, lovely glow that is yours in the daytime!

Man Not Guilty In Overweight Case At Keyser

Emmette Jones, 45-year-old trucker of Elk Garden, W. Va., yesterday was found not guilty in the appeal case of an overweight charge heard by a petit jury in Mineral County Circuit Court.

Jones had been convicted by Justice of the Peace John Somerville, who found him guilty of being 9,100 pounds overweight. His truck was hauling pulp wood to the Luke mill of the West Virginia Pulp and Paper Company at the time the violation was supposed to have occurred.

Trooper Noechel was arresting officer and the truck was weighed in Keyser on U. S. Route 220.

In the trial yesterday, Jones was represented by H. G. Shores and H. P. Shores, Keyser attorneys. Judge H. Gus Muntzing, of the 22d Judicial Circuit, heard the case presented for the state by Prosecuting Attorney Donald Hott.

Fire fighters from McCoole to Lonaconing joined in a run to the Luke mill of the West Virginia Pulp and Paper Company at 6:20 p. m.

James E. Lambertson, Barton, was in charge of the run in which units from McCoole, Keyser, Piedmont, Luke, Westernport, Barton, Lonaconing, Beryl and Bloomington moved according to a predetermined plan which put some units in motion and held others in reserve.

David E. Kirk, county fire coordinator, said the fire companies went to the simulated fire with lights flashing, but no sirens, and at the legal speed limits since it was only a practice run.

Companies from Midland to Clarysville made a run to the Mt. Savage Refractories properties at 6:29 p. m. Participating were companies from Midland, Shaft, Frostburg, Mt. Savage and Clarysville. David Powel, Frostburg, was coordinator for the area exercise.

Assistant Fire Chief Alvey Poole was coordinator for a run to the Kelly-Springfield Tire Company plant here at 6:12 p. m.

Quench Brush Fires

Joining in the dry run were Cumberland's four departments and units from Baltimore Pike, Bedford Road, Bowling Greene, Cresaptown, Corriganville, Ellerslie, Flintstone, District 16, Bowmans Addition and LaVale.

A total of 216 fire fighters took part in the alert. Many of them were detailed to stand by at their own stations to protect their own territory in case of emergency.

It was one of the liveliest "dry runs" on record as two fire alarms came in as companies were on the move.

Potomac Fire Company, Westernport, and Tri-Towns Company, Piedmont, were detailed by radio to quench a brush fire reported while they were on the way to the Luke mill, and Barton, Bloomington and Lonaconing companies were sent to put out a brush fire which broke out as they were on their way to the simulated fires.

Potomac Fire Company No. 2, of Westernport, detailed members to witness CD alerts at all schools of the community.

All-Star Quiz Team Named By Area YFC Rally

The new champions have remained in first place since the beginning of the tournaments, being defeated only once by Allegany. The highest scorers on the Salisbury team, Tom McChesney and Carol Beachy, are entitled to a position on the tri-state area all-star team, which will represent the local rally at the YFC conference next month in Ocean City, N. J., against more than 30 quiz teams throughout the Eastern States zone.

A third member of Salisbury's team, Marilyn Beachy, according to points scored, is entitled to a place with the All-Stars, but being in the seventh grade, does not meet the qualification for the Ocean City competition.

Other All-Stars are Robert Mertens, Fort Hill; Ethel and Nancy Stevanus, Meyersdale, and Rebecca Blubaugh, Allegany. Miss Blubaugh rated first with a perfect score.

May will be observed as high school month by the local rally. Attendance contests will be conducted between "in-town schools" and among "out-of-town schools." Students from the best represented schools who attend one or more Saturday night rallies will receive free tickets to the annual hot dog roast in June.

The program throughout the month will include music, dramatic films, contests, quizzes and visiting youth speakers.

How Convention System Started

The national convention method of nominating Presidential and Vice Presidential candidates was originated in the United States 130 years ago by a political group so minor and obscure that probably not one American in a hundred ever heard of it.

In September 1830 the decision to hold the first national political party convention was made at a meeting in Philadelphia of the Anti-Masonic Party. Ten states and one territory were represented. The first national convention was held in 1831 and William Wirt of Maryland and Amos Ellmaker of Pennsylvania were selected as the Presidential and Vice Presidential candidates respectively of the Anti-Masonics.

In May 1832, the Democrats held their first national convention in Baltimore and nominated Andrew Jackson for President.

Prior to the institution of the national convention system, party nominations for President and Vice President had been made by a caucus of the party members in Congress.

A fight over the 1824 Presidential nominee of the Democratic-Republican Party sounded the doom of the caucus system. The Monroe administration and the caucus tried to pick Secretary of the Treasury Crawford as the party's Presidential candidate. But both Andrew Jackson and Henry Clay had a larger following among party members.

The anti-Crawford forces defied the caucus. Jackson, Clay, Crawford and John Quincy Adams all were Presidential candidates. None received a majority. When the election was thrown into the House, Adams was elected. Jackson supporters suspected a "deal" with Clay.

In any event, that was the end of "King Caucus."

These Days

'We Dissent'

The Associated Television, Ltd., of Great Britain some time ago put on two television programs about the United States. One dealt with what is wrong with the United States; the other was a defense of this country. The defense was no better than the attack. What William Clark, the moderator of the program, seems to have wanted to have discussed was whether this has become a nation of dull, joyless, fat, and self-satisfied robots. He collected a most amazing group of Americans to discuss the subject. Professor Wright Mills of Columbia University answered Clark amply when he said:

"When you ask the question what do you mean by conformity and dissent, you assume that all men tend to be political and that they either conform or that they dissent. Now neither of those situations is really the case for some people at least in the United States today. The situation is a third. Namely, that they don't care either way, that they neither accept nor reject. So that the problem of conformity versus dissent I should rephrase and say that it has been displaced in the U.S. scene as well as elsewhere, as a problem of apathy, of political indifference, of just not caring. I suppose this sort of thing is most likely to happen in a society which is doing very well economically, but I don't think that is the only cause of it. In the United States today there is no broad base of dissent . . ."

In a word, we are on the whole a satisfied, contented people who have little to kick about. It is a sound, realistic position, even if it is temporary. The next one to be interviewed was Alex King. I read what he had to say carefully but find nothing worthy of quotation. King apparently does not like advertisements which is his privilege.

Then Alger Hiss was brought on to speak for the United States. Clark's introduction of Hiss is a marvel of understatement and may serve some purpose. This is what William Clark told Great Britain about Alger Hiss:

". . . We put this question to someone now living in obscurity, his State Department career cut short by a famous trial in which he was convicted of perjury . . ."

Hiss spoke emotionally:

". . . I would think certainly one of . . . (the causes) in the past 10 years has been fear; sort of nameless fear, but a fear of the unknown, of unusual, unexpected things, and as a result of that, the thing sort of spread so that there has been a tendency to conform in the professions, in education, and even in cultural matters."

Had Hiss been adequately introduced, his British audience would have understood the cause of his fears. Furthermore, he might have explained that if there is fear in this country, it is due to the rising power of the bureaucracy of which he was one of the architects.

Alger Hiss was followed by Jules Feiffer of whom I unfortunately never heard. His comments I cannot interpret. They are of the new-fangled Beatnik type. For instance, he says this:

". . . Probably because if you pay attention to the issues they're too frightening, because the issue today is whether we can bypass next year or not and it's too horrible to contemplate. It's not just who's going to win this local war, or who's not going to win this local war, it's what's going to be left and nothing is going to be left. Nobody wants to think about that."

It would be very interesting to know what this means and in what manner it explains the United States to Great Britain. There is much more of it and one day I shall return to some of it. Some of the rest of it gives the impression that we are just plain nuts, if these are examples of the great American dissenters. Clark might have found serious dissenters such as Earl Browder, the former Communist leader, James Wechsler, editor of the "New York Post," Herblock, the cartoonist of "The Washington Post," William F. Buckley Jr., editor of "National Review," and Ward Bond, the actor, of "Wagon Train." There are dissenters on the Right and dissenters on the Left. Senator Barry Goldwater and Senator Wayne Morse or Senator Jacob Javits are dissenters of stature. Whoever picked this gang did not know America, but I shall give you more of this.

FPC Chairman Entertained By Oil And Gas Officials But Keeps Job

By Drew Pearson

WASHINGTON — This column has obtained a photostat of an unpublished letter from Chairman Jerome Kuykendall of the Federal Power Commission to the Legislative Oversight Committee regarding the number of free airplane junkets and other entertainment supplied him by the oil and gas industry which he regulates. It's an interesting document.

It's especially interesting when compared with the record of Commissioner William Connole, champion of the consumer, who did not pal around with oil and gas lobbyists on free junkets, but is being dropped. In contrast, Eisenhower reappointed Kuykendall.

It's also interesting in view of the fact that Eisenhower recently fired Chairman John Doerfer from the Federal Communications Commission because he went on a yachting trip with a big broadcaster. However, he's not firing Chairman Kuykendall, who went on many trips with oil and gas lobbyists. He's firing Commissioner Connole instead.

Entertainment Record

"September 1953, Independent Natural Gas Association, Houston, Texas.*

"March 1954, American Power Conference, Chicago, Ill.

"Although I was not on the program of this meeting, I flew there from Omaha, Neb., where I had attended a meeting of the Interstate Oil Compact Commission, so that I could inspect offshore drilling operations in the Gulf of Mexico at that time, as well as attend the meeting.

"April 1956, Practicing Law Institute, New York, N. Y.*

"April 1956, Texas Independent Producers and Royalty Owners Association, Dallas, Texas.

"April 1956, American Public Power Association, Los Angeles, Calif.

"April 1957, Southeastern Electric Exchange, Boca Baton, Fla.

Free Trip Record

What he did not mention, however, was that on one tour of the Southwest, courtesy of the Texas Mid-Continent Oil and Gas Association, only the three Republican commissioners went along. Commissioner Dale Doty, appointed by Truman, and Claude Draper, with a 20-year record of trying to protect the consumer, did not.

Later Doty was dropped by Eisenhower, in the same way Connole is being dropped now. He was not friendly to the oil and gas companies.

Chairman Kuykendall also failed to mention that he attended a cocktail party in his honor given by Stanley M. Morley, Washington attorney for West Coast Transmission, which at that very moment was applying for a certificate to build pipelines to the Pacific Northwest.

He also omitted mention of the fact that he was dined by Ed Falck, an attorney for several power companies, and flew to Chicago with Falck to attend the National Association of Railroad and Utility Executives.

The five cases in which Chairman Kuykendall took free airplane transportation from oil and gas interests, according to his own letter to the Harris Committee, were:

1. Trip to Houston and tour of Texas and Louisaina, Sept. 30 and Oct. 1, 1953.
2. Trip to St. Louis and return for Mrs. Kuykendall paid by American Gas Association, October, 1953.
3. Trip to Atlantic City and return, June 1954, paid by Edison Electric Institute.
4. Trip to Gulf of Mexico to inspect offshore oil, arranged for by Louisiana Conservation Commissioner, September, 1954.
5. Trip to Seattle and Grand Coulee, August, 1956, paid for by Pacific Northwest Pipeline Corp.

That's the record of the man who was reappointed to the Federal Power Commission in contrast to Commissioner Connole, defender of the consumer, who was not.

Fulbright's Statement Gives Aid To Nasser

By David Lawrence

WASHINGTON — Does Chairman Fulbright, of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, speak for the Democratic Party when he takes the side of Dictator Nasser against the Israeli government? Senators Kennedy, Humphrey, Symington and Johnson disagree with the Arkansas Senator in his latest pronouncement that glosses over Nasser's refusal to open the Suez Canal to all shipping.

Senator Fulbright in his statement castigates his fellow Senators — many of them liberal Democrats, like Senator Douglas of Illinois — because they voted last week against the use of American taxpayers' funds to help Nasser carry on his economic boycott against another country in the free world.

The House of Representatives has adopted a similar provision advocating the principles of free navigation. For a majority derived from both political parties sees no reason why the United States government should continue to send mutual security funds to Egypt if the latter seeks to destroy the economy of Israel, a country which also receives such funds from America.

Nasser has ignored the pleas of President Eisenhower to reopen the Suez Canal to the ships of all nations, though diplomatic help toward that end was promised by Mr. Eisenhower after Britain and France intervened in 1956 in the Middle East war. At least it was a factor in placating Israel, which early in 1957 withdrew its armed forces from the battle zones with that understanding.

The United Nations has tried repeatedly by its resolutions since 1948 to bring about a reconciliation between Israel and Egypt. But Nasser refuses to negotiate directly or indirectly. He says a state of war exists, and he uses that technical reason in trying to justify closing the Suez Canal to Israel's shipping.

If it be conceded that a "state of war" exists, then why did the World Bank, which is part of the United Nations organization, decide last December to make a loan of 56 million dollars to Egypt to widen and improve the Suez Canal? Cannot it be argued that the World Bank has thus taken sides in a "war" and has helped one of the so-called belligerents? Plainly Dictator Nasser cannot have it both ways.

Within the last few days another grave development has occurred. A maritime union in New York City decided not to help unload ships coming from Egypt. Immediately the maritime unions in Egypt and other Arab countries retaliated by refusing to unload American ships in their ports.

But the real reason for the boycott imposed in this country is the union's fear of damage to the jobs of American seamen in the future, because the Cairo government persists in refusing to let ships from any country go through the Canal if, at any time previously, they have carried any cargoes to Israel. This means that American companies with products destined for other countries in the world must maintain a fleet of ships solely for the Israeli trade, and cannot even separate the voyages of their own ships. Once a vessel serves Israel, it goes on the blacklist imposed by Nasser not only against Americans but against the ships of all other countries.

Within the last 48 hours, Nasser has issued a bitter attack on President Eisenhower blaming him for the boycott by American seamen in New York City. He holds President Eisenhower responsible for what the unions are doing, though he himself disclaims any responsibility for what the Arab unions are doing.

Should American taxpayers' funds be used to support any regime which discriminates against American seamen in this manner? Although the Senate and House recorded an emphatic "no," Senator Fulbright now accuses his fellow members of Congress of playing politics and of being influenced by a "pressure" group. The veterans committee of the Jewish War Veterans called this remark "an insult to the loyalty and patriotism of the members of this group who have served this country loyally in war and peace." It added:

"It is apparently the view of Senator Fulbright that American organizations must abdicate their right to speak out on issues affecting the foreign policies of the United States."

Senator Keating, Republican of New York, says that the action taken by Congress means that the United States is asking Nasser to "stop using the Suez Canal as a political pawn." Senator Fulbright, however, contends that the action by the House and Senate has "seriously compromised the conduct of foreign policy by the President."

But it is the Nasser government which is trying to sabotage American foreign policy. Within the last few days the Vice Foreign Minister of the United Arab Republic (Egypt), on his visit to Chile, told a news conference there that the Cairo government "will resolutely help Cuba defend herself against aggression if Cuba requests it, and if it is within our possibilities." There was a time when such a pronouncement would have been regarded as a public insult to the United States because of the Monroe Doctrine which warns nations outside this hemisphere to keep out of Latin-American affairs.

The Cairo regime has been boldly taking the Communist side in many a dispute, and yet the chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee imputes improper motives to other members of Congress who resent the pro-Communist tactics of Egypt's dictator.

THE PRIMARIES — None of the contestants got much comfort out of the Wisconsin Presidential primary election last month, and none of them are apt to get much more out of the West Virginia primary on May 10.

More and more, the public is realizing the truth of Harry S. Truman's statement that primaries are "eyewash." What Mr. Truman meant and what has proved to be the fact on many occasions is that the procedure of candidates entering selected primary elections, each of which has its own peculiarities, is inconclusive as far as determining public preferences.

A national primary would be a different thing. Under such conditions, the mass of public voters would be able to indicate their preference for Presidential candidates on both major party tickets. Further, they would be able to express, even if indirectly, significant public reactions to current issues and policies.

One of the shortcomings of the conduct of national affairs is that once elected, a President and his party tend to be frozen into a set of policies for four years without sufficient regard for changed conditions or changed public opinion.

Even if the President and his party should be thrown out of power in the next election, there is a good chance that some changes would be in the process of being made and therefore could be completed by a new administration with less shock to the economy and the public.

In this context, Wisconsin did serve a purpose. It showed that the farm issue is very much a part of voters' thinking, at least in the Midwest. It also served as a warning to Vice President Richard M. Nixon to step up his pre-convention campaigning.

Bowling Is Safe, But Injuries Do Happen

By Dr. Theodore R. Van Dellen

Bowling is one of the few sports that appears safe for anyone in good health. Outside of dropping the ball on the toes or getting the fingers pinched in the holes, we seldom hear of mishaps associated with this game.

Dr. James R. Hoon was bowling with a Sheboygan team when one of his men sustained an injury to his right groin. This chap was heavy and inclined to stand more erect than the average bowling stance calls for. He stopped abruptly on the foul line and staggered backward in obvious pain. In a moment or two he became pale and broke into a profuse sweat.

The bowler's physician-partner made an examination within a few minutes and found a tender swelling in the groin that had not been present previously. It got worse and the man was taken to a hospital. An incision was made over the swelling and the adductor muscles of the thigh were found to be torn and bleeding. These muscles are best described as those used in grasping the sides of a saddle between the knees when riding. In addition, one of the muscles had been so strained, it pulled off a splinter from the public bone to which it is attached.

The patient made an uneventful recovery. Other bowlers might be interested in knowing that he made a resounding strike on that last throw. The strain occurred when he stopped suddenly.

Dr. Hoon's report in the Journal of the American Medical Association included two other bowling injuries. In one, a physician slipped on a wet spot. In the other, a dentist made a sudden balk at a foul line. Both strained the muscles in the right thigh.

Dr. Hoon believes these accidents can be prevented through proper training and conditioning. Bowlers who stand too erect on reaching the foul line should alter their approach and follow through rather than stop suddenly.

TOMORROW: Food, dust, and other allergies.

Try And Stop Me

Frank Shuster of the comedy team, Wayne and Shuster, tells of a young Cuban intellectual who was suddenly appointed head executioner in a certain district by Fidel Castro. He had butterflies in his stomach the first time he led a prisoner forth to be shot, but asked the doomed man formally enough, "Would you like a cigaret?" "No," was the answer. Then he asked, "Would you like to be blindfolded?" Again the prisoner spat out "no."

The officer barked, "Ready," and "Aim" but just then the prisoner cried out a defiant "Down with the tyrant and scoundrel Castro!" The officer ran over and shook him. "You fool," he admonished. "Are you just trying to cause more trouble for yourself?"

The Southland experienced an unexpected and devastating blizzard early in 1960, during the course of which an associate of producer Garson Kanin phoned him in New York to report, "This snow has paralyzed traffic down here. I'm literally stranded in Alabama."

"Ah," nodded Kanin knowingly. "Immobile, eh?"

Fat worries Buddy Hackett. He has the shape and color of an overdone meatball. A barber said that long sideburns would make his face look thin. He was wearing them when we met at the Americana Hotel in Miami Beach. "Whaddya think?" he said, beaming. "I look like a Jewish John Carradine, hah?"

He doesn't. He looks like Buddy Hackett, only funnier. Mr. Hackett is a pathetic, defensive little comedian of enormous talent. His speech is flawless Brooklynese, and even the big words come from the side of his mouth. He rolls his dark eyes back and forth in a wise manner, but he is still the kid that the other kids most aspired to beat up on the way home from New Utrecht High.

His name is Leonard Hacker. He is 35, the son of Phillip Hacker, Brooklyn upholsterer. Mr. Hacker invented the convertible couch. He is 72, still matching swatches and fitting covers on wing chairs.

It is possible that more well-known Broadwayites went to school at New Utrecht than any other. Among them are Jack Carter, Dane Clark, Arnold Stang, Phil Foster, Abe Burrows, Michael Kidd and Martha Stewart. Buddy graduated in 1942, after a fierce fight with the people who write diplomas, and enlisted in the Army.

When the war was over, Buddy got a job in the winter helping people on with their skiis. When anyone permitted him onstage, Mr. Hackett told Army jokes and did impersonations of Henry Aldrich, Sidney Greenstreet and Akim Tamiroff, the Russian John Carradine.

For a finish, he yanked a lady patron out of her seat and did a Lindy hop. One morning, the manager appeared in Buddy's room and yelled: "Get out." Hackett said timidly: "Out of bed?" The manager shook his head. "No, out of town."

He worked in Dave's Bayside Inn for $12 a night and was in a road company of "Call Me Mister," and spent time at the Concord Hotel. It was there, in 1953, that he fell in love with a dancing teacher named Sherry DuBois. She introduced Buddy to her mother, Esther Cohen.

They were married on June 12, 1955. He had the wedding invitation printed: "Mrs. Esther Cohen requests the honor of your presence at the marriage of her daughter, Sherry DuBois, to Mr. Leonard Hacker." Sherry made him tear up the invitations and get new ones printed without the DuBois bit.

We were talking about how romance dies after a year or so of marriage and Buddy shook his head sadly. "She used to retire," he said out of a corner of his lip, "in a peignoir. Now she wears Army shoes and a turtleneck coverall."

They have two children: a boy named Sandy, 3½, and a girl named Ivy, 2½. Buddy recently killed a Broadway musical entitled "Viva Madison Avenue," and he did it in one night. Still, he has more television and nightclub dates than he can handle and one of these days he is going to hit his proper stride and go all the way to the top.

He admires Jackie Gleason, and sometimes they play golf together. Buddy shoots in the 90's. Gleason, who also worries about fat, although not to the point of hysteria, rides around the course in the fastest electric cart ever made. He is followed by a 63-year-old caddy who looks like a tired apostrophe. When Gleason reaches the ball, he grins and says: "Mmmm, tee it up, my boy."

When Jackie gets a seven on a hole, he turns the cart around and scoots all the way back to hole number one with the caddy dogg-trotting behind with a yard of tongue hanging out. He starts all over and keeps doing this until the script comes out right. Once, Buddy says, they shot 77 holes on one course.

Hackett found a Brooklyn scientist who could reduce weight by analyzing blood. Hackett phone Gleason and said he had gone down from 235 to 210. Gleason cooed: "A temporary adjustment, my boy." Buddy told him about the scientist, and Gleason ordered the doctor sent to his home at once in Peekskill. Buddy said the doctor wouldn't go.

So Gleason got a local doctor to take some blood. Then he wrapped it in warm blankets, hired a Carey Cadillac and chauffeur, placed the blood on the rear seat, and sent it to Brooklyn.

The diet worked for Hackett, but not for Jackie. When Gleason met the scientist and Buddy at Sardi's, he knocked off a few bottles of wine and murmured: "Doctor, you're killing this boy."

FRIDAY GAMES

LaSalle High School's Explorers stepped into the picture to break up the triple tie for first place in the Allegany County High School League by jolting Mt. Savage High School's Indians yesterday at Stitcher Field to the tune of 13-7.

Coach Chet Payne's Campers whipped Valley High's Black Knights at Campobello, 7-3, while Major John J. "Bobby" Cavanaugh's Fort Hill Sentinels whipped the Aggies at Flintstone for the ninth consecutive time, 6-1, when Gary Henry turned in a no-hit performance.

Phil Barbe, who started, and Charley Rice, who twirled the last 5 1/3 frames, limited Mt. Savage to six hits as the Explorers of Coach Norman Sell cracked the Indians' 4-game winning streak and knocked Joe Carter's club off the top rung in the eight-school circuit.

Explorers Get 14 Hits

LaSalle racked up a total of 14 hits, including doubles by Brode, Green and Sloan and moved into a tie with Mt. Savage for the runner-up spot, each team owning 4-2 records, just one game off the pace.

Franklin Brode, Bobby Green, Mike Long, Ronnie Speir and John Hudson shared ten of LaSalle's 14 blows.

Charley Rice got the win, his second against one loss while "Chuck" Winebrenner was the loser. The latter has a 2-2 record.

Fay Often, regular shortstop of the Mt. Savage team and leading hitter in the league, has been nursing an arm injury and failed to start the game. He finished the game in right field and batted once.

Wharton Wins For AHS

Bob Wharton went the route, scattered nine hits and fanned four as the Campers whipped Valley High. Bob is 2-1 for the current campaign.

Allegany collected 11 safeties, including a homer by Gary Clingerman and two-baggers by Mike Hadra and Bob Bishop. Joe Ranker, Hadra and Bishop garnered two hits each for the Campers.

Henry Mows Down 13

Southpaw Gary Henry mowed down 13 agies via the strikeout route as he turned in his no-hitter against Flintstone. An error enabled the Aggies to score their only run in the third frame. The loss was the 6th for winless Flintstone.

Glen Shipway headed Fort Hill's 7-hit attack with a double and two singles. Henry banged a pair of doubles and Sheetz rapped a triple and single.

Greenpoint Plays Wellersburg Today

Greenpoint Inn and Wellersburg will clash today in a County Softball League game at Wellersburg at 6:15 p. m.

These teams met last Friday and battled to a 4-4 tie, darkness halting the contest at the end of seven innings of play.

Mounts Win Third

EMMITSBURG, Md. (AP)—Mt. St. Marys dominated the field events Tuesday as it swept to a 91-31 victory over Loyola of Baltimore in a Mason-Dixon Conference track meet.

Dean Marracini led the Mounts with 16 points, scoring victories in the 120-yard high hurdles and pole vault, finishing second in the 220-yard low hurdles and the broad jump and tying for third in the high jump.

It was the third victory in three dual meets for the Mounts. Loyola is now 2-2 in dual meet competition.

Kansas City Loses On Siebern Miscue

BOSTON (AP)—Norm Siebern's throwing error on a 10th inning bunt by Pete Runnels let in the winning run Tuesday as Boston edged Kansas City 4-3.

Shortstop Don Buddin scored from second base.

Runnels dragged a bunt down the first base line and Siebern moved in to field it. The bespectacled A's infielder set for his lob throw with plenty of time but overshot Jerry Lumpe who was covering the bag.

Potomac State Loses In 10th At Elkins, 8-7

Davis And Elkins Evens Up Series

Davis & Elkins College squared accounts for a 16-4 defeat on April 28 by edging Potomac State College's baseball team in a ten-inning battle yesterday at Elkins by the score of 8-7.

The setback was the fourth against seven wins for Coach John Fox's Catamounts.

The Senators scored the deciding run in the extra frame when Ronnie Kuykendall, Potomac State catcher, dropped a third out-third strike on Shreve, threw wildly to first base and Ferrell crossed the plate with the tie-breaking tally.

Elkins' 10 hits included circuit blasts by DeMatteo and Cook and a pair of two-base wallops by Ferrell.

Michael, Fernandez and Kuykendall shared six of Potomac's 11 blows and the latter batted in three runs.

Belt Three Homers In 10-3 Triumph

By OSCAR FRALEY
United Press International

NEW YORK (UPI) — Two-run homers by Moose Skowron and pinch hitter Kent Hadley and a solo blast by Roger Maris led the New York Yankees to a 10-3 victory over Detroit Tuesday and handed the Tigers their seventh straight defeat.

The Yankees came from behind a two-run first inning deficit—after a 22-minute delay for a national civil defense test—to hand lefthander Don Mossi his second defeat of the season with a 14-hit attack on four Detroit pitchers.

Art Ditmar scored his first win of the season, succeeding Whitey Ford at the start of the second and getting relief from Ryne Duren in the seventh, as Detroit came up with nine hits but could not match that Yankee home run power.

Detroit put together four singles for the two runs off Ford in the first inning but Skowron's fifth home run of the season in the fourth with Maris aboard tied it at 2-2.

The Yankees chalked up five hits in the fifth to rout Mossi, who last year completed seven of eight starts against them.

Detroit got one run back in the sixth with three singles but then, with Bob Bruce pitching, and Ken Hunt on first, Hadley hit his first home run as a Yankee. Maris got his homer in the seventh.

The Yankees then added two more in the eighth on Tony Kubek's single, Gil McDougald's triple and Mickey Mantle's long fly to center.

Southern High, Keyser, Jackets Cop PVC Games

Petersburg, Romney Also Mark Up Wins

Southern High School of Oakland, Keyser High's Golden Tornado and Moorefield High's Yellowjackets remained in the running for the Potomac Valley Conference baseball crown by winning games played yesterday.

Dick Travis' Southern Highlanders made their record 4-0 by downing Elk Garden on the latter's field by the score of 8-3, behind the 6-hit pitching of Jerry Wine, who fanned eight batsmen.

Keyser Routs WVSD

Thirty Keyser players saw action in this one-sided affair as the Tornado bagged its 7th win in eight starts. The Mineral Countians blasted a total of 21 hits which included homers by Jim Chidester and Fred Clark.

Dave Vance, righthanded sophomore, tossed a one-hitter and whiffed an even dozen as Moorefield trounced the Circleville High Indians, 13-0, for their 8th victory against two losses.

Indians Windup With 4-0

Berkeley Springs, playing its last game in the PVC, closed with a 4-0 record by defeating the Paw Paw Pirates, 10-0, on a two-hitter by Donald Young, who struck out seven and walloped a two-run homer. Doug McBee blasted a three-run double for Coach Al Goldstrom's Indians.

In other conference action yesterday, Petersburg High's Vikings made their record 5-2 by trimming Bayard at Petersburg, 9-2, and Romney High School (4-2) trimmed Capon Bridge, 10-2 on a three-hitter by Bill Maphis who fired the third strike past eleven batsmen.

Jockeys Injured At Shenandoah

CHARLES TOWN, W. Va. (AP) —Three jockeys were injured Tuesday night in a three-horse spill during the sixth race at Shenandoah Downs.

Reynolds was the first to go down. His mount, Shiolah, stumbled while trying to move along the rail as the field entered the stretch of the five and one-half furlong race. Shiolah took Bahati and Perkey Miss down with her.

Perky Miss bumped Ambidexter as she fell, but Jockey Alex Goodwin bailed out and was unhurt.

Billy Pierce Defeats Orioles 20th Time, 5-3

Sox Whip Barber, Baltimore Rookie

It was Pierce's 20th victory of his career against only six losses in his meetings with Baltimore and it raised his season's mark to 2-1. Barber, a victim of two unearned runs by his mates' slipshod play, had his mark evened at 1-1.

Pierce, who fanned six and did not walk a man, allowed 10 hits and had to quell a two-out, two-on rally in the ninth by making Gene Woodling ground into a force play.

The White Sox scored their two unearned tallies in the second inning when Roy Sievers reached first on Ron Hansen's error. He scored two outs later on a double by Gene Freese, who in turn tallied when Jim Landis singled.

Barber was touched for two earned tallies in the third on successive doubles by Nellie Fox, Minnie Minoso and Roy Sievers' single. Luis Aparicio's two-bagger and Fox's second single plated the final run in the seventh.

The Orioles made two off Pierce in the fourth on singles by Woodling, Willie Tasby, Brooks Robinson's sacrifice fly and a single by Jackie Brandt. Ron Hansen's first major league homer in the fifth closed out the Birds scoring.

Senators Edge Cleveland, 7-6

Green's Hit Wins Contest In Ninth

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Lenny Green's single in the ninth gave the Washington Senators a 7-6 victory over the Cleveland Indians Tuesday night despite the sensational clutch hitting of Tito Francona.

Green's game-winning hit to center field dealt the loss to Bob Tiefenauer who took over the Indians' pitching in the ninth and promptly yielded a single to lead-off man Earl Battey. Tiefenauer's late throw to second base on Don Mincher's bunt and a force play set the stage for Green.

The loss dropped the Indians into third place in the American League race and the game was the seventh straight played by the Senators which was decided by one run.

Francona, a .363 hitter last season, entered the game as a pinch-hitter in the third inning and cut the Senators' lead to 4-3 with a sacrifice fly with the bases filled. In the sixth he doubled and tallied on Jimmy Piersall's single and in the seventh he singled after one baggers by Johnny Temple and Vic Power to give the Tribe a 5-4 margin.

The Senators appeared to have won the game in the eighth when Billy Gardner singled in a run that put them ahead, 6-5, but with two out and two on in the ninth Francona delivered a clutch double that tied the score again at 6-6.

Derby Trial Captured By Beau Purple

Cuvier Relic 2nd, Pied d'Or Is 3rd

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Beau Purple, a late arrival from New York, led most of the way Tuesday and won the $16,800 Kentucky Derby Trial Stakes at Churchill Downs.

Cuvier Relic was second and Pied d'Or was third.

Cuvier Relic, a 10-1 outsider, barely managed to take second place over Pied d'Or, one of three Calumet Farm colts in the 33rd running of the trial.

Eric Guerin, who won a derby aboard Jet Pilot, in 1957, rode Beau Purple who had gone off as the second choice behind the Calumet trio. The Calumets, who have won seven trials and sent on three of the winners late to win the derby, started as 4-5 favorites.

The time for the mile on a fast track under cloudless, warm skies was 1:35 3-5 which compared with the track record of 1:35 flat, set in the 1954 trial when Hasty Road edged out Determine.

However, Determine came back the following Saturday and outfought Hasty Road to grab the roses.

Twelve 3-year-olds, all of them eligible for the derby, started in Tuesday's derby trial but none, apart from the first three, looked like derby timber.

Roger Craig Suffers Collarbone Fracture

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Roger Craig, right handed pitcher who was a key figure in the Los Angeles Dodgers pennant drive last year, will be out of action "for at least two months" due to a fractured collar bone suffered on Monday night, the club annnounced Tuesday.

The lanky pitcher suffered the injury Monday night in a game he started against the Cincinnati Reds here in the Coliseum. Craig was covering home plate in the eighth inning when the Dodgers caught outfielder Vada Pinson in a rundown between home and third.

As the speedy Pinson broke for the plate he knocked over Craig taking the throw from third baseman Jim Gilliam. Despite being bowled off his feet, Craig made the tag on Pinson.

But a few minutes later he motioned to Manager Walt Alston and told him he had hurt his shoulder. Larry Sherry replaced him on the mound.

Mickey Solomone Has Four Winners

The 18-year-old Reinsman's first victory was aboard Arctic Angel ($14.60) in the opener and combined with the old master, Eddie Arcaro, to produce a $186.60 daily double. Arcaro won with White Collar ($17.60) in the second race.

Solomone's other triumphs came aboard Fat Roundone ($6.40) in the fourth and Darlin Patrice ($8.20) in the ninth.

MORGANTOWN, W. Va. (UPI)—Charlie Eckman of Glen Burnie, Md., and Zigmund (Red) Mihalik of Ford City, Pa., will referee the basketball game between the U. S. Olympic team and the Cleveland Pipers here Aug. 10, it was disclosed Tuesday.

Johnson, Floyd Clash Tonight

Light-Heavyweights To Meet In Philly

PHILADELPHIA (UPI)—Clarence (Tiger) Floyd is a 3-1 underdog going into Wednesday night's scheduled 10-round nationally televised bout with the number - one lightheavyweight contender Harold Johnson but the New York battler hopes to pull the upset of the season.

Floyd, a truck driver with a 10-8 record, fought his way to the sixth spot among the contenders when he scored an upset, 10-round decision over young Von Clay of Philadelphia here two months ago.

Floyd has been training full time for the first time in his career and will be out to score his second straight upset over a highly-regarded Philadelphian.

The muscular power - puncher has scored 29 knockouts in the course of a 62-8 career and has gained a reputation that scares off opponents.

Johnson has fought only 11 times in the last four years and will be looking for his 12th consecutive victory when he meets Floyd.

West Virginia Wins Over Panthers, 7-6

MORGANTOWN, W. Va. (UPI)—Sophomore Tom Stepp singled with the bases loaded and two out in the 11th inning Tuesday to give West Virginia University a 7-6 win over Pitt.

West Virginia loaded the bases in the ninth on a single, a hit batter and an intentional walk. Lauren Guthrie of Charleston was the losing pitcher. Saunders also is from Charleston.

Collins Beats Arnold Palmer For Top Money

Wins By 2 Strokes In Houston Playoff And Earns $5,300

By KYLE THOMPSON

HOUSTON, Tex., (UPI)—Big Bill Collins, who had won only one big tournament previously, upset Masters champion Arnold Palmer Tuesday to win the $35,000 Houston Classic golf tournament in an 18-hole playoff.

Collins, who is 6-feet-4-inches tall and weighs 210 pounds, fired a 35-34-69, three under par, to wind up two strokes ahead of Palmer's 35-36-71.

The only previous tournament Collins won was last winter's New Orleans Open. He tied for first place in this year's Phoenix tournament but lost in a playoff to Jack Fleck of Los Angeles.

Tuesday's victory was worth $5,300 to Collins and was by far his most important win of his golfing career. Palmer's second place money was $3,400 which gave him a season's earnings of $47,657.57, the most money ever won by a pro this early in the year.

Palmer said he planned to take a week off and spend some time with his wife and two daughters before playing in next week's Colonial Invitation tournament in Fort Worth.

Collins and Palmer wound up tied with eight-under-par 280s Monday through the regulation 72 holes and were forced into a playoff.

Phils Nose Out Chicago, 10-9

CHICAGO (AP) — Rookie outfielder Ken Walters' first major league home run, a drive over the left field screen with one out in the ninth, carried the Philadelphia Phillies to a 10-9 victory over the Chicago Cubs Tuesday.

The victory enabled the Phillies to smash a six game losing streak and gave them a split in the bobtailed series.

It was an up-hill triumph for the Phillies, who had to overcome a 5-0 deficit to gain their sixth victory in the season's first 17 games. Seth Morehead, formerly a pitcher for the Phillies, served the "gopher" to Walters.

Jack Meyer, second of three Philadelphia pitchers, held the Cubs to three hits over a five inning span to earn his first victory of the season.

Council Told To Clean Up Town Dump

FROSTBURG — Russell Y. Smith, president of the Borden Mining Company, told the Mayor and Council he was shocked when he visited the city dump area. Fire has destroyed some trees recently planted by the Forestry Department, he said, adding that paper and cans are spread over the entire area, as well as the road leading to the dump.

"Unless this situation is cleared up," Smith said, "we will have to cancel the license granted the city for the road into the dump, thereby making it inaccessable to the public. It is absolutely disgraceful and a serious fire hazard.

"We are reluctant to renew the lease, and if we do it will be on a one year basis so that we can maintain control over the area. Apparently you have neglected the dump and it is a decided reflection on the governing body to permit such a condition to exist," Smith concluded.

Preston pointed out that at least 90 per cent of the trash and garbage of the community is collected by city trucks, hauled to the area and disposed of. The trouble, he said, is that residents of outlying areas use the dump in the evenings and create most of the conditions mentioned.

Council decided to appeal to the Allegany County Commissioners for aid as a great part of the users of the dump live outside the city limits.

Goebel, police commissioner; James P. Kenney, water and light commissioner and T. William Preston, street commissioner. Council made several appointments after they assumed office.

Piedmont Pool Opens May 30

PIEDMONT — The Mayor and Council reappointed personnel for the municipal swimming pool which opens Memorial Day, May 30.

David Lambert was named manager at a salary of $225 monthly, an increase of $25 over last year. A student at Potomac State College, Keyser, he has completed a course in senior life saving.

James Skidmore and Richard High are life guards at a salary of $150 monthly. Rebecca Harshbarger was renamed ticket seller and Carol Price was also appointed to that position at $100 monthly. Diane Cheshire, Dorothy Smith, French Ward and Robert Shook, who are in charge of baskets, will be paid $70 monthly.

Each of the life guards, ticket sellers and basket attendants will work every other week and be paid for the time they work. The manager will also serve as a life guard so there will be two on hand at all times.

The debt-free pool will be open from 1 to 8 p. m. daily. Swimming rates have been fixed.

Council ordered that a new diving board, 14 feet long and 20 inches wide, be purchased.

In Memoriam

In memory of our beloved son, Ronald Gene Morris, who was killed 2 years ago today, May 4, 1958.

Softly the stars are shining,
Upon a precious grave.
Beneath lies one we dearly loved,
But whom we could not save.
Friends may think we have forgotten,
When at times they see us smile,
Little do they know the heartache,

Card Of Thanks

We wish to express our appreciation and thanks to our friends and relatives for their many expressions of sympathy during our period of bereavement, the death of our husband and father, Roy E. Crowe.

We especially wish to thank Rev. Emory McGraw.

MRS. CLARA L. CROWE and FAMILY

NEEDED WORK — Excellent references. I do my job, finest of all, my twelve million references will tell you so. My upkeep is far less, my days off are next to nothing. If I do need anything special, such as a timer or anything else, you'll find I need only as much as one-third the cost. Some of my distant relations play out fast and cost you as much in severance pay. But I won't play out. I'll always be worth something a great deal more. I can come into your home until June at no expense to you. My complete salary for up to 20 years of work is from $139 up, depending on what you want of me. $5 a month for 2 years is all the wage I ask. My name is Miss Maytag Washer and I live at Green Aplliances. You can tell where my sisters are working by looking at the clothes lines There is a difference. I have 50 years schooling for your type of work. You can see me at your Maytag Headquarters: Green Appliances, 38 N. Mechanic St, Dial PA 4-0730.

Opening lead: King of ♥

In today's hand the normal trump drawing procedure was abrogated in order to manufacture a trick which was unobtainable by any other process.

The partnership exhibited unbounded confidence in each others bids. South's six diamond call was in particular a vote of confidence and was interpreted by North as an effort to attain the ultimate. He, therefore, holding two of the three top honors in the trump suit, the very valuable king of partner's second bid suit and both unbid suit controls, returned the compliment by contracting for a grand slam in spades.

West led the king of hearts and when dummy appeared, apparently everything depended upon the successful finesse of the jack of diamonds, a 50-50 chance. From declarer's viewpoint that was an unpalatable prospect for, when essaying a 13 trick contract, one ought to be at least a two to one favorite to fulfill.

South casting about hit upon a plan which offered a better prospect. If the spades were divided 3-2, which was probable, the hand could be made without resorting to the diamond finesse. Declarer immediately returned a heart and ruffed it in his hand. He then cashed the king of spades and led a spade to dummy's ace. Another heart was returned and ruffed, and dummy was entered again with the king of clubs and the last heart was ruffed with declarer's jack of spades. A diamond was led to dummy's ace and the last trump was extracted, and dummy's losing diamond was discarded on declarer's long club.

Note that declarer had time to change his line of play up to the point where he played the king of spades and led over to dummy's spade. If the trumps had not divided, he would have extracted all the adverse trumps and relied on the diamond finesse. However, in this case he was able to use dummy's short trumps to extract the outstanding trumps and in effect make his own hand the dummy.

"Whee! This is FUN!"

Keeping Up With Hollywood

by Louella Parsons

HOLLYWOOD—Never let it be said that Kirk Douglas scares easily. Undaunted that "Spartacus" took over a year to film and cost around $12,000,000 — Kirk takes on another biggie, "Montezuma", —and for this John Huston has been signed to direct.

Huston gets here the end of May to get his picture with Marilyn Monroe "The Misfits" rolling as soon as possible. This is Marilyn's independent which her husband Arthur Miller is producing.

Then, Huston heads for Mexico for four months of research on "Montezuma". Kirk's role is that of Cortes who virtually takes Emperor Montezuma a prisoner and uses him to aid in his conquest of Mexico.

I'm not going to argue with the enthused press agent, who, in telling me that Robert Ryan and Peter Ustinov have been signed for "Billy Budd", called this story "The Ben-Hur of the Sea." Herman Melville's classic novel is one of the greatest martime stories ever written encompassing two events that changed the course of the British navy—the Spithead and Nore mutinies of Admiral Nelson's day. Ryan will play Claggart, the tyrant who is so cruel that young Billy Budd kills him. Peter is cast as Captain Vere—and, in addition, will do the directing.

This undertaking is the venture of the new producing team of A. Ronald Lubin (former vice-president of MCA) and writer Millard Kaufman—and Steve Broidy, of Allied Artists say shooting starts in the Medterranean in early winter.

The dramatic story of the Jackson E. McVey family of Houston, Texas, whose lives have been drastically transformed by an accident of atomic radiation, will be made into a motion picture by Tom Laughlin, who has obtained screen, literary and TV rights. Young Laughlin will produce and direct the movie tentatively titled "Poison in Our land" early this fall.

The McVeys who have been isolated from their friends and neighbors since 1957, for fear of contamination of the deadly radiation, have recently testified behind closed doors in Congress in an investigation into the plight of such victims. The family has arrived in Hollywood and will appear on Jack Linkletter's show "On the Go." Although there is no longer any danger of contamination, McVey has leukemia, and his wife and oldest son have cataracts.

"We are finally ready to produce our motion picture together," Carroll Baker told me over the long distance telephone. "Remember, you printed that my husband Jack (Garfein) and I were going to do a picture from the book 'Mary Ann'. It's all set now. We have the backing and we start in August in the sweltering heat.

"We are calling our picture 'Somthing Wild in the City'. I'll star in it, and Jack will produce and direct. Jack helped Alex Karmel, the author of the book, adapt it for the screen, and United Artists is releasing."

I am glad that the Garfeins have everything set.

Things have never been better between Edd "Kookie" Byrnes and Warner Bros. He tells me that because of the writers strike he has been able to appear in just one new segment of "77 Sunset Strip" since he and the studio smoked the peace pipe. Now the popular TV series is completely out of scripts and shooting has halted.

But "Kookie" is a very happy boy. He's been given permission to appear on Pat Boone's TV spectacular with many other big names. Although no details were given out about the terms of his settlement with Warners, I'm pretty sure "Kookie" has been allowed some outside TV appearances and there may be some motion pictures in the offing.

Stock Market Rebounds From Level Of 1960 Lows

NEW YORK (UPI) — Stocks pulled out of a seven-session slump Tuesday to score their best advance since mid-February, with leading steels, chemicals, metals and electronics setting the pace.

Individual gains ranged to 11⅜ points in Polaroid and improvement of 3 and 4 points was common.

While the advance was heartening after the protracted decline, commentators were inclined to attribute it to technical considerations, noting that the decline had left many prices at bargain levels. While the lack of pressure on the decline was seen by some as an indication that support may be forthcoming, the corresponding lack of enthusiasm on the upside was cited by others as an indication that a further test of the march lows may be necessary.

Trading, interrupted by a 25-minute air raid alert late in the afternoon, totaled 2,910,000 shares for the session, compared with 2,930,000 on Monday.

Of a total 1,215 issues appearing on the tape, only 310 were lower while 699 were higher on the day.

Chicago Grains

CHICAGO (UPI)—Grain futures were mixed Tuesday in an active board of trade.

At the final bell, wheat was off 1 to up ½; corn off ⅛ to up ¼; oats off ⅛ to up ¼; Rye up ¾ to 1¼ and soy beans unchanged to up ⅜.

The May wheat contract pursued an irregular pattern following Monday's sharp drop. It gained about a cent on covering and local buying early in the session. Selling by local longs and stop loss orders dropped the delivery a cent by the close.

Deferred wheat futures were firm.

Liquidation in May and active spreading were the main features of trading in corn. Some cash houses sold July and September futures closed steady. Receipts were light, and the cash basis firmed. Export subsidies were granted on 387,000 bushels of corn.

Oats were also steady. Commission houses traded on both sides of the market.

Rye grew strong on buying which spilled over from wheat. The Winnipeg market was also higher.

Soybean futures were comparatively quiet and mostly steady. Some selling stemmed from lower oil and meal prices. Local traders bought July beans late in the session.

Exporters reported Poland purchased 1,750,000 bushels of hard wheat. Formosa was in the market for soybeans.

Civil Defense Alert Results Good In County

Firemen Make Runs To Industrial Plants

Excellent results were reported here yesterday as Allegany County joined in observing "Operation Alert" as part of a nationwide Civil Defense workout.

The most dramatic phases of the alert came in early afternoon as Civil Defense and fire department sirens sounded the "take cover" signal and when fire departments throughout the county early last evening sped to quench simulated fires in three industrial plants.

William G. Barger, county CD director, said the response to the alert in Cumberland was splendid.

He said Arthur B. Gibson, city CD coordinator, and Police Chief B. F. Gaffney reported motorists and pedestrians, with few minor exceptions, cooperated in all phases of the alert.

Traffic Halts

All traffic halted and pedestrians took cover in the nearest building when the signal sounded at 2:15 p. m.

Mr. Gibson said J. Walter Byer, who directed CD workers on the West Side, reported good observance there.

He added that the sirens were not as loud as in some past alerts, since a new location is being sought for a big siren formerly located on the old Roman property, site of St. Paul's Lutheran Church.

Mr. Barger said even customers of one local food market cooperated in the alert.

He said all reports from Frostburg and other communities indicated a good response to the alert—and to the need for more volunteer workers.

A Conelrad test held throughout the county, he said, appeared successful.

Staff On Duty

The CD staff was scheduled to remain on duty at the county CD center in Constitution Park until midnight.

Dry Runs Held

Obey Civil Defense Alert

Several drivers are seen abandoning their cars on South Centre Street near Baltimore Street yesterday afternoon as sirens sounded the beginning of the Civil Defense Agency's "Operation Alert." Arthur B. Gibson, city CD coordinator, and Police Chief B. F. Gaffney, who were among the observers, reported excellent results, especially in the downtown area and added that CD workers, the Cumberland Police Department and Auxiliary Police, who cooperated, all said the alert worked out well. Volunteer firemen throughout the county participated in "dry run."

PPG Chemist Killed In Road Crash

Local Man Also Hurt In Accident

Arthur Joseph Kuhns, 32, of 106 Sylvan Drive, New Kensington, Pa., was killed instantly early yesterday morning in a one-car accident on U. S. Route 220, several miles outside the city limits on Bedford Road.

Injured in the crash was James Hinkle, 30, of 718 Yale Street, who was reported in "fair" condition last night at Sacred Heart Hospital.

Car Leaves Road

State Police at Bedford said it is believed Hinkle was operating the vehicle at the time of the fatal accident.

Police said the accident occurred just 500 yards north of the Maryland - Pennsylvania State Line on the Pennsylvania side.

Hinkle was southbound on the highway when he apparently lost control of his car, left the highway and rammed into an embankment. Police said the car was demolished by the impact.

Hinkle was taken to Sacred Heart Hospital and was unconscious when admitted. Attaches said he sustained a small laceration over his right eye, two skull lacerations and abrasions of his feet.

Father Of Three

Kuhns, a native of Kittanning, Pa., was employed at Works No. 7 of the Pittsburgh Plate Glass Company at North Branch. A company spokesman said he was assigned here the first of the year on a special project of developing twin polishing machines at the factory.

He was graduated from Kittanning High School, and joined the Pittsburgh firm at Fort City in 1946. He resigned shortly afterwards and enrolled at St. Vincent's College where he earned his degree.

A company spokesman said he resided at the Fort Cumberland Hotel during the week and returned over the weekends to New Kensington where his wife, Jerry Jean Kuhns, and three children resided. He was the father of two sons, Gary J., age seven, and David W., age five, and a daughter, Megan, age two.

The death of the research chemist was the third on Bedford County highways this year.

Pennsylvania State Police said no charges have been placed pending the completion of the investigation of the accident.

Plaintiff Gets Jury Verdict In Trial Here

Old Court Ruling Cited In Hearing

An Allegany County Circuit Court petit jury yesterday returned a verdict favoring the plaintiff in a civil suit in which he sought an $800 life insurance policy from his former wife.

Sylvan Durst, of Grantsville, filed the suit against his former wife, Mrs. Flossie L. Durst, of 217 Glenn Street. He sought the insurance policy and $300 for detention of the policy, the declaration filed in court indicated.

After arguments were presented by lawyers of both sides yesterday afternoon before Chief Judge Morgan C. Harris, the jury got the case and deliberated about half an hour.

During the trial, a Maryland court ruling of more than 175 years ago involving the ownership of slaves was cited.

John M. Robb, attorney for the woman asked the court for a directed verdict and the members of the jury were sent out of the court room while the motion was argued.

Hugh McMullen, who along with William H. Geppert, was counsel for Durst cited a case from 1778 in which the court held that the statute of limitations does not begin until a legal demand is made for an item held by another with permission of the owner. He said this is similar to the current case, wherein Durst had not made legal demand for a return of the insurance policy until last year.

He said the contention of counsel for the woman that the statute of limitations ran out because the policy had been in the woman's possession since 1953 would not stand in the face of the old court case.

He recounted how a man left his daughter a slave woman and after she married her husband assumed ownership. The couple had two daughters and when they married the mother gave the slave and her offspring to the daughters. The mother did not want the sons-in-law to have the slaves but made no legal claim. The court ruled later on that the slaves were the property originally of the mother of the two daughters and the statute of limitations did not apply.

Judge Harris denied the motion by Robb and the jury was recalled to hear testimony in the case.

Car Strikes Young Boy

A two-year-old boy was injured last night when he darted in front of an automobile on Valley Street near the intersection of Columbia Street.

City Police Officer Royce Clayton said the youngster, Neil Richard Shook III, son of Mr. and Mrs. Neil R. Shook Jr., 555 North Mechanic Street, was admitted to Sacred Heart Hospital with facial injuries.

The accident occurred about 8:30 p. m. The driver of the car was identified as Olaf Oscar Watne, 41, of 530 Riehl Avenue.

Officer Clayton said the parents of the boy told him they left the youngster sipping on a soft drink on the steps of a grocery store on Valley Street as they shopped inside. They said they frequently did this when visiting the store.

The boy unexpectedly ran in front of Mr. Watne's car as he was traveling north on Valley Street. The left front of the car struck the youngster. Officer Clayton said the impact broke the left headlight on the car.

Hospital attendants said the Shook child had cuts on his cheek, above the right eye and on the mouth. He was not badly hurt and was admitted for x-rays.

Science, Math Teachers To Hear State Supervisor

"New Developments In The Teaching of Physics" will be the topic presented to science and mathematics teachers of Allegany County by Lewin A. Wheat, state supervisor of high schools, at 7:30 p. m. today at Fort Hill High School.

Jack A. Petry, county supervisor of high schools, explained that this is the ninth in a series of 10 weekly programs arranged through the cooperation of the Cumberland chapter of the American Chemical Society.

Mr. Wheat is a graduate of Washington College at Chestertown and the University of Maryland. He was a teacher of science and vice principal at Chestertown High School. During summers he has participated in the General Electric fellowship program in physics at Union College, Schenectady, N. Y.; the Shell fellowship program in chemistry at Cornell University, Ithaca, N.Y., and in two national science foundation programs — one in biology at Indiana University and one in physical science study committee physics course at Oak Ridge, Tenn.

The state supervisor is working with the State Department of Education as a consultant in science and mathematics in connection with the National Defense Education Act program.

Auto Safety Check Plan Begins At 5

Operation Safety Check, a voluntary and free check of area automobiles, is scheduled to open today at 5 p. m. with four check lanes to be available to motorists.

Locations of the check lanes will be at the intersection of Frederick and Bedford streets; Spoerl's Used Car lot on North Mechanic Street west of the Henderson Avenue intersection; Virginia Avenue near the B&O YMCA, and on the south side of the Dingle Hill near the city limits.

The lanes will be open from 5 until 9 p. m. today. Each lane will be staffed by experienced auto mechanics and tire men in addition to members of Cumberland Chapter 377, Safe-Teens.

Lynn Walker, publicity chairman for the program, again emphasized last night that the inspection is voluntary and that there is no charge for the service offered to Cumberland and Frostburg area drivers in this 10-point inspection of their automobiles.

The program is offered in cooperation with the National Vehicle Safety Check for communities, conducted nationwide by an agency of the President's Traffic Safety Commission.

In Cumberland the project is being operated by the Safe-Teen organization with the Cumberland Optimist Club as sponsor. In Frostburg the Safe-Teen chapter operating the check lane at Beall High School is being sponsored by the Frostburg Lions Club.

These organizations invite everyone to take advantage of the free inspection of automobiles. Their motto for the program is Join the Circle of Safety — Check Your Car, Check Your Driving, Check Accidents.

Lads Hold Wading Party In Wills Creek

They were armed with poles and at least one lad managed to stun a fish by slapping the water before city police arrived.

Magistrates Endorse Plan Of Safe-Teens

The Trial Magistrates Affiliation of Allegany County met Sunday afternoon as the guests of Magistrate V. Browne Kooken, 415 Johnson Street, Westernport, and heard a talk by Lynn Walker, one of the sponsors of Safe-Teens.

The affiliation passed a resolution endorsing the program of safety as supported by the Safe-Teens and agreed to cooperate in their plan to help educate youthful drivers.

Mr. Walker suggested that when young people come before the magistrates of the county on traffic violations, that they be asked if they are members of Safe-Teens. If so, he said, the club, which is international in scope, recommends that the magistrates lift the offenders membership card. If any offender is not a member, it can be suggested to him that he contact Safe-Teens for possible membership and training in the "rules of the road, highway safety and highway courtesy."

Magistrate Kooken, president of the affiliation complimented Mr. Walker for his interest in promoting safety and especially for his dedicated work over a long period of years with young people.

The magistrates adopted a constitution and by-laws and decided to have a speaker at each monthly meeting. The next session will be held at the home of Magistrate Harold E. Naughton, 807 MacDonald Terrace.

Stunting Plane Causes False Crash Report

A call from a Garrett County farmer set the wheels in motion for a search of the mountainous area near Accident yesterday when a twin-engine plane was believed to have crashed in flames.

But several hours later, about 9 p. m., the sheriff's office in Oakland said the report was false and that it appeared that a plane stunting in the area had caused witnesses to believe it had crashed.

State Police said a call at 5:43 p. m. notified them that a plane flying west over Accident had suddenly spiriled down behind a mountain, trailing smoke. At first it was believed to be an airliner headed for Pittsburgh.

Police immediately dispatched a cruiser to the scene and the Civil Air Patrol and Civil Aeronautics Administration were notified to begin the search in the event the plane had crashed in the mountainous area.

However, shortly after dark, investigating officers said they determined that a small aircraft flying from McHenry and piloted by a Pittsburgh man had been stunting in the vicinity. The plane landed safely at McHenry shortly after the report was made.

Sheriff James Frantz at Oakland said officials now believe that the plane seen by the farmer actually was the Pittsburgh flyer stunting his small craft.

State Troopers Willis Foreman and Ronald Davis were still investigating at 1 a. m. today.

The body was being brought back to Cumberland for positive identification. The victim apparently was traveling alone and no other vehicle was involved in the crash.

Depressed Area Bill Support Is Urged By Tawes

Western Maryland Areas Would Qualify

ANNAPOLIS (AP)—Gov. Tawes has urged Maryland's seven Democratic congressmen to support the so-called Area Redevelopment Act which would set up a federal agency to assist depressed areas.

The act, known as the Flood-Douglas-Clark Bill, has passed the Senate and has received approval of the House Banking and Currency Committee. It it currently in the House Rules Committee.

Tawes noted that the bill is designed to aid, through federal loans and technical assistance, areas of chronic unemployment seeking to attract new industry and improve public facilities. Vocational retraining of unemployed for new types of jobs would also be offered in areas which have lost industry on which they were dependent.

The governor said he has been advised that Cumberland, Cambridge, Hagerstown, Crisfield, Elkton and Garrett County, Md. would all qualify for participation in such a program since all have experienced more than 6 per cent unemployment over a period of 18 months or longer.

"I believe you are aware of my concern for the economic development of our state as evidenced by my support for the creation of a State Department of Economic Development," Tawes told the congressmen. "I am anxious, as I am sure you are, to do all that we can to increase economic opportunity throughout all of Maryland and particularly in our underdeveloped areas.

"The bill would, I believe, be helpful to our efforts to provide economic opportunity for all. I hope, after careful study of the bill, that you will support its passage."

Tawes' letters to Maryland congressmen went out last week. His office said Tuesday he has already received replies from Reps. Samuel N. Friedel and Edward A. Garmatz promising to support the bill. Both said they have favored such legislation for some time.

Georges Creek Area Fails In Blood Quota

The Red Cross bloodmobile collected 60 pints of blood yesterday on its quarterly visit to Lonaconing. The quota for the Lonaconing - Barton - Midland area is 85 pints.

Only 49 donors had been scheduled for this visit at the Lonaconing VFW home and of this number, 40 kept their appointments. Three cancelled and six failed to appear. There were however, 26 volunteer walkins. Six persons gave blood as replacements and six were rejected for disabilities. Five of those who gave blood were first timers.

Seven names were added to the One Gallon Club. They include, Alvin Beeman, Mrs. Alma E. Durst and Grant O. Glotfelty, all of Barton; James Ferrens, Robert G. Muir, Mrs. Margaret Stafford and Miss Catherine Tendleberry, all of Lonaconing.

Physicians on duty were Dr. William W. Lesh of Westernport and Dr. Lester Miles Jr. of Lonaconing.

Bloodmobile officials indicate that unless the area can raise its quota of donors, it may be necessary to drop the section from the blood program. An area which donates its regular quota of blood makes it possible for all residents of that area to receive blood free, in the event of sickness, injury or an emergency.
